Atlanta Braves in the Community

The Braves' connection and commitment to our neighbors reaches far beyond the walls of Turner Field. It extends to the hearts and homes of the many people who support our team. The Braves are committed to working rigorously to improve the quality of life and to share our love of baseball with our community.

Youth Baseball

The Braves are committed to sharing with the community one of the skills we know best – baseball. Our dedication, enthusiasm and respect for the game are visible on and off of the field. Through our community outreach initiatives including the Junior Braves/RBI League presented by Delta Airlines, the Braves Youth Classic presented by Bank of America and the Jackie Robinson Baseball Invitational, we strive to foster the spirit of baseball among youth.

She Can Play

Hosted by the Braves Wives, "She Can Play" is a health and fitness initiative that encourages active lifestyles for girls ages 8-12. More than 300 girls from local youth organizations get the opportunity to participate in various physical activities including dance, yoga, agility drills and softball skills training. They also learn about positive body imaging and healthy eating habits.

Military Appreciation

The Atlanta Braves support our troops, veterans and their families through various ways, including visits to veteran's hospitals and military bases, hosting holiday events for military families, game ticket donations and honoring hometown heroes during Braves games.

Braves Baseball Academy

The Braves Baseball Academy is an eight-acre, signature youth sports complex just minutes from Turner Field located at the Villages of Carver Family YMCA. The first-class facility provides a safe and nurturing environment for youth to participate in sports and education programs. The four baseball fields at the facility were constructed through sizeable donations from the Braves Foundation, MLB's Baseball Tomorrow Fund and former Braves players Chipper Jones, John Smoltz, Mike Hampton and Brian Jordan.

Atlanta Braves Foundation

The Atlanta Braves Foundation is the non-profit charitable arm of the Atlanta Braves that actively supports community organizations and their programs within the metro Atlanta area. Since its inception in 1994, the Braves Foundation has provided support to thousands of metro Atlanta-based organizations and has annually contributed more than $5.3 million in financial and in-kind assistance to the community. Through the generous support of the Braves players, employees, sponsors and fans, the Atlanta Braves Foundation continuously strives to make a positive impact in our community.

License Plate Program

Support the Atlanta Braves Foundation and show your team spirit as you travel through Georgia's roads and highway and throughout Braves Country with a special edition, state-issued Atlanta Braves license plate. Ten dollars from every plate will benefit the Braves Foundation. To register visit: www.braves.com/tags.

Grants Program

Each year, the Atlanta Braves Foundation grants funds to youth-serving organizations that focus on health, education, and recreation, and whose plans for the requested funds will have a significant impact upon the individuals served by the requesting organization. Thanks to the support of thousands of fans and community partners, the Braves Foundation was successful in its fundraising efforts in 2013 and awarded 175,000 in grants to local nonprofit organizations.

Foundation Weekend

A three-day sports memorabilia fest, the Braves Foundation Weekend provides all fans in attendance the opportunity to purchase a variety of Braves memorabilia. Funds raised during the three-day event are utilized by the Braves Foundation to support local charitable organizations through the grant giving.

Turner Field - Home of the Braves since 1997.

Terence F. McGuirk

Chairman and CEO

Terence F. McGuirk is chairman and CEO of the Atlanta Braves. He also served as team president from November 2003 to October 2007. In his current capacity, he maintains executive oversight of all aspects of the Braves franchise, including all team operations, Turner Field and representation at Major League Baseball ownership meetings.

McGuirk spent 35 years at Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS), beginning in 1972 as an account executive with WTCG, which later became TBS Superstation. In 1973, he assumed the same role at TBS-owned WRET in Charlotte, N.C. McGuirk returned to Atlanta in 1975 as director of cable relations, where he was instrumental in the launch of TBS Superstation and played a key role in the launch of every Turner network through 2001.

In 1978, McGuirk was named director of special projects for TBS, Inc. and in 1979 was appointed vice president of TBS, Inc. From 1987 to 1991, he served as president of Turner Network Sales and CNN International Sales, Ltd., where he set up the company's international sales and distribution operations. He was elected to the TBS, Inc. board of directors in July 1987. Concurrently, McGuirk was president of Turner Sports where, during his tenure, he was instrumental in securing coverage of the Olympics for cable television for the first time and oversaw the resurgence of the winningest team in Major League Baseball, the Atlanta Braves.

As executive vice president, McGuirk served as the company's second in command from 1991 to 1996. When TBS, Inc. merged with Time Warner Inc. in 1996, he succeeded R.E. (Ted) Turner as chairman, president and CEO. He served as chairman and chief executive officer of the company until March 2001. From that point through December 2003, McGuirk was vice chairman of Turner Broadcasting System Inc., along with being chief executive officer of the company-owned Atlanta sports teams, including the Major League Baseball Braves, the National Basketball Association Hawks and the National Hockey League Thrashers.

McGuirk has served on the board of many cable industry-related groups and the International Olympic Committee's Radio and Television Commission. He was the 1989 recipient of the NCTA Vanguard Award for Young Leadership and was inducted into the fellowship of Cable Television Pioneers at the 1996 NCTA Convention.

A native of Bayshore, N.Y., McGuirk is a graduate of Portsmouth Abbey School and holds a bachelor of arts degree in American history from Middlebury College. McGuirk is the chairman of the Major League Baseball Media Committee and is on the board of the MLB Network and MLBAM (Major League Baseball Advanced Media). He sits on the board of directors of Haverty's, Inc., and is a Trustee Emeritus of both Piedmont Healthcare and The Westminster Schools. McGuirk was the 2000 recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Stewart Lewengrub Torch of Liberty Award. In 2006, he received the Governors Award from the southeastern chapter of the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences and in 2010 he entered the Cable Television Hall of Fame.

Terry and his wife, Nancy, live in Atlanta and have four children.

Atlanta Braves Ownership

Liberty Media Corporation officially acquired the Atlanta Braves on May 16, 2007, when Baseball Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig announced that Major League Baseball ownership had approved Turner Broadcasting and Time Warner's sale of the team.

Based in Englewood, Colorado, Liberty Media owns interests in a broad range of electronic retailing, media, communications, sports and entertainment businesses. Liberty's Chairman is John Malone. The following Liberty executives serve on the ANLBC Board: Mark D. Carleton, Gregory B. Maffei, Albert E. Rosenthaler, Christopher W. Shean, Charles Y. Tanabe and Craig Troyer.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman Emeritus

Bill Bartholomay, named Chairman Emeritus of the Atlanta Braves in November 2003, was previously Chairman of the Board of Directors of the team since its move to Atlanta in 1966. He has witnessed the Braves win 17 division championships (including a record-setting 14 in a row), five National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another NL West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and divisional titles in 1997 and 1998. The team won its fifth National League pennant in 1999 and division titles each year from 2000 to 2005 and in 2013.

Bartholomay has been involved with the team as a director or owner for more than 50 years. In 1962, he became Chairman of the Milwaukee Braves and led the group in moving the club to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is the Chairman of the Finance Committee for Major League Baseball, the Chairman of the Ownership Committee, and a member of Major League Baseball's Equal Opportunity Committee. He also serves as a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council, and as a trustee of Major League Baseball Player's Benefit Plan.

In January 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area." In 2002, Bartholomay was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame.

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is Vice Chairman of Willis Group Holdings (NYSE). He is a Director or Trustee of many other civic and business organizations and educational institutions throughout the country.

In the fall of 2009, the Braves began a collaboration with the Trey Duffy Scholarship Foundation. The program makes available four college scholarships, up to $10,000 each, for Atlanta Braves employees and their families. The Trey Duffy Scholarship was established in memory of Bartholomay's, grandson Raymond F. Duffy III, known as "Trey." Recipients of the scholarships exemplify some of the qualities embodied by Trey: a true passion for the Atlanta Braves, a strong commitment to make an impact in the community, solid academics, and a love for the game of baseball.

John Schuerholz

President

Named president of the Atlanta Braves on October 11, 2007, John Schuerholz oversees all operations for the Braves franchise.

Schuerholz served 26 years as a general manager, from 1982 to 2007, including 17 as the Braves' executive vice president and general manager from 1991 to 2007. Schuerholz came to the Braves from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, and before his promotion to president, he had the longest tenure with the same organization among all major league GMs.

Under his leadership and guidance, the Braves achieved unprecedented success, compiling the best record in baseball (1,594-1,092; .593) over those 17 seasons from 1991 to 2007. The Braves established an American professional sports record by winning 14 consecutive division titles from 1991 to 2005 (the 1994 season was not played to completion).

The Braves have won five National League pennants, one World Series, several organization of the year awards and have surpassed the 3,000,000 mark in home attendance six times since 1991. By finishing 101-61 in 2003, the Braves reached the century mark in victories for the fifth time in seven seasons and for the sixth time since 1993.

Schuerholz currently serves on the Major League Baseball's Playing Rules Committee and is Co-Chairman of the Commissioner's On-Field Committee. He also served as Chairman of the Instant Replay Expansion Committee, which oversaw the historic implementation of the use of expanded replay beginning in 2014.

During his career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, Schuerholz has been associated with three World Champions (1966, 1985 and 1995), eight pennant winners and 20 division crowns. In 2004, to honor his nearly 40 years of success at the major league level, Baseball America named him the recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award. Atlanta's overall success in 2005 also helped the Braves earn Baseball America's prestigious Organization of the Year award.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Braves and Schuerholz. In January 2014 he was honored with the Outstanding Achievement in Baseball Award by the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation. He was inducted into the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame in 2008 and the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum recognized John as the National League Executive of the Year with its Andrew "Rube" Foster Award in 2001, 2002 and 2005. The Braves 400 Club bestowed its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" Award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" to Schuerholz in February 2000. Baseball America honored the Braves as the most outstanding major league franchise of the past two decades with its 20th Anniversary Award of Excellence in December 2001. As a result of the Braves' 1991 worst-to-first performance, Schuerholz was named the Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend Magazine.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction - he became the first executive to be general manager of world championship teams in both the American and National leagues. In his 26 years as a general manager with Kansas City and Atlanta, his teams totaled an amazing 2,348 wins.

During Schuerholz's time with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship (1985), two American League pennants (1980 and 1985) and six division crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz as the Major League Executive of the Year in 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

As a general manager, Schuerholz proved to be a man of action ever since joining the Braves. An average of 10 new faces appeared on the club's Opening Day roster each year, reflecting offseason transactions and the maturing of farm system products. Almost without exception during the season, Schuerholz annually acquired at least one player who contributed greatly to the Braves' successful run. John Smoltz was the only Braves player who was around for all 14 division titles from 1991 to 2005.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later, and as an administrative assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. He was named Assistant Farm Director in 1970 and became Farm Director in 1975. He was promoted to director of player procurement and development in 1976 and vice president-player personnel in 1979. The Royals named Schuerholz executive vice president and general manager in October of 1981, when he was 41.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) University, where he played soccer and baseball. He was an all-conference choice in baseball and was named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973 and served on the school's Board of Visitors. Towson's baseball facility is named John Schuerholz Park.

Schuerholz authored his first book, "Built to Win: Inside Stories and Leadership Strategies from Baseball's Winningest GM," which was released in the spring of 2006.

He and his wife Karen have two children, Gina and Jonathan, two granddaughters, Camryn and Rylee, and a grandson, Boland. Jonathan Schuerholz has been a player or instructor in the Braves' farm system since 2002. The 2014 season marks his fourth as a manager in the organization and his first at the helm of the Rome Braves.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President

Since his retirement from professional baseball, Henry Aaron has given back to society for nearly 40 years.

His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established in 2007 to help children between the ages of nine and 12 realize their dreams, as he realized his. The foundation provides grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports. The foundation has provided financial assistance to more than 755 Dream Chasers in six cities across the country, primarily through Boys and Girls Clubs. The generous support of Major League Baseball has enabled the foundation to transition into the Hank Aaron Chasing the Dream "44 Forever" program (honoring Aaron's jersey number), helping 44 youngsters annually. The program will continue the foundation's mission in perpetuity and will provide financial assistance to young people with limited opportunities so they may develop their special talents and pursue their dreams, exclusively at Boys and Girls Clubs across the country and military bases world-wide.

The Hank Aaron Chasing the Dream Four-for-Four Scholarship program, begun in 2010, has endowed four-year scholarships for the benefit of deserving students who have chosen to pursue their dreams by attending college. With particular emphasis on prior dream chasers who have now reached college age, these endowed scholarships of $100,000 each were initially established at Morehouse College, Texas College, Fisk University and, through the Dream Chaser Fund with the Greater Milwaukee Foundation, the University of Wisconsin-Madison, in honor of alumnus and Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig.

Aaron received the first Jackie Robinson Lifetime Achievement Legacy Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, honoring his "career excellence in the face of adversity" in February 2003.

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5, 1999, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, the Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were among those in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron's talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award is presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American leagues and was unveiled at the 1999 World Series.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83.

Since December 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President for the Braves.

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's record book. When he retired at the end of the 1976 season, he held more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Some of his records are truly amazing, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). In 2007, Barry Bonds broke Aaron's record for Most Home Runs, Lifetime (755). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), second in multi-hit games (1,125), third in games played (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs scored (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), tied for 13th in singles (2,294) and tied for 16th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut Aaron struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954.

Aaron became the second-youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second-youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax, in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit. He achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs each year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts per season, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 13 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit seven as a second baseman. He hit 400 solo home runs and had three pinch-hit homers. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959.

Aaron serves on the Board of Governors for Boys and Girls Clubs of America. He also serves on the Board of Directors for Medallion Financial Corporation and DSW, Inc.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gaile, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Aaron was born in Mobile, Alabama, on February 5, 1934.

Frank Wren

Executive Vice President & General Manager

The 2014 season marks Frank Wren's 15th with the Braves and his seventh as the Club's executive vice president and general manager. He was named to his current post on October 11, 2007, when former general manager John Schuerholz became the team president. Wren previously served eight seasons as the Braves' vice president/assistant general manager.

Atlanta won 96 games in 2013 and claimed the National League East title, reaching the playoffs for the third time in four seasons. In February 2014, Wren aggressively signed much of the Braves' young talent to multi-year contracts. First, Atlanta locked up outfielder Jason Heyward to a two-year deal, followed by first baseman Freddie Freeman with an eight-year contract. Right-handed pitcher Julio Teheran was next with a six-year deal (with an option for a seventh), as well as All-Star closer Craig Kimbrel at four years (with an option for a fifth) and talented shortstop Andrelton Simmons at seven years.

Atlanta posted 94 wins in 2012 and during the 2012-13 offseason, Wren strengthened the Braves' lineup when he signed free-agent outfielder B.J. Upton to a five-year contract in November. In January 2013 he added more power when he made a trade with Arizona for Upton's younger brother, outfielder Justin.

Following the Braves' 2010 playoff appearance as the National League's Wild Card entry, Wren set out to hire the Braves' first new manager in more than 20 years, as the legendary Bobby Cox retired at the end of the season. Wren chose Fredi Gonzalez, a former third base coach on Cox's staff (2003-06) and someone Wren had worked closely with dating back to their days in the Florida Marlins organization in the 1990s.

Shortly after hiring Gonzalez, Wren and his staff made the first big trade of the 2010-11 offseason by acquiring All-Star second baseman Dan Uggla from the Marlins. In January 2011, Uggla inked a five-year contract, giving the Braves the right-handed power they had missed in recent seasons. In July 2011, Wren made a five-player trade with the Houston Astros to acquire Gold-Glove outfielder Michael Bourn, who went on to lead the National League in stolen bases that season and rank second in 2012.

During the 2009-10 offseason, Wren signed left-handed closer Billy Wagner and right-handed reliever Takashi Saito to complete the bullpen. Wagner had one of the finest seasons of his career (37 saves, 1.43 ERA) before retiring at the end of the 2010 campaign, while Saito made 56 appearances (2.83 ERA). The Braves' bullpen ranked third in the majors in ERA (3.07), second in opponents' batting average (.221) and third in fewest home runs allowed (34). Wren also added veteran utility man Eric Hinske, who proved to be a clutch performer in 2010, with 11 home runs, including three as a pinch hitter.

Before the 2009 season, Wren revamped and strengthened the Braves' pitching rotation. A November 2008 trade brought right-handed workhorse Javier Vazquez from the Chicago White Sox, while a pair of January free-agent signings brought veteran right-hander Derek Lowe and Japanese right-hander Kenshin Kawakami, the first Japanese-born player signed by the Braves. The moves paid off, as the Braves' pitching staff ERA of 3.57 ranked third in the Major Leagues in 2009 and the starters' ERA of 3.52 led the majors. Braves pitchers allowed an MLB-low 119 home runs on the year and Atlanta's starting pitchers ranked second in the majors with 986 innings pitched.

In his first two months as general manager in 2007, Wren moved quickly to build Atlanta's 2008 roster. His first trade may have been one of the best off-season moves in all of baseball, as the Braves acquired 21-year-old right-handed pitcher Jair Jurrjens and highly-touted minor league outfielder Gorkys Hernandez from the Detroit Tigers in exchange for veteran shortstop Edgar Renteria. November 2007 brought the return of future Hall of Fame pitcher Tom Glavine to a Braves uniform.

At baseball's annual Winter Meetings that December, Wren made another important trade, as the Braves acquired left-handed reliever Will Ohman and infielder Omar Infante from the Chicago Cubs in exchange for minor-league pitcher Jose Ascanio. Ohman went on to pitch 83 games that season and Infante became an All-Star in 2010.

After joining the Braves on October 13, 1999, Wren led the organization's efforts in the site selection, design and construction of the Braves Academy in San Pedro de Macoris, Dominican Republic.

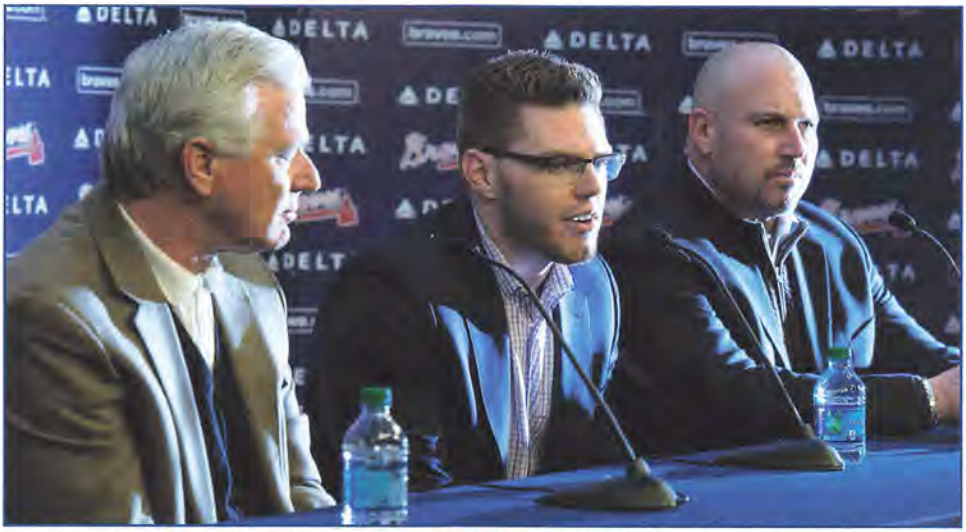
He was the Baltimore Orioles' general manager in 1999 after serving as the Florida Marlins' vice president/assistant general manager from 1991 through 1998.

Wren began his front office career as the general manager of the Jamestown Expos of the New York-Penn League in 1985. He then became Montreal's assistant scouting director and, in 1989, was appointed the team's director of Latin American scouting and operations.

Under his direction, the Expos built a new Latin baseball academy in the Dominican Republic. This academy was responsible for much of the talent that led to the Expos' success in the 1990s. The Expos' farm system was twice honored as Baseball America's "Organization of the Year" during Wren's tenure. From 1986 to 1991 the Expos drafted and signed 63 players who eventually played in the major leagues.

Born March 17, 1958, in Hamilton, Ohio, Wren grew up in St. Petersburg, Fla. He attended Northeast High School and St. Petersburg Junior College before beginning his professional baseball career as a center fielder in Montreal's minor league system in 1977. He reached the Double-A level before retiring in 1982 and coached in the Expos' system from 1981 to 1984.

Wren and his wife Terri have three sons: twins Kyle and Colby, and Jordan. They reside in Peachtree City, Ga. Colby attends Georgia Tech University and Kyle was selected by the Braves in the eighth round of the 2013 draft out of Georgia Tech. Jordan is a freshman outfielder at Samford University. Frank and Terri have hosted the Southwest Christian Hospice - Jim Beauchamp Memorial Golf Tournament since 2008. They are board members of the Foundation of Mitochondrial Medicine, which helps fund research in Mitochondrial diseases. Frank is also on the board of City of Refuge, and he and Terri were the "Honorary Chairs" for the 2011 City of Refuge Gala. The City of Refuge is based in Atlanta's most challenging neighborhood and offers life-saving resources and life-building tools to those in need. Wren was inducted into the Northeast High School Athletic Hall of Fame in St. Petersburg, Fla., in January 2009 and the Lakota High School Athletic Hall of Fame in West Chester, Ohio, in March 2009.



In February 2014, the Braves signed first baseman Freddie Freeman to an eight-year contract.

Bruce Manno

Vice President & Assistant General Manager

Bruce Manno joined the Braves in October 2007 and is in his seventh season as the Club's assistant general manager. In September 2011 he also became the Club's director of player development and in October 2012 he was named Vice President.

Manno previously spent six seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals organization, most recently in the role of senior director of pro scouting and special assistant to general manager Walt Jocketty. From 2002 to 2006, Manno was the Cardinals' director of player development. The Cardinals reached the postseason four times in Manno's six seasons, including a World Series appearance in 2004 and a World Series Championship in 2006.

Manno and Braves general manager Frank Wren previously worked together at Baltimore in 1999, when Manno served as the assistant general manager for the Orioles. He was a long-time member of the Milwaukee Brewers Scouting and Player Development department, working from 1979 to 1994 with the Brewers. He was named farm director in Milwaukee in 1982 and was appointed as the Brewers assistant general manager in 1987, holding that post through 1994. Under Manno's direction, Milwaukee's farm system captured six "Organization of the Year" awards, three each from Baseball America (1985, 1986 and 1987) and Topps (1987, 1989 and 1991).

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Manno graduated from Benedictine High School in 1971 and majored in journalism at Cleveland's Cuyahoga Community College. He began his professional baseball career in 1977 as the assistant general manager at Utica, NY, in the New York-Penn League.

Manno, 60, resides in Peachtree City, Ga. He has two children, Nick and Amanda, and two grandchildren, Carter and Madelyn.

John Coppolella

Assistant General Manager

John Coppolella is in his eighth season in the Braves organization and his second season as the Club's assistant general manager. He was promoted to that role in October 2012 after serving as Director of Professional Scouting since September 2011 and Director of Baseball Administration since October 2006.

Coppolella, 35, works closely with executive vice president and general manager Frank Wren and vice president and assistant general manager Bruce Manno in all aspects of the Club's baseball operations, including player evaluations, acquisitions, and contract negotiations. He also directs the Braves' quantitative analysis and baseball information initiatives, including the development of proprietary analytics. Working closely with Major League and professional scouts, Coppolella maintains prospect lists, depth charts, and financial and organizational summaries for all 30 MLB teams. Additionally, he has been a consultant to team president John Schuerholz on a number of significant industry-related issues, including the Rule 4 Draft Reform Committee and the Special Committee for On-Field Matters.

Prior to joining the Braves, Coppolella began his career in baseball with summer internships with the Lake Elsinore Storm in 1997 and 1998 and the Anaheim Angels in 1999. Hired as a baseball operations assistant by the New York Yankees in 2000, he was promoted to Assistant Director of Pro Scouting in 2003. The Yankees reached the postseason in each of his seven seasons, including World Series appearances in 2001 and 2003 and a World Series championship in 2000.

Coppolella graduated magna cum laude with a degree in business management from the University of Notre Dame, where he spent four years working in the Athletic Department and was a student manager for the football team.

A native of Laguna Hills, Calif., he and his wife Cheryl have their three children, Edric, Reese and Dean, and reside in Newnan, Ga.

Mike Plant

Executive Vice President/Business Operations

Mike Plant was named the Braves' Executive Vice President of Business Operations in November of 2003. His responsibilities include overseeing stadium operations, security, finance, personnel, special events and the operations of the minor league clubs.

Plant was instrumental in the Braves' efforts to secure a new ballpark, which is scheduled to open in Cobb County in 2017.

Plant joined the Braves after having served as Executive Vice President of Turner Sports since February 2002. In that position, he was in charge of the day-to-day operations of the division, a $500-million acquisition, promotion and production company that broadcast approximately 1,200 hours of sports programming on various Turner networks.

Before becoming Executive Vice President of Turner Sports, Plant was President of The Goodwill Games and Vice President of Events for Turner Sports. He was responsible for the overall direction and management of The Goodwill Games, as well as all sports properties acquired by Turner Sports.

Prior to joining Turner Sports, Plant was President of Medalist Sports, a full-service sports marketing company he founded in 1988. Medalist Sports created and operated premier cycling events, such as the Tour DuPont, Tour of China and the 1996 Olympic Trials. In addition, Plant was the Associate Executive Director of the U.S. Cycling Federation in Colorado Springs, CO, from 1986 to 1988 and the Executive Director of the Canoe and Kayak Team from 1985-1986.

Plant was a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic Speed Skating team in Lake Placid, NY, and a six-time member of the U.S. World Championship speed skating teams. Since 1980, he has been appointed to numerous committees for the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC), the U.S. International Speed skating Association and USA Cycling. In January 1989, after having served two, four-year terms as the U.S. Speed Skating Athlete Representative on the USOC's Athlete's Advisory Council, he was elected to a four-year term as Chairman. Plant served on the Atlanta Committee for the 1996 Olympic Games (ACOG) Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees for the Salt Lake City Olympic Bid Committee for the 2002 Winter Games.

Plant served an eight-year term on the USOC's Board of Directors and Executive Committee (1984-1992) and as Chairman of the Athlete Performance Group (1992-1996). Plant was President of USA Cycling, the National Governing Body for Olympic cycling, from 1995 to 2002.

Internationally, Plant is currently serving his second term on the International Cycling Federation's (UCI) Executive Committee. He first served on this committee from 1997 to 2004, and was the Chairman of the Television and Marketing Commission.

In 2004, Plant was elected to a six-year term (2004-2010) on the Board of Directors of the restructured U.S. Olympic Committee. He was one of only 11 Americans to hold this seat, and his term was extended for an additional two years (through 2012). In 2009, Plant was elected U.S. Olympic Chef de Mission for the 2010 Vancouver Olympic Games.

He and his wife Mary have two daughters, Erika and Maddie, and a son, Drew.

Derek Schiller

Executive Vice President/Sales and Marketing

As Executive Vice President of Sales and Marketing, Derek Schiller leads the organization's baseball-related revenues such as corporate partnerships, ticket sales, broadcasting, licensing and merchandising as well as other related operations including ticket operations, client services, community relations and public relations. He also manages the overall marketing strategy and branding for the franchise.

As part of the Braves executive leadership team, Schiller was instrumental in the Braves' efforts to secure the new Braves ballpark, which is scheduled to open in Cobb County in 2017.

Working closely with chairman and CEO Terry McGuirk, and president John Schuerholz, Schiller has played a key role in guiding the Braves staff to further increase sales and visibility while also increasing customer service.

He has been a leader in introducing many technical developments to the Braves including paperless ticketing, variable and dynamic pricing, and a Customer Relationship Management system that will help further enhance customer service and data management for both corporate partners and ticket holders. Under his guidance the organization has expanded fan outreach with dynamic content on Braves.com, Facebook and Twitter.

Schiller, who joined the Braves in 2003, oversees all broadcasting relationships with Braves television partners FS South and SportSouth and the radio relationship with Dickey Broadcasting Company that includes the largest affiliate network in all of professional sports, with 150 affiliates across the Southeast.

Schiller directs all aspects of the Braves marketing outreach with fans, and all promotional and advertising campaigns, including the award winning "This is Braves Country" campaign. He currently serves in a variety of roles for a number of MLB committees.

Schiller came to the Braves after having served as Vice President of Sales and Marketing for the Atlanta Thrashers hockey team since 1998. In that position, he led the development of the Thrashers as an expansion franchise in the National Hockey League including the management of all business operations and marketing.

Before joining the Thrashers, Schiller served as Vice President of Business Development for the New York Yankees from 1996 to 1997. While there, he was responsible for all revenue-producing and related functions, including sponsorship sales, marketing, ticket and suite sales, publications, concessions and merchandising, fan services and licensing. He was instrumental in putting together one of the largest sponsorship deals in sports between the Yankees and Adidas.

Prior to joining the Yankees, Schiller was the Executive Director of Atlanta's International Sports Plaza (ISP). He developed the first-ever private press center serving non-accredited press organizations during the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games and managed the hospitality venue during the Games in partnership with several Olympic sponsors.

Schiller earned a degree in Engineering from Vanderbilt University. He is an executive board member of the Atlanta Convention and Visitors Bureau, a board member of the Jack and Jill Late Stage Cancer Foundation and the Atlanta Sports Council, an alumnus of Leadership Atlanta and supports a number of metro Atlanta charities. Schiller and his wife Kristin and their two children, Luke and Carson, reside in Norcross.

Chip Moore

Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer

Chip Moore was named the Braves' Chief Financial Officer on May 7, 2009, after spending the previous 12 seasons as Senior Vice President and Controller.

Moore was instrumental in the Braves' efforts to secure a new ballpark, which is scheduled to open in Cobb County in 2017.

Moore has spent 36 seasons with the Braves organization, steadily moving up through the organization during his tenure. He began as an usher at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium before working nine seasons as a member of the Braves grounds crew. In 1985 he joined the Braves Accounting Department and rose to Assistant Controller in 1988 and Controller in 1992 before becoming Chief Financial Officer in 2009. In his present capacity, Moore manages the Braves' accounting and finance functions.

The 52-year-old Moore graduated from Oglethorpe University in 1985 with a degree in Business Administration majoring in Accounting. Moore serves on the Board of Directors and as Treasurer for the Atlanta Braves Foundation. He serves on the Minor League Baseball Board of Trustees and is also on the Board of Directors and serves as Vice President of the South Atlantic League of Professional Baseball. In 2006, Moore was inducted into the South Atlantic League Hall of Fame for his contributions to the Rome Braves and the SAL. He currently serves as a member of Major League Baseball's Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Committee.

Chip and his wife Anne reside in Kennesaw, Ga., with their two children, Jordan and Will.

Greg Heller

Senior Vice President/General Counsel

The 2014 season marks Greg Heller's 14th as legal counsel to the Braves. As Senior Vice President and General Counsel, Heller manages and oversees all legal affairs for the Braves and its wholly-owned minor league affiliates, which include the Gwinnett Braves, Mississippi Braves, Rome Braves, Danville Braves, GCL Braves and DSL Braves. Heller's responsibilities and duties include providing guidance and counsel on baseball operations matters, sales and marketing, broadcasting, stadium and business operations, intellectual property, corporate governance, legislative affairs, employment and litigation.

Prior to serving as Senior Vice President and General Counsel of the Braves, Heller spent seven years with the TBS sports legal group which included the Braves, the Atlanta Hawks, the Atlanta Thrashers, Philips Arena, the Goodwill Games, the Turner Sports television group (and its NBA, NASCAR, PGA, British Open and MLB properties), and the Turner Sports new media group (and its NASCAR, PGA and PGA TOUR and ACC Select properties).

Heller began his career in sports law as an undergraduate at Indiana University where he graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Marketing/Management. While at Indiana, Heller completed internships with the Peoria Chiefs, a minor league affiliate of the Chicago Cubs, and with the Indiana University athletic department. Upon graduating from IU, Heller entered law school at Marquette University. While at Marquette, Heller was an active participant in the sports law program, including serving as a member and Student Articles Editor of the Marquette Sports Law Journal, serving as a member of the Sports Law Society, authoring a law review article on the NCAA enforcement process and completing internships with the National Sports Law Institute, Harley Davidson, the Milwaukee Brewers and Reece & Lang PC, the legal division of an Atlanta-based sports management firm. In 2004, Heller was named by Marquette University as its Sports Law Alumnus Of The Year.

Upon graduating from Marquette, Heller became an Associate Attorney with the Atlanta firm of Powell Goldstein Frazer & Murphy where he concentrated his practice on general corporate, mergers and acquisitions, securities and sports and entertainment law matters from 1996-1997. In the Fall of 1997, Heller joined the Chicago law firm of Horwood Marcus & Berk and continued his practice in general corporate, mergers and acquisitions and sports and entertainment law matters before joining TBS in the Fall of 2000. Heller currently serves on the Advisory Board at Marquette University Law School's National Sports Law Institute. Heller and his wife Krista have four children, Madelyn, Charlie, John and Elizabeth and live in Johns Creek.

Paul Adams

Vice President of Ticket Sales

The 2014 season marks Paul Adams' 26th in the Braves organization, all of which have been spent in the Ticket Sales department.

Adams manages all aspects of Braves ticket sales and service, including season, group, suite and premium tickets. In recent years he oversaw the rollout of the SunTrust Club and Georgia's Own Credit Union Club. In addition, he works with Major League Baseball as a member of the Commissioner's Ticketing Review Committee, which has been tasked to improve collaboration of best practices and innovation of ticket sales within the industry.

Adams began his professional career in retail with R.H. Macy's, working as an assistant buyer and as a sales manager. He joined the Braves as a marketing representative in 1989. He became a sales manager in 1990 and an assistant director of ticket sales in 1992. After serving as Director of Ticket Sales from 1994 to 2002, and as Senior Director of Ticket Sales from 2003 to 2012, Adams was promoted to Vice President of Ticket Sales in October 2012.

A native of Sparta, NJ, Adams graduated from Emory University with a B.B.A. degree in marketing. He also received a M.S. degree in management from Georgia State University. He is an active volunteer at the Atlanta Community Food Bank in the Product Rescue Center.

Adams, 55, resides in Dallas, Ga., with his wife Michal Ann and their daughters Janelle and Rachel.

Jim Allen

Vice President of Corporate Partnerships

A 21-year-veteran of the Braves' front office, Jim Allen was named as the Club's Vice President of Corporate Partnerships in October 2012.

Allen is responsible for managing all aspects of the Braves' corporate relationships, including all advertising, in-park signage, giveaways, promotions, hospitality and corporate identity throughout Turner Field. In addition, he is responsible for overseeing all Braves radio advertising and the Club's partnership with Dickey Broadcasting. Allen also manages the Braves' retail and promotional programs with corporate partners in Atlanta and throughout the Southeast.

After serving as a trainee in the Ticket Sales department, Allen was hired full-time in November 1993 and has worked in a variety of departments during his tenure, including Community Relations, Ticket Sales and Promotions.

Allen serves as the Chair for Sales Strategy Committee for the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, and is on the Sports Network Board of Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. He also serves on the school board for Perimeter Christian School.

A native of Porterville, Calif., Allen graduated from Porterville High School and earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and management from California State University, Fresno, where he played collegiate tennis for two years. He has completed one ironman and six marathons and is active in endurance adventure races and triathlons.

Allen, 46, resides in Peachtree Corners, Ga., with his wife Molly and his daughters Savannah, Emily Ann and Ella Jia Li.

Gus Eurton

Vice President of Marketing

Gus Eurton joined the Braves Marketing Department in May 2004 and was named Vice President of Marketing in October 2012.

Eurton is directly responsible for the management and oversight of the Braves' overall marketing efforts, including advertising, branding, community affairs, The Atlanta Braves Foundation and game entertainment. He also serves as the project manager for many of the Braves' most significant special events, including the annual Braves Country Caravan, Alumni Weekend, the 2011 and 2012 MLB Civil Rights Game and the overall management of all game-day operations. He works closely with the Braves' broadcast and corporate partners to execute branding and promotional marketing programs, including retail promotions.

Before joining the Braves, Eurton worked with the Coca-Cola Company for nearly 17 years. In that time, he worked in operations and sales and marketing across the Unites States and Caribbean. He was responsible for strategic assets in sports, entertainment and venues. Eurton also worked with the company's involvement in the Olympics, World Cup Soccer, the AVP, US Open Surf Championships and Super Bowls. Prior to his work at the Coca-Cola Company, Eurton worked in the retail clothing and restaurant business.

Eurton earned a bachelor's degree in Political Science from the University of Georgia. He is an executive board member of the Atlanta Braves Foundation and is involved in a number of metro Atlanta charities. Eurton has been a guest speaker for many organizations including Emory University, the Goizueta School of Business MBA program, University of Georgia, Turner Broadcasting, and AutoTrader. He is also involved in mentoring small businesses and individuals.

Eurton resides in Marietta, Ga., and has two daughters, Mallory and Alexa.

Eric Perestuk

Vice President of Facility Operations

Eric Perestuk was named Vice President of Facility Operations in October 2012, after serving as Director of Engineering from 1995 to 2012.

Perestuk oversees all maintenance and construction projects at Turner Field, as well as support operations at three of the organization's minor league parks.

Perestuk began his career in 1981 in the engineering departments of several prominent hotels and office buildings in New York City, including the St. Moritze Hotel, Sheraton Center, the Algonquin Hotel and Graybar Building at Grand Central Terminal. In 1987, he accepted a position at Turner Broadcasting Systems in Atlanta and began as a shift supervisor in the Properties division, eventually rising to the positions of Chief Engineer, Facility Manger and finally Director of Engineering and Special Projects. In 1995, he was assigned the task of managing the construction of Turner Field (then The Olympic stadium), and he ultimately managed stadium operations during the 1996 Olympic Games. He remained with the Braves to manage the conversion of the Olympic stadium to the present-day Turner Field. Perestuk helped to oversee the building of the Braves-owned minor league parks in Rome, Ga., Pearl, Miss., and Gwinnett County, Ga.

Perestuk, 52, is a native of New York City and attended Fort Hamilton High School. He earned a Chief Engineers license after completing studies at Masters Engineering Institute in Brooklyn. He resides in Woodstock Ga., with his wife Michelle and their three children, Christopher and (twins) Connor and Christina.

2014 BRAVES
MANAGER & STAFF

FREDI GONZALEZ

FULL NAME: Fredi Jesus Gonzalez
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 200
BORN: 1/28/64 in Havana, Cuba
RESIDES: Marietta, Georgia
SEASONS AS MAJOR LEAGUE MANAGER: 8th
SEASONS AS BRAVES MANAGER: 4th
SPORTING NEWS MANAGER OF THE YEAR : 2008

MANAGER 33

Fredi Gonzalez is in his fourth season as the Braves' skipper and his eighth overall as a Major League manager. He owns a career record of 555-486 (.533) and a record of 279-207 (.574) in three seasons with the Braves, including a 96-66 mark and the National League East Division title in 2013.

Gonzalez's Braves jumped out to a 12-1 start last season and held a 54-41 record and a six-game lead in the NL East at the All-Star break. Atlanta went 42-25 after the break and won the division title by 10 games, marking the Braves' first division crown since 2005. Atlanta posted a 10-game winning streak in early April and then a 14-game winning streak from July 26 to August 9 to become the first Braves squad since 1954 to post two winning streaks of 10-or-more games in the same season. Atlanta's 47-29 (.618) record against teams from the NL East was easily the best of any club in the division last season. Gonzalez owns an impressive .556 winning percentage in his eight seasons of intradivision play in the NL East.

In his three seasons with Atlanta, Gonzalez has led the Braves to the most regular-season wins in the NL, and the second-most in the majors (one behind the Texas Rangers, 280). He has finished in the top five in BBWAA Manager of the Year voting four times in his career, including each of the last three seasons (third in 2013). He led the Braves to a 94-68 mark and the top seed in the NL Wild Card Game in 2012.

On October 13, 2010, Gonzalez was introduced as the Club's 16th manager since the organization moved to Atlanta in 1966. He replaced the legendary Bobby Cox, who retired from managing at the conclusion of the 2010 season. Gonzalez, was the Braves' third base coach under Cox for four seasons (2003 to 2006) and served as the organization's Triple-A manager at Richmond in 2002.

Gonzalez, 50, served as the manager for the Florida Marlins for three-plus seasons (2007 through June 22, 2010) and went 276-279 with the Marlins, including 34-36 in 2010. He is the all-time winningest manager in Marlins franchise history, surpassing Jack McKeon's 241 career wins.

In 2009, Gonzalez led Florida to an 87-75 record, marking the sixth time in franchise history the club finished above .500. He was named the 2008 Sporting News National League Manager of the Year after guiding the Marlins to an 84-77 record in his second year as skipper, as he became just the third Marlins manager to lead the team to a winning record.

Gonzalez was named the Marlins' manager on October 3, 2006, replacing Joe Girardi. In Gonzalez's debut season in 2007 the Marlins went 71-91 and he served as a coach for the National League at the All-Star Game in San Francisco, under manager Tony La Russa.

Following a six-year (1982-87) playing career as a catcher in the New York Yankees' farm system, Gonzalez began his coaching career in 1990, when he took over as manager of the unaffiliated Miami Miracle (A) of the Florida State League with 20 games remaining on their schedule. He continued his post as manager of the Miracle in 1991, then moved to the Marlins organization in 1992, when he was named the first minor league manager in Marlins franchise history. He led the 1992 Erie (A) club to a 40-37 record en route to the New York-Penn League championship series.

Gonzalez managed for seven seasons in the Marlins organization, from 1992 to 1998, and served as third base coach at the Major League level from 1999 to 2001.

He was selected by Baseball America as the Eastern League Manager of the Year in 1997 and was recognized by Baseball America as the Florida State League Manager of the Year in 1994, after going 78-61 with Brevard County (A) and finishing second to Tampa in the FSL championship series.

In 1993, Gonzalez guided High Desert (A) to an 85-52 mark en route to becoming California League Champions - the first-ever championship by a Marlins' affiliate. He was named Baseball America's California League Manager of the Year in 1993 and received the Carl Barger Player Development Person of the Year Award in 1993.

Gonzalez graduated from Miami's Southridge High School in 1982 and was selected by the Yankees in the 16th round of the 1982 June draft.

Gonzalez is active in fund-raising efforts for the Cindy Donald Dreams of Recovery Foundation (www.dreamsofrecovery.org), which helps to create a positive change for those individuals facing the challenges which accompany spinal cord and/or brain injuries.

He and his wife Pamela have a daughter, Gabrielle, and a son, Alex. They reside in Marietta, Ga.

DOUG DASCENZO

HEIGHT: 5-8 WEIGHT: 160
BORN: 6/30/64 in Cleveland, Ohio
RESIDES: Uniontown, Pennsylvania
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 1st

THIRD BASE COACH 28

The 2014 season marks Doug Dascenzo's first on the Braves' Major League coaching staff. He previously served as the organization's minor league roving outfield/baserunning instructor. In his previous role, Dascenzo oversaw the outfield play and baserunning aspects for all minor league teams in the Braves farm system.

Dascenzo, 49, joined the Braves organization from the San Diego Padres, where he spent 13 seasons as a manager and coach in their farm system, including his last two at the helm of the Double-A San Antonio Missions (2010-11). Dascenzo's 2011 club completed the season with a 94-46 record, posting the most wins in the minor leagues in 2011 and the second-most in franchise history, second only to the 1908 team that won 95 games. Dascenzo also led his team to the Texas League Championship, en route to being named the Texas League Manager of the Year and Baseball America's Double-A Manager of the Year.

Dascenzo totaled six seasons as a minor league manager in the Padres farm system and twice earned co-Manager of the Year awards. His first honor came in 2006 in his inaugural season as a manger, and he was awarded his second in 2009. In 2009, he was also tabbed by Baseball America as the Midwest League's Best Manager Prospect after leading Class-A Fort Wayne to its first championship in franchise history and a 94-46 finish, the best record in all of Minor League Baseball that season.

Dascenzo's coaching career began with the Padres in 1999 as an outfield/baserunning coordinator, a position he held for seven seasons.

The former outfielder helped Oklahoma State University to the College World Series in 1984 and 1985, and was a 12th-round draft pick by the Chicago Cubs. He played parts of seven Major League seasons with Chicago (1988 to 1992), Texas (1993) and San Diego (1996).

Dascenzo and his wife Patricia reside in Uniontown, Pa., with their four children: Zachary, Casey, Haley, and Corey. Zachary was drafted by the Padres in 2008.

SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 9th

PITCHING COACH 45

The 2014 season marks Roger McDowell's ninth with the Braves and his ninth as a Major League pitching coach.

Under McDowell's leadership, the Braves have seen their staff ERA drop each season since 2008, ranking in the top five in all of Major League Baseball each year season 2009. Over the last three seasons (2011-13), Atlanta's relievers have posted a combined 2.76 ERA (best in the majors) and a .226 opponents batting average (third in the majors) while tying for the fewest home runs allowed among all Major League bullpens in that stretch, with just 103.

In 2013, the Braves led the majors with a 3.18 staff ERA, including an MLB-best 2.46 ERA by the bullpen, and ranked second by allowing just 2.54 walks per nine innings pitched. Atlanta ranked sixth overall (fourth in the National League) with a .244 opponents batting average.

In 2012, closer Craig Kimbrel posted a historic season, as he converted 42-of-45 save opportunities while posting an ERA of 1.01 with 116 strikeouts and only 27 hits allowed in 62.2 innings pitched. Kimbrel's 16.7 strikeouts per nine innings ranked as the highest in major league history for any pitcher with at least 60 IP. He posted a .126 opponents batting average, the lowest since 1900, and retired 50% (116-of-231) of his hitters via strikeout, the best ratio in the live-ball era.

McDowell guided Atlanta's staff through an especially challenging season in 2011, as the Braves played an Atlanta-era record 26 extra-inning games. The staff logged 54 extra innings on the year, equal to an additional six games on the schedule. The Braves played 84 games which were decided by just one or two runs and through it all they maintained the fourth-best team ERA in the majors, at 3.48. Atlanta's bullpen led the majors with a 3.02 ERA. The team established a franchise mark in innings pitched (1,479.2) and its 1,332 strikeouts set a team record (fifth in major league history). Kimbrel registered an amazing season and was honored with the N.L. Rookie of the Year Award by the BBWAA. Kimbrel garnered 127 strikeouts in 77 innings pitched (79 games) and posted a 2.10 ERA while shattering the MLB rookie saves record with 46. Reliever Eric O'Flaherty appeared in 78 games and posted an ERA of 0.98 - a Major League record for a pitcher with at least 75 appearances in a season. Jonny Venters led the majors with 85 appearances and had a 1.84 ERA.

In 2010, the Braves' overall staff ERA (3.56) ranked third in the majors. Braves pitchers allowed an MLB-low 126 home runs, including just 92 allowed by the starters (tied for fifth in the majors) and just 34 allowed by the relievers (third in the majors). Tim Hudson returned from "Tommy John" surgery and paced the staff with a 17-9 record and a 2.83 ERA to earn the Comeback Player of the Year Award from Major League Baseball. Another bright spot was rookie left-hander Jonny Venters, who pitched in 79 games and posted a 1.95 ERA with 93 strikeouts in 83.0 innings pitched.

The Braves' pitching staff ERA of 3.57 ranked third in the majors in 2009, while the starters' ERA of 3.52 led the majors. Braves pitchers allowed an MLB-low 119 home runs, including just 86 allowed by the starters (third in the majors) and 33 allowed by the relievers (best in the majors). Braves starting pitchers ranked second overall with 986 innings pitched (compared to just 886 in 2008 - 27th in the majors) and recorded 784 strikeouts, the fourth-best total in the majors. The Braves staff ranked sixth in all of baseball with 1,232 total strikeouts in 2009. Some individual highlights in 2009 included Jair Jurrjens (2.60) and Javier Vazquez (2.87) finishing third and sixth, respectively, among National League ERA leaders. Rookie Tommy Hanson made his debut in June and posted an 11-4 record and a 2.89 ERA in 21 starts. He finished third in N.L. Rookie of the Year voting and Vazquez ranked second in the N.L. (and fourth in the majors) with 238 strikeouts.

In 2008 the Braves ranked second in the N.L. in earned run average (3.69) at the All-Star break, but injuries took their toll in the second half of the season and Atlanta dipped to 12th in the circuit with an overall ERA of 4.46. The 2007 Braves finished third in the league in ERA (4.11), while the bullpen ERA of 3.54 ranked second in the circuit.

McDowell spent the 2004-05 seasons as the pitching coach for the Dodgers' Triple-A franchise, the Las Vegas 51s, and was the pitching coach for the Class-A South Georgia Waves in 2002-03.

McDowell was one of the game's premier relievers during a 12-year career that spanned from 1985 to 1996 with the Mets, Phillies, Dodgers, Rangers and Orioles. He was a third-round draft pick of the Mets in 1982 and pitched in 723 games in his Major League career, posting a 70-70 record with 159 saves and a 3.30 ERA. In 1986, he was a member of the Mets' World Championship team and posted a 14-9 record with 22 saves in 75 games out of the bullpen.

McDowell graduated from Cincinnati's Colerain High School in 1979 and played for Bowling Green State University. He was inducted into BGSU's athletic Hall of Fame in 1988. He has made television appearances on Seinfeld, America's Funniest People and MTV.

McDowell and his wife Gloria reside in Marietta, Ga., with their daughters Amanda and Rachel.

TERRY PENDLETON

HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 200
BORN: 7/16/60 in Los Angeles, California
RESIDES: Duluth, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 13th

FIRST BASE COACH 9

Terry Pendleton is in his 13th season on the Braves' coaching staff and his fourth as the Club's first base coach. He previously served as hitting coach nine seasons, from 2002 to 2010. The Braves have compiled 300 doubles in a season nine times in franchise history, including each of the last eight seasons (2003-10) in which Pendleton served as the hitting coach.

In 2010, the Braves led the National League on-base percentage (.339) and doubles (312), and ranked fifth in runs scored (738).

The 2009 Braves ranked fourth in the league in team batting average (.263), fourth in hits (1,459), fifth in on-base percentage (.339) and sixth in runs (735). The team tied for third in the N.L. with 300 doubles.

In 2008, Atlanta ranked third in the N.L. in batting average (.270), third in hits (1,514), third in walks (618), third in on-base percentage (.345) and fourth in doubles (316). Chipper Jones led the majors with a .364 batting average to become the first Brave to win the N.L. batting title since Pendleton himself turned the trick in 1991.

In 2007, Atlanta boasted a high-powered offense under Pendleton's watch, ranking second in the N.L. in hits (1,562), third in runs (810) and fourth in batting average (.275). The Braves established a franchise record with 328 doubles on the year. Chipper Jones (2nd, .337) and Edgar Renteria (4th, .332) both made runs at winning the N.L. batting.

The 2006 campaign was one of Pendleton's most successful as a coach. Despite numerous injuries, the Braves led the N.L. in home runs (222) and slugging percentage (.455) and ranked second in the circuit in runs scored (849) and batting average (.270). The home run total ranked second in franchise history, while the runs total ranked second in Atlanta history.

In 2005, Pendleton was instrumental in outfielder Andruw Jones' MVP-caliber season, as Jones adopted a new batting stance and established a Braves' franchise record with 51 home runs. Pendleton also worked closely with a string of rookies who made huge contributions throughout the season. The 2005 Braves became the first team in history to reach the postseason with six rookies who had 100 or more at-bats (the previous record was four rookies by the 1983 Los Angeles Dodgers and the 1989 Chicago Cubs).

In his second season as Braves' hitting coach in 2003, the team established franchise bests in home runs (235), hits (1,608), doubles (321) and slugging percentage (.475) and had the highest team batting average in Atlanta history (.284). Several individual players enjoyed "career" seasons as well, and much of the credit for those accomplishments went to Pendleton.

Pendleton was named to the Braves staff in November 2001, after enjoying a 15-year Major League playing career. He was selected the N.L. Most Valuable Player in 1991 and was an All-Star third baseman in 1992 while playing for the Braves.

A switch-hitter, Pendleton batted .287 with 71 home runs and 322 RBI in 593 games for Atlanta and .270 with 140 homers and 946 RBI in 1,893 games overall with the St. Louis Cardinals, Braves, Florida Marlins, Cincinnati Reds and Kansas City Royals. He was a three-time recipient of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award (in 1987 and 1989 with St. Louis and in 1992 with Atlanta).

Signed as a free agent in December of 1990 by general manager John Schuerholz, Pendleton played for the Braves from 1991 through 1994 and in part of 1996. He was a key factor in the Braves' turn-around from being the worst team in the major leagues in 1990 to a pennant-winning club the next year.

In 1991 he batted an NL-best .319 with 22 home runs and 86 RBI. He tied for the league lead with 303 total bases, helping him earn the N.L. MVP Award, as well as Comeback Player of the Year honors.

He was voted an All-Star starter in 1992, hitting .296 with 13 home runs and 51 RBI before the break and finishing the year with a .311 average, 21 homers and a career-high 105 RBI to lead the Braves to another pennant. He led the N.L. with a .387 average with runners in scoring position and had a career-best 199 hits, a franchise record for third basemen.

Originally selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1982 June draft, Pendleton, after his first four seasons with the Braves, signed with the Marlins as a free agent in April 1995. Florida traded him back to Atlanta in exchange for outfielder Roosevelt Brown in August 1996. Pendleton was signed as a free agent by the Reds in January 1997 and the Royals in January 1998. He retired as a player the following December.

Terry and his wife, Catherine, and their three children, Stephanie, Terry and Trinity, reside in Duluth, Ga.

EDDIE PEREZ

HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 220
BORN: 5/4/68 in Ciudad Ojeda, Venezuela
RESIDES: Duluth, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 8th

BULLPEN COACH 12

After concluding a 20-year playing career in 2006, Eddie Perez opened a new chapter in his baseball life in 2007. He joined the Braves' coaching staff as the bullpen coach after playing 11 seasons at the major league level, including nine seasons with the Braves.

Perez played 18 of his 20 professional seasons in the Braves organization. The former catcher began his career with Bradenton in 1987 and reached the majors in 1995, the year Atlanta won the World Series. Perez was on seven postseason squads for Atlanta (1995-99, 2001, 2004) and played in 30 postseason games. His .464 (13-for-28) batting average in National League Championship Series competition is the highest ever for a catcher (minimum 25 at-bats). Perez batted .500 (10-for-20) in the 1999 NLCS vs. the New York Mets and claimed series MVP honors.

Perez spent the 2002 season with the Cleveland Indians and played with the Milwaukee Brewers in 2003 before re-joining the Braves in 2004. Right shoulder tendinitis plagued Perez throughout the 2005 season, and he spent the entire 2006 campaign at Double-A Mississippi. He was limited to just 13 games in 2006, but spent much of his time assisting M-Braves Manager Jeff Blauser.

Perez attended Doctor Raul Cuenca High School in Ciudad Ojeda, Venezuela, where he played volleyball and baseball. He and his wife, Marisol, have one daughter, Maried, and one son, Andres Eduardo, and reside in Duluth, Ga.

CARLOS TOSCA

HEIGHT: 5-7 WEIGHT: 185
BORN: 9/29/53 in Pinar del Rio, Cuba
RESIDES: Roswell, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 4th

BENCH COACH 18

Carlos Tosca is in his fourth season on the Braves' coaching staff, his 16th campaign on a Major League staff, and his 41st season as a coach. He previously served as the bench coach for manager Fredi Gonzalez at the Florida Marlins from 2007 to 2010. This is Tosca's second stint in the Braves organization, after he served as the manager at Triple-A Richmond in 2001.

Tosca was part of the Arizona Diamondbacks' original coaching staff in 1998, serving as Buck Showalter's bench coach for three seasons. Tosca re-joined the Diamondbacks as third base coach under Bob Melvin in 2005-06.

After managing one year at Richmond, Tosca joined Buck Martinez's staff as the third base coach for the Toronto Blue Jays in 2002. Martinez was dismissed by the Jays on June 3 and Tosca made his managerial debut as the ninth manager in Blue Jays history, taking over the reigns 54 games into the season. He was the fifth native Cuban to manage in Major League Baseball and the sixth in history with no professional playing experience. Tosca won his managerial debut on June 3, 2002, a 6-1 triumph over Tampa Bay. He and his coaching staff were given two-year contract extensions on September 3, 2002. His lone full year at the helm of the Jays was 2003, posting an 86-76 ledger, good for third in the American League East. He was 47-64 through 111 games in 2004 when he was dismissed, finishing his managerial experience north of the border a record of 191-191.

Prior to 1998, Tosca managed in the minor leagues for 17 seasons, amassing an overall record of 932-827 (.530). His clubs had 12 winning seasons during his 17-year minor league managerial career. After leaving the Diamondbacks following the 2000 season, Tosca was named manager of Richmond in the Braves organization, posting a 68-76 ledger. Prior to his first stint with Arizona he was at the helm of Charlotte (AAA) in 1997, putting the Knights in the International League's Governors Cup Playoffs for the first time since 1994. His 1996 Portland (AA) club went 83-58, earning him Eastern League Manager of the Year honors, while also being tabbed by Baseball America as their choice for overall Minor League Manager of the Year. It was the second consecutive division title for the Sea Dogs and the sixth overall first place finish that Tosca had guided during his managerial career. He was named the Carl Barger Player Development Person of the Year in 1995. His first managerial duty was with Gulf Coast League Bradenton (R) in 1980.

After earning a degree in Physical Education from the University of South Florida, Tosca began his coaching career as pitching coach at King High School in 1976. His first professional stint was with Oneonta in 1978.

Tosca has three children: Jessica, Lauren and Matthew. He and his wife Theresa reside in Roswell, Ga.

GREG WALKER

HEIGHT: 6-3 WEIGHT: 220
BORN: 10/6/59 in Douglas, Georgia
RESIDES: Douglas, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 3rd

HITTING COACH 28

Greg Walker is in his third season as the Braves' hitting coach in 2013. He previously served as the hitting coach for the Chicago White Sox for eight-and-a-half seasons, from May 2003 through the 2011 season. He also worked as the hitting coach for Chicago's Triple-A Charlotte affiliate in 2002 and '03.

The 2013 Braves led the National League in home runs (181) and ranked second in the circuit in walks (542) and slugging percentage (.402).

Walker's presence was immediately felt in 2012, as Braves outfielder Jason Heyward had a resurgent campaign after playing through an injury-plagued sophomore season in 2011. Heyward played in a team-high 158 games and posted career highs in runs (93), doubles (30), home runs (27) and RBI (82), while also swiping a career-best 21 bases.

From the time of his promotion in 2003 through 2011, the White Sox ranked third in the majors in home runs (1,791) and seventh in slugging percentage (.430). The Sox hit 200-plus home runs in seven consecutive seasons from 2000-06, which tied the Major-League record (and was later broken by the Yankees, 2000-07).

In his first full season in 2004, the White Sox hit a franchise-record 242 home runs. In their World Championship season of 2005, they ranked fourth in the American League with 200 homers, but still led the league in sacrifice hits (53) and bunt hits (37) and ranked third in infield hits (156).

Walker was a member of the American League All-Star coaching staff in 2006, when the Sox led the majors in home runs (236), slugging percentage (.464) and batting average with runners in scoring position (.307), while ranking third in runs scored (868) and fifth in overall batting average (.280). The 2006 Sox also featured four players with 30-or-more home runs, making them just the third team in A.L. history to accomplish that feat.

Under Walker's guidance, the Sox again led the majors in home runs in 2008, with 235.

As a player, Walker posted a .260 career batting average with 113 home runs and 444 RBI in 855 games over a nine-year career (1982-90) with the White Sox and Baltimore Orioles. He was originally drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1977 and was later chosen by the White Sox in the Rule 5 Draft in 1979.

Walker made his Major League debut with a pinch-hit single on September 16, 1982. In 1984 he posted a career-high .294 batting average, with 24 home runs and 75 RBI, followed by 24 homers and 92 RBI in 1985. He established career highs of 27 home runs and 94 RBI in 1987.

He led the A.L. in games played (163) in 1985 and annually ranked among the league leaders in fielding percentage by first basemen. On July 30, 1988, he suffered a life-threatening seizure during batting practice and missed the rest of the season. He returned to play in 77 games in 1989.

Walker was the White Sox 1986 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award and he received the Chicago Baseball Writers' "Good Guy" Award at their January 1990 Diamond Dinner.

Walker is a native of Douglas, Ga., and still makes his home there with his wife Carman. They have three daughters: Kaycee, Leigh Ann and Lauren. He played baseball and football at Coffee High School. He enjoys golf, hunting and fishing.

SCOTT FLETCHER

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 170
BORN: 7/30/58 in Fort Walton Beach, Florida
RESIDES: Peachtree City, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 3rd

ADVANCE COACH/ASSISTANT HITTING COACH 61

Scott Fletcher joined the Braves in October 2011 and is in his third season with the Club. He assists hitting coach Greg Walker in every aspect of the Braves' hitting program and also prepares the Club's advance scouting reports and materials prior to each series.

Fletcher, 55, is in uniform for all pre-game workouts and assists with the Braves' pre-game preparations.

The former middle infielder was drafted by the Cubs in the first round of the Secondary Phase of the 1979 June Draft. He played 15 Major League seasons (1981-95) with the Chicago Cubs, Chicago White Sox, Texas Rangers, Milwaukee Brewers, Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers.

Fletcher posted a .262 career batting average, with 243 doubles and 1,376 hits in 1,612 career games. For his career, he earned 514 walks compared to striking out just 541 times. He twice posted 30-plus doubles in a season, including 1986 (with Texas) when he established career-highs in batting average (.300) and doubles (34) in 147 games played.

He was the roving infield coordinator for the Colorado Rockies from 2009 to 2011. He has also worked as a roving instructor in the Tampa Bay organization (1996-97), as manager of the Single-A Charleston RiverDogs (1997) and as an assistant baseball coach for Emory University in Atlanta.

A native of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., Fletcher attended Georgia Southern University. He and his wife Angie reside in Peachtree City, Ga. They have three children: Brittany, Brian and Brooke. Brian is an outfielder in the Kansas City Royals farm system. Brittany is married to Chicago White Sox infielder Gordon Beckham.

ALAN BUTTS

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 205
BORN: 2/20/64 in Atlanta, Georgia
RESIDES: Newnan, Georgia

BULLPEN CATCHER 55

Alan Butts joined the Braves in 1992. He is in uniform for all pre-game workouts and during the game he assists bullpen coach Eddie Perez and the pitchers in the bullpen.

A native of Atlanta, Butts attended North Clayton High School and Valdosta State University, where he received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in Public Relations-Speech Communications. At Valdosta State, Butts played under legendary coach Tommy Thomas, the winningest baseball coach in Division II history.

A highlight of Butts' career came in 2000, when he served on Bobby Cox's All-Star Game coaching staff and pitched in the Home Run Derby competition.

He and his wife Tammy reside in Newnan, Ga., with their children Colby, Ansley and Avery. The 50-year-old Butts enjoys golfing in his spare time. His nephew, right-handed pitcher Brett Cammons, was drafted by Atlanta in 2007 out of Auburn University.

RICK SLATE

HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190
BORN: 2/13/66 in Virginia Beach, Virginia
RESIDES: St. Augustine Beach, Florida

DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Promoted to his current position in December 2012, Rick Slate is in his third season with the Braves organization and his second season as the director of strength and conditioning. He served as the Braves' minor league strength and conditioning coordinator in 2012.

Slate, who has more than 20 years of professional baseball service, oversees all aspects of the Braves' strength and conditioning program throughout all levels of the organization.

He joined the Braves from the New York Mets, where he spent eight seasons (2003 to 2010), as their major league strength and conditioning coordinator. Previous to his stint with New York, Slate served in the same role for nine seasons (1993-2001) for the Florida Marlins, including their 1997 World Championship season.

Slate began his professional career as the Marlins' minor league strength and conditioning coordinator and spent one year (1992) in that role prior to his promotion to the major league club. Previous to his position with a major league organization, Slate spent 1987 to 1991 working at the strength and conditioning coordinator at Florida State University.

From 2005 to 2007, Slate served as Vice President of the Professional Baseball Strength and Conditioning Coach Society and is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Slate resides in St. Augustine Beach, Fla. He has two daughters, Layla and Jada.

PHIL FALCO

HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 225
BORN: 11/18/72 in Denville, New Jersey
RESIDES: Atlanta, Georgia

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Phil Falco is in his seventh season as the Braves' Major League strength and conditioning coach after joining the Club in June 2008. He previously served as the organization's roving minor league strength and conditioning instructor in 1998-99 and from 2003 to 2008. He served as the Milwaukee Brewers' major league strength and conditioning coach from 2000 to 2002.

A native of Denville, New Jersey, Falco graduated from Morris Knolles High School and attended George Mason University, where he was a pitcher from 1992 to '94. He transferred to Appalachian State University and played two seasons (1995-96) before graduating in 1996 with a Bachelor of Science degree in exercise science.

Falco's professional career began in 1996 when he pitched for the independent-league Richmond Roosters in Richmond, Ind. In 1997, he served as the strength and conditioning intern for Tampa Bay's Class-A Charleston club.

Falco was certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association in 2005 as a strength and conditioning specialist. He was certified by the American College of Sports Medicine in 1996 as a health and fitness instructor.

Falco is single and resides in Atlanta.

Jeff Porter ♦ Head Athletic Trainer

The 2014 season marks Jeff Porter's 12th as the Braves' Head Athletic Trainer and his 30th in the Braves organization. Porter joined the Braves in 1985 as the Assistant Athletic Trainer and assumed the Head Trainer duties in 2003, when Dave Pursley retired.

A native of Wilmington, NC, Porter graduated from Burgaw High School. He received a bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina-Wilmington in 1977 and earned his master's degree from the University of Denver in 1979.

Following college, the 58-year-old Porter worked his way through the minor leagues. From 1979 to 1984, he had stints with the Denver Bears, Jamestown Expos, Memphis Chicks and Indianapolis Indians.

Porter was honored as the National League athletic trainer for the 1996 Major League Baseball All-Star Game in Philadelphia and for the 2008 All-Star Game at New York's Yankee Stadium. In 2006 he was the athletic trainer for MLB's Japan All-Star Tour. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the American College of Sports Medicine and is a board member for the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

An avid hunter and fisherman, Porter resides in Loganville, Ga. His son David is a junior at Auburn University.

Jim Lovell ♦ Assistant Athletic Trainer

Following 18 seasons in the Braves minor league system, Jim Lovell joined the Major League club on a full-time basis in 2003. He served as the Head Minor League Athletic Trainer, coordinating the minor league medical staff, and covered the Class-AAA Richmond club from 1991 to 2002. He served as athletic trainer for the Triple-A All-Star game in 1991.

Lovell joined the Braves organization in 1985 and spent six years at Class AA Greenville, earning Southern League Trainer of the Year honors three times. He served as the trainer for the Southern League All-Star game three times.

Until 1992, Lovell also spent his off seasons as a part of the football program at Auburn University. He served as the interim assistant trainer for the Major League club during the 1992 and 2000 seasons. Lovell joined the Major League club in September 2002 and was named the full-time assistant trainer the following year. He was honored as National League athletic trainer for the 2012 Major League Baseball All-Star Game in Kansas City.

Lovell holds a bachelor's degree in Community Health and a master's degree in Exercise Physiology. He is a licensed Emergency Medical Technician, and certified as an athletic trainer by the National Athletic Trainer's Association. An avid follower of Auburn football, Lovell is single and resides in Newnan, Ga. He enjoys golf, reading and listening to country-western music.

Bill Acree • Director of Team Travel & Clubhouse Services

Bill Acree has served in the Braves organization since the Club moved to Atlanta in 1966. From 1981 to 2012, he worked in the dual role of director of team travel and equipment manager. He is the longest-tenured Traveling Secretary in the National League, and the third-longest in the majors.

Acree worked as a member of the grounds crew his first two seasons and began serving as visiting clubhouse manager in 1968. Acree became the equipment manager in 1973.

Born in Gainesville, Fla., Acree graduated from Atlanta's Briarcliff High School and attended Dekalb College.

Acree, 65, has three children: daughter Carolyn and sons Bill Jr. and Ben. Ben Acree serves as the Braves' assistant clubhouse and equipment manager.

Acree and his wife Cindy reside in Gainesville, Ga. He enjoys golfing and is an avid fisherman. Acree is an active supporter of Hemophilia of Georgia and holds an annual golf tournament to raise money for the organization.

John Holland • Visiting Clubhouse Manager

The 2014 season marks John Holland's 46th with the Braves. His career began as a 15-year-old batboy in September 1968. Holland became an assistant in the visiting clubhouse in 1969 and was named assistant equipment manager in 1973, a title he held through the 1982 campaign.

In 1983, Holland was named visiting clubhouse manager and has held that role ever since. Since 1998 he has served as an officer of the Major League Baseball Equipment Managers Association. In 2002, he was voted by his peers as the MLB Visiting Clubhouse Manager of the Year.

A native of Atlanta, Holland graduated from Columbia High School. He graduated from the University of Georgia in 1974 with a bachelor's degree in Journalism.

Holland, 61, is an ardent fan of Georgia Bulldogs athletics. He and his wife Patty reside in Suwanee, Ga. They have two sons, Andrew and Nicky, and a daughter, Lauren.

Fred Stone • Assistant Braves & Visiting Clubhouse Manager

The 2014 campaign is Fred Stone's 38th in the Braves organization and his 31st with the Major League Club. In addition to his duties in Atlanta, Stone also serves as the clubhouse manager for the annual Braves Fantasy Camp at ESPN Wide World of Sports.

A native of Richmond, Va., Stone began his career in 1977 as a member of the grounds crew for the Triple-A Richmond Braves. He later became a clubhouse assistant and then served as clubhouse manager, as well as various other roles within the club.

Stone graduated from Chickahominy Academy in 1982 and joined Atlanta's clubhouse staff in 1984.

The 50-year-old Stone is single and resides in Woodstock, Ga. He enjoys golfing and is an avid NASCAR and hockey fan.

Chris Van Zant • Asst. Director of Team Travel & Clubhouse Services

Chris Van Zant joined the Braves as a batboy and clubhouse assistant in September 1990 and continued in that role through the 2000 season. From 2001 to 2012 he served as assistant clubhouse manager and team travel manager, and in 2013 he was promoted to the position of assistant director of team travel and clubhouse services.

Part of Van Zant's duties include producing the annual team travel guide and itinerary. He is also responsible for daily logistics of the Braves clubhouse, managing the clubhouse staff and attending to the needs of the players and staff. Van Zant has been an umpires' room attendant since 2001.

A native of Swarthmore, Pa., the 40-year-old Van Zant attended St. Pius X High School in Atlanta. He graduated from Georgia Tech in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in Management.

Van Zant is a contributor to a variety of charitable foundations, including Children's Healthcare of Atlanta and the Georgia Transplant Association.

In his spare time, Van Zant enjoys movies, Tae Kwon Do and following the Philadelphia Eagles and Georgia Tech Athletics. He and his wife Katie reside in Mableton, Ga., with their three children: sons C.J. and Will, and daughter Caroline.

Ben Acree • Equipment Manager & Clubhouse Services

Equipment manager Ben Acree joined the Braves staff in 1997 and is in his 18th season with the Club.

A native of Atlanta, the 35-year-old Acree is responsible for ordering and maintaining all the Braves' equipment needs, including players' bats, gloves, shoes and all uniforms. Each year he spearheads the moving of the team's equipment to spring training at ESPN Wide World of Sports.

Acree is also responsible for the day-to-day operation of the Braves clubhouse, assisting with meal planning, managing the clubhouse staff, and attending to the needs of the players and staff. He also assists with the daily operation of the umpires' room.

A graduate of Parkview High School, Acree and his wife Adria reside in Mableton, Ga.

Rob Smith • Video Coordinator

Rob Smith is in his 20th season with the Braves and his 16th season as video coordinator.

Smith is responsible for the editing, logging and charting of every pitch for all Braves games. The video is then reviewed by the coaching staff and players for instructional purposes. Smith also assists the Advance Scout to help create scouting reports on the opposition, as well as provide any statistical data and video to supplement the reports for the coaching staff. In addition to his major league duties, Smith supervises the minor league video coordinators' daily activity at each level to ensure quality and distribution of video throughout the Braves organization.

Smith, 42, began with the Braves in 1995 as a game day employee in corporate sponsor hospitality. In 1996, he served as a customer service representative in the ticket sales department, and in 1997-98 he was a marketing representative and also worked part time coordinating the Braves' video efforts.

Born in Concord, NH, Smith graduated from Lafayette High School in Williamsburg, Va. He is a 1994 graduate of the University of Kentucky, with a degree in Sport Management.

He and his wife Carmen reside in Suwanee, Ga., with their son Tyler.

Chris Drumheller • Chef/Athletic Nutrition Specialist

Chris Drumheller is in his second full season with the Braves after starting with the Club in September 2012.

Drumheller creates daily menus based on specific nutrition needs for the Braves' players and produces up to three health-conscious meals per day for the entire squad for all regular-season home games and in spring training. He researches and utilizes local farms for all of the produce and meats he prepares. Drumheller also provides personal chef services to the players during the off-season.

A native of Pottstown, Pa., Drumheller attended Owen J. Roberts High School and received a bachelor's degree in culinary nutrition from Johnson & Wales University in Providence, RI. He possesses eight years of experience in the restaurant and hospitality industry and began his career in sports as a nutrition intern at the University of Alabama in the spring of 2012.

Drumheller, 26, is single and resides in Smyrna, Ga. An avid outdoorsman, he enjoys skiing, fishing, hiking and mountain biking. He also enjoys playing and coaching hockey and is a fan of the Philadelphia Flyers.

Ed Mangan • Field Director

Known as one of the best field directors in the game, Ed Mangan joined the Atlanta Braves following the 1990 season. He previously served five years as the head groundskeeper at Boardwalk & Baseball, the Kansas City Royals' spring training complex. When John Schuerholz became the Braves' General Manager in October 1990, Mangan was among the first people Schuerholz hired.

Mangan's expertise extends well beyond Turner Field. Each year, following the Braves season, he works with the NFL to prepare the practice facilities and main field for the Super Bowl. Mangan has worked each of the last 24 Super Bowls, including the last 13 as field director.

Following his duties with the Super Bowl, Mangan heads to Florida in February to oversee the preparations of the Braves' spring training complex at ESPN Wide World of Sports. He has been the only field director the Braves have used in their 17 years at Turner Field and 16 springs at the Wide World of Sports Complex.

A native of Leonardo, NJ, Mangan attended Mater Dei High School in Middletown, NJ, and the University of Southwestern Louisiana (Lafayette, La.). The 54-year-old Mangan is a member of the Georgia Golf Course Superintendents Association and the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association.

Mangan and his wife Janeen reside in Alpharetta with their four boys, Jake, Micky, Colby and Ty. He enjoys archery, aviation, hunting and fishing.

Avilan's 2013 Season Recap

- Produced a fine sophomore season, going 5-0 with a 1.52 ERA in 75 appearances out of the bullpen. Held opponents to a .175 batting average and allowed just 40 hits over 65.0 innings pitched.
- His 1.52 ERA ranked seventh among Major League relievers and third among National League relievers.
- Among National League relievers, his .175 opponents' batting average ranked sixth, while his 27 holds were tied for third, his 75 appearances ranked tied for fourth and his five wins were tied for 13th.
- Posted a streak of 35 consecutive appearances (from 5/24 to 8/14) without allowing an earned run. The streak was the second-longest single-season stretch in MLB history to ATL's Craig Kimbrel, who had 38 such appearances in 2011. During the span, Avilan allowed just 22 baserunners (11 hits, nine BB and two HBP) over 31.2 innings pitched, while posting a .106 opponents' batting average.
- Made his first career appearance in the postseason, appearing in all four of the Braves' National League Division Series games vs. LAD. Posted 2.2 scoreless frames while allowing three hits.
- Induced a 1-6-3 double play in the seventh inning of Game 2 to preserve a 2-1 lead. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he was just the second pitcher in MLB postseason history with an inning-ending 1-6-3 double play with the tying run on third base, joining CLE's Bob Lemon (Game 6 of the 1948 World Series vs. the Boston Braves).
- Over his final 54 games of the season, from 5/24 on, owned a 0.95 ERA (47.1 IP/5 ER) while holding opposing hitters to a .154 average.
- His ERA vs. National League teams was 0.79 (56.2 IP/5 ER) in 65 appearances, compared to 6.48 (8.1 IP/6 ER) vs. teams from the American League (10 appearances).
- Held opposing left-handed hitters to a .144 (15-for-104) batting average, compared to a .202 (25-for-124) average by opposing right-handed hitters.
- Completed 1.1 innings or more on 11 different occasions. Each of those 11 outings were scoreless, while he allowed just nine hits and logged 11 strikeouts over 18.0 total innings.
- Suffered a left hamstring strain and cramping on 4/16; missed just four team games with the injury.
- Earned the win in relief on opening night (4/1) vs. PHI, stranding two IR and logging 1.2 scoreless IP.

Beachy's 2013 Season Recap

- Returned from "Tommy John" surgery and was limited to five starts, going 2-1 with a 4.50 ERA with 23 strikeouts in 30 innings pitched, as his 2013 season was bookended with disabled list stints.
- Opened the year on the disabled list as he recovered from "Tommy John" surgery performed June 21, 2012.
- Was activated off the disabled list on 7/29 and made his first start of the season that evening (3.2 IP, 8 H, 7 R, 7 ER, 1 BB, 5 K).
- After making his fifth start on 8/20, was shut down for the remainder of the season due to inflammation in his right elbow. Underwent arthroscopic surgery to remove a bone spur and debride inflamed tissue performed by Dr. James Andrews in Pensacola, Fla., on 9/26.
- Posted a "quality start" in three of his five starts. Four of his five starts came against opponents from the National League East division (2-1, 2.73).
- Posted back-to-back wins, 8/9 and 8/14, allowing a combined two earned runs in 14.0 innings (1.29 ERA) .
- Made nine rehabilitation starts across three different levels during a two-month span, 5/24-7/24, compiling a 3-4 record with a 2.93 ERA over 40.0 innings pitched. He went 25 days, from 6/13 to 7/9, between starts due to inflammation in his elbow that caused a minor setback in his recovery.

Gattis' 2013 Season Recap

- Made an opening day roster for the first time in his career in his fourth professional season and batted .243 (86-for-354) with 21 home runs, 65 RBI in 105 games in his rookie season.
- Made his Major League debut on 4/3 vs. PHI. Homered to lead off the fourth inning to become the seventh player in Atlanta history to hit a home run in his MLB debut, joining Bob Horner (1978), Jermaine Dye (1996), Marty Malloy (1998), Jeff Francoeur (2005), Jordan Schafer (2009) and Jason Heyward (2010).
- Defensively made 91 starts, including 47 in left field, 38 at catcher, four at first base and two as the DH.
- Made his first career appearance on a postseason roster. He started all four games of the National League Division Series vs. LAD in left field and batted in the No. 4 spot in the lineup.
- Batted .357 (5-for-14) with one RBI, two walks and a .438 on-base percentage in four games during the National League Division Series vs. LAD. Through his first three games of the NLDS, was 5-for-10 (.500) with a .538 on-base percentage. Went 0-for-4 in Game 4.
- Became just the ninth rookie in Braves history to hit 20 homers in a season. Is only the seventh rookie in club history to hit at least 20 doubles and 20 homers.
- Despite making just 91 starts (played in 105 total games), led all Major League rookies in RBI (65) and GW-RBI (11), and ranked second in home runs (21).
- Drilled a pinch-home run in 4/18's eighth inning in his first career pinch-hit at-bat. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Gattis became the first rookie to homer in his first career pinch-hit plate appearance since Yasmani Grandal hit a pinch-home run on 7/4/12.
- Claimed back-to-back National League Rookie of the Month honors in April and May, becoming the first player to win back-to-back NL Rookie of the month honors since teammate Jason Heyward (2010, April and May).
- In April, led MLB rookies in home runs (6), RBI (16), and slugging percentage (.566) and hit .250 (19-for-76) with five game-winning RBI.
- In 22 May games (.303), led all rookies with 16 RBI while his six home runs tied for first.
- Finished in the top 10 among National League rookies in slugging percentage (3rd, .480), extra-base hits (4th, 42), total bases (5th, 170), doubles (6th, 21), runs (7th, 44), and outfield assists (10th, 3).
- Went 6-for-10 (.600) with five extra-base hits and four runs scored in 13 plate appearances as a pinch-hitter.
- Drilled his fourth career pinch-hit home run in just his eighth career pinch at-bat on 6/10 at SD. The franchise mark for pinch home runs in a season is five (Butch Nieman, 1945).
- Through his first 43 career at-bats, recorded five home runs to become the first rookie to record at least five homers in his first 43 career at-bats since three players did so in 2008 (Taylor Teagarden, Matt Joyce and Chris Davis).

- Posted his first career multi-homer game on 9/8 at PHI with both shots coming off of Cole Hamels.
- Place on the disabled list on 6/18 with a right oblique strain. Activated off the DL on 7/14 after playing two rehabilitation games (.125, 1-for-8) at Gwinnett (AAA).
- Over his last 11 games of the season, since 9/18 on, batted .302 (13-for-43) with four extra-base hits and six RBI. In his last six games, went 10-for-24 (.417) with a 1.065 OPS.
- Went just 5-for-36 (.139) in 13 August games. Was optioned to Triple-A Gwinnett on 8/31 and went 6-for-13 (.462) with three doubles, one home run and a .500 on-base percentage over a three-game stint. Recalled by Atlanta on 9/3.
- Clubbed his first career grand slam (10th career home run) with two outs (3-0 count) in the fourth inning on 5/22 off MIN's Vance Worley.
- Smacked his third pinch-home run on 5/21 vs. MIN with a game-tying solo shot in the ninth inning. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the fifth rookie in Atlanta Braves history to hit a game-tying or go-ahead home run in the ninth inning or later as a pinch-hitter joining Jim Breazeale (1972), Ryan Klesko (1993 and 1994), Steve Sisco (2000) and Brooks Conrad (2010).
- Made his first career start in left field on 5/6 at CIN (1-for-4, 1 2B, 1 RBI, 1 E).
- His first career start at first base came on 4/12 at WSH (0-for-4, 1 BB, 1 E).

Hale's 2013 Season Recap

- In his fifth professional campaign, made his Major League debut on 9/13 vs. SD after spending the majority of the season with the Triple-A Gwinnett Braves, going 6-9 with a 3.22 ERA over 22 appearances, including 20 games started.
- Has his contract purchased by the Braves on 9/3 and remained with the club through the National League Division Series.
- Made his first career postseason appearance in Game 3 of the National League Division Series vs. LAD after making just two career regular season appearances (both starts). He retired his only batter faced in the NLDS, grouding out Juan Uribe in the ninth inning.
- Made an historical Major League debut on 9/13 vs. SD as he tossed 5.0 scoreless frames and allowed just four hits and one walk while striking out nine. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Hale established the Braves franchise record for strikeouts in a Major League debut. Since 1900, two Braves pitchers had eight strikeouts in their debut: Bob Dresser (8/13/1902) and Kenshin Kawakami (4/11/2009). Over the previous 10 seasons (since 2004), only two other pitchers did not allow a run and fanned nine or more players in their MLB debuts: Matt Harvey and Collin McHugh, who both did so for the New York Mets in 2012. No Braves pitcher had an outing of this type in his debut in the modern era (since 1900).
- Collected his first Major League win in his second career start, 9/26 vs. PHI, holding the Phillies to one run through 6.0 innings in a 7-1 victory.
- Pitched at a 5.51 ERA over his first three Triple-A starts of the season, 4/6-17. Was placed on the Gwinnett disabled list with a right shoulder strain from 4/18-5/29. Following the DL stint, posted a 2.84 ERA spanning 19 appearances (17 starts) through the remainder of the season.
- Selected by the Braves organization as the Gwinnett Braves Most Valuable Pitcher.
- Ranked second among G-Braves pitchers in starts (22) and "quality starts" (12), tied for second in wins (6), ranked third in innings pitched (114.2) and was fourth in strikeouts (77). Did not qualify for ERA ranking due to innings pitched qualification.
- Pitched at a 1.83 ERA (78.1 IP/16 ER) over a 13-game span, 6/15-8/23.
- Recorded at least 6.0 innings in 12 of his 20 starts, including 11 of his final 14 starts of the season.
- Named by the Braves organization as the Gwinnett July Pitcher of the Month (3-2, 0.86 ERA).
- His longest outing of the season came on 7/7 at Durham as he tossed 7.1 innings and gave up one earned run on six hits in a 1-0 loss.
- Won three consecutive starts, 7/20-8/1, allowing just four earned runs over 18.0 innings pitched.
- Received 38 runs of support over his 20 starts, for an average of 1.90 runs per game.
- Enters the 2014 season ranked by Baseball America as the Braves' seventh-best prospect.

- Signed a four-year contract with the Atlanta Braves through the 2017 season (with an option for the 2018 season) on February 16, 2014.
- Owns 139 career saves in 154 save opportunities, with a 1.39 ERA in 231 games (all in relief).
- His career save percentage of 90.3 ranks third in Major League history among relievers with at least 150 save opportunities, behind only Eric Gagne (91.7%) and John Smoltz (91.1%).
- Is 139-for-154 (90%) in career save opportunities.
- Enters the 2014 season 15 saves shy of Smoltz's franchise record of 154 career rescues.
- Has recorded 381 strikeouts among the 883 batters he has faced in the regular season (43 percent).
- The 2013 National League Division Series vs. LAD marked his third career postseason appearance. He pitched in one game of the 2013 NLDS vs. LAD, made four appearances in the 2010 NLDS vs. SF and had one appearance in the 2012 Wild Card vs. STL. In six total postseason games, he has notched 10 strikeouts over 6.2 innings.
- Has been selected to the National League All-Star team each of his first three full seasons in the league, 2011, 2012 and 2013.
- Was a unanimous selection for National League Rookie of the Year in 2011, when he saved 46 games and recorded a 2.10 ERA, with 127 strikeouts in 77 IP.

Kimbrel's 2013 Season Recap

- Put together a historic season in his third full year in the majors, as he led National League relievers in ERA (1.21) and saves (50), while ranking fourth in strikeouts with 98.
- Finished fourth in voting for the National League Cy Young Award.
- His career-high 50 saves tied for the Major-League lead with BAL's Jim Johnson.
- Became the youngest player (25 years old) in Major League history to reach the 50-save plateau in a season with his 50th rescue on 9/27 vs. PHI.
- Became the second-youngest pitcher in Major League history to record 100 career saves (#100, 5/9 at SF).
- Became the second player in Braves history to record at least 50 saves in a season. John Smoltz established the record with 55 in 2002.
- Converted his 20th save on June 19 vs. NYM to become the first pitcher in Braves history to begin his career with three straight seasons of 20+ saves.
- With his 40th save on 7/24, became first pitcher in Major League history with 40+ saves in each of his first three seasons.
- Converted a franchise-record 37 consecutive save opportunities from 5/9-9/14. During the 37-game stretch, he allowed two runs (0.38 ERA) and 23 hits in 47 outings (47.1 IP), while striking out 68 batters.
- Was named Major League Baseball's Delivery Man of the Month for August after converting 12-of-12 save opportunities, while striking out 19 over 16.1 IP. It was the third time in his career to win the award.
- Named to the National League All-Star team for the third straight year.
- Converted his first career postseason save by recording four outs over the eighth and ninth innings on 10/4 in Game 2 vs. LAD. It marked his third career four-out save and second on the season.
- Allowed a home run to SD's Chase Headley on 9/14, his first home run allowed in a span of 47 games (since 5/7 at CIN).
- Spanning an 11-appearance stretch, 4/24-5/24, he allowed five earned runs in 10.2 innings pitched for a 4.22 ERA. The five earned runs surrendered during those 11 games was more than half of the total number of earned runs he allowed in his other 57 appearances on the season which included 56.1 innings pitched and four earned runs for a 0.64 ERA.
- Signed a four-year contract (with an option for a fifth year) through the 2017 season on February 16, 2014.

2012: Converted 42-of-45 save opportunities while posting an ERA of 1.01 with 116 strikeouts and only 27 hits allowed in 62.2 innings pitched...Finished fifth in National League Cy Young Award voting and finished eighth in NL MVP voting (the highest finish of any pitcher)...He became just the second Brave to post two 40-save seasons (John Smoltz, three times, 2002-04)...Achieved several pitching feats that had never been accomplished by a modern Major League pitcher (min. 60.0 IP): his 16.7 strikeouts per nine innings (116 K/62.2 IP) was the highest in Major League history; posted a .126 opponents' batting average, the lowest since 1900; his .358 OPS was the lowest in the Expansion era; had a strikeouts-to-hits ratio of 4.3-to-1, the best single-season ratio in the live-ball era; recorded 42 saves, despite a span of 23 games in August (8/4-27) without a save opportunity...His 42 saves ranked tied for first (T3rd in MLB) in the National League (with STL's Jason Motte)...Ranked second among NL relievers with 116 strikeouts. 107 of his last 170 outs recorded were via strikeout, including 91 of his last 141, dating to 5/20 (also had a strikeout/wild pitch on 6/13 & 9/26)...On 7/20, he suffered his first blown save on the road. Went 22-for-23 in road game save opps...Was named to his second consecutive All-Star team and used seven pitches to strike out his only two batters faced (Asdrubal Cabrera, Ian Kinsler)...Suffered his first blown save on 5/2, before converting 20 straight chances with an .080 opponents' average (7-for-88), an 0.67 ERA (2 ER/27.0 IP) and 45 strikeouts in 27 games, from

5/3-7/19...Did not allow more than one hit in any of his appearances...Snapped his 17-game scoreless streak on 6/28 vs. ARI by allowing a home run to Chris Young..During that span (5/8-6/27), he held opponents to an .055 avg (3-for-55) while recording 31 K in 17.0 IP...Failed to strikeout a batter in 9/19's save (#38) at MIA. Had fanned at least one batter in 20 straight games since 7/19. Fanned at least one batter in 44 of his final 47 outings (since 5/20), with 92 strikeouts over that 46.2-inning stretch. In his 63 games, he struck out at least three batters 17 times...Fanned four batters in 1.0 IP for his 40th save on 9/26 vs. MIA. He became the fourth Braves pitcher (3rd reliever) to notch four strikeouts in 1.0 IP since the team moved to Atlanta in 1966 (Mark Wohlers, 6/7/95 vs. CHI; Paul Assenmacher, 8/22/89 vs. STL; Phil Niekro, 7/29/77 vs. PIT)...Was named MLB Delivery Man of the Month for September after going 3-0 with a 0.00 ERA over 13 scoreless appearances...He converted 10-of-10 save opportunities and fanned 25 over 12.2 innings pitched...Was named to the provisional roster of Team USA for the 2013 World Baseball Classic.

First Time for Everything

Kimbrel achieved several pitching feats in 2012 that had never been accomplished by a modern Major League pitcher (min. 60 IP):

- His 16.7 strikeouts per nine innings pitched (116 K/62.2 IP) was the highest in Major League history;
- Posted a .126 opponents' batting average, the lowest since 1900;
- His .358 OPS was the lowest in the Expansion era;
- Had a strikeouts-to-hits ratio of 4.3-to-1, the best single-season ratio in Major League history;
- Retired 50% (116-of-231) of his hitters via strikeout, the best ratio in the live-ball era;
- Recorded 42 saves, despite a span of 23 games in August (8/4-27) without a save opportunity.

2012 POSTSEASON: Tossed 1.0 perfect inning in Wild Card Game vs. STL on 10/5 while fanning one.

2011: Had a stellar rookie season, recording a National League-tying and rookie-record-setting 46 saves, and was named the Baseball Writers' Association of America unanimous National League Rookie of the Year award winner...Received 32 first-place votes becoming the 10th unanimous BBWAA NL Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year selection...Teammate 1B Freddie Freeman finished second in the voting, marking the third time that NL teammates finished 1-2 in the voting...Became the sixth relief pitcher honored and it was the seventh time an Atlanta Brave was honored...Named the Sporting News National League Rookie of the Year...Was also named Sporting News' "First-Half National League Rookie of the Year" and earned a spot on Sporting News' National League All-Star team...Was Named Atlanta's "Professional Athlete of the Year" for 2011 by the Atlanta Sports Council...Was added to the National League All-Star roster on 7/10 in place of SF's Matt Cain... Came on in relief of teammate Jair Jurrjens with two outs in the seventh inning and retired one-of-two batters faced to earn a hold in his first All-Star game appearance...His 46 saves tied with MIL's John Axford for most in the NL and second in the Majors behind DET's Jose Valverde...Fanned 127-of-306 batters faced (42%), leading all Major League relievers in strikeouts...Allowed a two-out solo homer to NYM's Lucas Duda on 9/18, his first home run allowed to a left-handed batter in 2011...Allowed his first career home run to CIN's Ramon Hernandez on 5/27 vs. CIN...Snapped his scoreless innings streak at 37.2 IP (over 38 appearances) on 9/9 at STL...The streak was the longest in the majors this season and was the fifth-longest in the majors since Orel Hershiser established the MLB record of 59.1 IP in 1988...In that span, he allowed just 14 hits and issued only 11 walks, while fanning 67 batters and went 25-for-25 in save opportunities...Named the NL's Rookie of the Month for August, going 10-for-10 in save opportunities and allowing no runs in 13 appearances (12.2 IP) while fanning 23 batters and allowing a .143 average...With his 41st save on 8/31 vs. WSH, he passed Texas' Neftali Feliz (40, 2010) for the most saves by a Major League rookie (since 1969)...With his 31st save on 7/22 at CIN, set the Atlanta rookie record for most rescues in a season (Kerry Ligtenberg, 30 in 1998)...Tossed a scoreless ninth inning on 7/9 at PHI to record his 28th save, extending his own record for most saves for a Major League rookie before the All-Star break (since 1969)...His 17th save, recorded 6/3 at NYM, set the NL rookie record for most saves prior to the All-Star break...Became the quickest pitcher in franchise history to reach 100 career strikeouts, doing so in 59.1 IP (John Rocker, 70.0 IP, 1998-99)...Named the NL's Rookie of the Month for June after going 1-0 with eight saves and a 1.53 ERA in 14 appearances, with 25 strikeouts and just five walks in 14.0 IP.

2010: Entered the 2010 season as the Braves' fifth-best prospect and as having the "Best Fastball" in all of Class A according to Baseball America...Put together a fine 2010 season, opening the year at Gwinnett (AAA) where he recorded a 1.62 ERA in 48 relief appearances, including 23 saves, before a promotion to the majors for his first career appearance on a ML roster on 5/5...Appeared on the major league roster on four separate occasions with each transaction taking place with GWI...Promoted to the majors for the first time on 5/5; optioned 5/22: recalled 6/5; optioned 6/22: recalled 8/27; optioned 8/29: recalled 9/7 for the remainder of the season...Posted a perfect 4-0 record with a 0.44 ERA in 21 appearances in relief for the major-league Club...In 20.2 innings pitched for the ML Club, recorded 40 strikeouts...Made his Major League debut 5/7 at PHI and allowed a double to the first batter he faced (1.0 IP, 1 H, 2 K, 19 P)...Struck out the side in 9/19 at NYM for his first career save...Posted a 16.1 scoreless inning streak from 6/7-10/2...Garnered his first career victory 5/20 vs. CIN after tossing a scoreless ninth inning...At the time of his first call-up (5/5), had recorded six saves with a 1.20 ERA (15.0 IP/2 ER) and 21 strikeouts for GWI...With GWI, logged 83 strikeouts in 55.2 innings pitched for an average of 1.49 K per inning.

2010 POSTSEASON: Pitched in all four Division Series games going 0-1 with a 2.08 ERA and had seven strikeouts in 4.1 IP...Made scoreless outings in Games 1, 2 and 4...In Game three, gave up a one-out walk followed two batters later by a two-out single, his only hit of the series...Both runs came around to score on a single and error, respectively.

2009: Was named the Phil Niekro Award winner, given annually to the top pitcher in the farm system...Had a fine sophomore season, playing at three different levels (A, AA and AAA)...His 2009 season totals: 2-3 with 18 saves, 2.85 ERA (60.0 IP/19 ER), 103 strikeouts and 45 walks in 49 relief appearances...Was a perfect 18-for-18 in save opportunities, third-most among Braves farmhands...Struck out 103 batters in 60.0 IP, for an average of 1.72 per inning...Ranked second among all minor league relievers with 15.45 strikeouts per nine innings and was seventh (first among Braves minor league relievers) with a .150 opponents average... Placed in the top ten in several categories among Braves farmhands including games (T3rd, 39), relievers ERA (8th-2.85) and strikeouts (9th-103)...Struggled in his first six outings (all with MB) of the season, 4/9-22, allowing 12 earned runs in 7.2 IP (14.09 ERA)...Without those six outings, his ERA for the season would have been 1.20 (52.1 IP/7 ER)...Over his final 37 appearances, from 5/14-9/6, allowed an earned run in just three app. (0.60, 45.1 IP/3 ER)...Converted seven-of-seven save opportunities and pitched at a 1.42 ERA (12.2 IP/2 ER) while recording 26 strikeouts compared to three walks en route to being named Rome's Pitcher of the Month for May...Despite playing in only 16 games with Rome, ranked second on the club with 10 saves...Was tabbed an Arizona Fall League "Rising Star" by Baseball America...Made 11 relief appearances totaling 10.1 IP (10.45 ERA) for Peoria Saguaros of the AFL.

2008: Following the season, rated by Baseball America as having the "Best Fastball" and as the 10th-best prospect in the Atlanta organization...Posted a combined 3-2-10 record with a 0.51 ERA and 56 strikeouts in 25.1 IP in first professional season...Held opponents to a .131 average at the three stops...Ranked tied for fifth among Braves minor league relievers with 10 saves...Named Rome's August Pitcher of the Month (2-0-3, 0.87 ERA, 10.1 IP, 21 K)...Opened the season at rookie-level Danville (6/18-7/25) and started his career with four saves in four consecutive appearances and a win in his fifth appearance before suffering his first loss... In 12 games with DAN, converted 6-of-7 save opportunities and earned one win while holding opponents to a .076 batting average.

Minor's 2013 Season Recap

- Ranks fourth in the majors with a 2.90 ERA since the 2012 All-Star break (min. 40 starts), going 19-13 in 46 starts during that span.
- Led the Braves in innings pitched for the second straight year (had 179.1 in 2012).
- His strikeout-to-walk ratio of 3.93 (181:46) ranked eighth in the National League.
- His .217 opponents' average against LHB ranked 12th in the NL (min. 150 ABs).
- Owned the fifth-highest run support average in the NL at 5.47 (16th in MLB). The Braves averaged 3.6 runs per start while he was still in the game.
- On 9/17 [1] at WSH, he allowed three runs in the first, but retired 17 of his last 19 batters faced, including four perfect innings (2nd-6th). The bullpen surrendered a two-run lead in the ninth and Atlanta lost 6-5.
- The two homers he allowed on 8/31 vs. MIA were the first he'd given up since 7/26 (he entered the game with a string of 33.2 homerless IP since 7/26).
- Tossed his first career complete game on 7/21 at CWS. He went 8.0 IP in the 3-1 loss to the White Sox.
- In 18 starts, from 5/8-8/11, he went 9-3 with a 2.74 ERA, with 112 strikeouts and just 27 walks in 118.1 IP.
- Went 4-0 with a 1.98 ERA and a .186 opponents' average in the month of May.
- 2013 marked his first postseason appearance. Was listed on the 2012 WC roster, but did not appear.
- Made his first career postseason start on 10/4 vs. LAD in Game 2 of the NLDS by allowing just one run over 6.1 innings while striking out five. The 4-3 victory was the Braves' only win of the series. He was the first Braves starting pitcher to allow only one run in a postseason game since Tim Hudson in Game 3 of the 2010 NLDS and was the first left-handed pitcher to start a postseason game for the Braves since Mike Hampton started Game 2 of the 2004 NLDS.

A. Simmons' 2013 Season Recap

- Earned his first career Rawlings Gold Glove Award as the top defensive shortstop in the National League.
- Was named the Rawlings Platinum Glove Award winner for the National League as the senior circuit's top defensive player. Baltimore's Manny Machado earned the honor for the American League.
- First Braves infielder to win a Gold Glove since Terry Pendleton earned the honor at third base in 1992.
- Was named by ESPN as the Defensive Player of the Year and was also named Defensive Player of the Month for both May and June.
- Compiled a defensive WAR of 5.4, the highest single-season mark in Major League history. He tied shortstop Terry Turner (5.4) of the 1906 Cleveland Naps for the best defensive WAR season in history.
- His 5.4 DWAR was almost a complete win above the next highest mark of 4.6 by Milwaukee's Carlos Gomez for the season.
- Defensively saved 41 runs, tied for most (with Arizona's Gerardo Parra) since the stat began to be tracked in 2003, according to Baseball Info Solutions and ESPN. No other shortstop finished the season with more than 12 defensive runs saved.
- Baseball Info Solutions' formula calculated that Simmons made 49 more plays than the average shortstop would have made against the same series of batted balls. Also according to Baseball Info Solutions, Braves opponents reached safely on only 22 percent of ground balls hit to the left of the second base bag, the lowest success rate in the majors.
- Was unanimously named The Fielding Bible's best fielder in baseball for possessing "soft hands, a quick release, tremendous range, an incredible flair for the shortstop position and a strong throwing arm."
- Had a career-best 11-game hitting streak from 5/25-6/5 and hit .360 (18-for-50) during that stretch.
- Ranked fourth in the majors with a 11.96 plate appearance per strikeout rate (658 PA/55 K).
- His 17 home runs were the most by a Braves shortstop since Jeff Blauser had 17 in 1997.
- His 21 infield hits ranked were tied for ninth-most in the National League.
- Led all Major League shortstops with 499 assists.

- Notched two two-home run games on 5/16 at CIN and 9/2 at CHI.

Uggla's Career Recap

- Was acquired by the Braves from the Florida Marlins in exchange for LHP Mike Dunn and INF Omar Infante on 11/16/10 and signed a five-year contract through 2015 on 1/6/11.
- Is the only player in Major League history whose primary position was second base to begin his career with six consecutive 20+ home run seasons. He was tied with the Yankee's Joe Gordon (1938-41) as the only players to have accomplished the feat in four consecutive seasons.
- Since 2006, he leads all Major League second basemen with 231 HR (Robinson Cano is second with 190) and ranks first among active second basemen in home runs.
- Became the first player in Marlins history to own five consecutive 20+ home run campaigns. He was tied with Miguel Cabrera (2004-07), Derrek Lee (2000-03) and Preston Wilson (1999-2002), who each had four.

- Left the Marlins as the all-time home run leader with 154; Hanley Ramirez (148) ranks second.
- Became the quickest second baseman in Major League history to reach 100 home runs in career games played (509), besting Alfonso Soriano's record of 536 games.
- He is the only player in Major League history, whose primary position is second base, to be a franchise leader in home runs (The highest any other 2B ranks on an organization's all-time home run list is third).
- Became the first Marlin ever with four 30-home run seasons. Miguel Cabrera is the only other Marlin with three seasons (2004, '05, '07) of 30+ home runs.
- Became the first second baseman in Major League history with five 30-homer seasons. Only four other second basemen have had three 30-homer seasons: Rogers Hornsby (1922, '25, '29), Jeff Kent (1998, 2000, '02), Alfonso Soriano (2002, '03, '05) and Chase Utley (2006, '08, '09).

Uggla's 2013 Season Recap

- His 18 home runs at the All-Star break were the most by a Brave since Chipper Jones and Brian McCann had 18 at the break in 2008.
- Hit his second career Opening Day home run with a solo shot in the second inning on 4/1, his first homer in an opener since 4/2/07.
- His longest hitting streak of the season was seven games (5/2-9, .370, 10-for-27, 2 3B, 3 HR, 4 RBI).
- Hit four home runs at Citi Field (5/24, 5/26, 7/24, 7/25), and now has 10 career homers at Citi Field, the most of any visiting player in the stadium's five-year history.
- Hit .462 when saddled with a 1-0 count, tallying 12 hits in 26 at-bats with five extra-base hits and 10 RBI.
- Led the team and ranked fifth in the National League with 77 walks.
- Was placed on the disabled list from 8/13-28 to undergo corrective eye surgery.

B.J. Upton's 2013 Season Recap

- His 207 stolen bases over the past six seasons (2008-13) rank fifth in the majors behind Michael Bourn (280), Rajai Davis (245), Jacoby Ellsbury (232) and Juan Pierre (225).
- Has 55 outfield assists since 2007, second most among center fielders (Adam Jones, 59).
- Teamed with brother Justin Upton homering in back-to-back at-bats on 4/23 [2] at COL. Marked the 27th time in MLB history brother teammates have done so, and just the second time in MLB history brothers have gone back-to-back in the same game.
- Teamed with brother Justin to homer in 4/6's 9th inning (B.J. tied the game at 5-5 and Justin's was the game-winner) marking the first time in their career the brothers homered in the same game and inning. The duo became the fourth pair of brothers in MLB history to homer as teammates in the same inning.
- Notched a season high four hits twice (8/7 at WSH and 8/31 vs. MIA). His fourth hit on 8/31 drove in the winning run with a two-out RBI-single in 11th inning, he also snapped a 46-game homerless streak with a two-run homer in the sixth inning.
- Hit .396 (21-for-53) on the first pitch of an at-bat with seven doubles.
- Hit safely in five consecutive games, 8/3-7, batting .476 (10-for-21) in that span.
- Activated from the disabled list on 8/3 after leaving on 7/12 game with a right adductor muscle strain. His DL stint included a rehab assignment with Triple-A Gwinnett (.333, 4-for-12, 2 RBI).
- Appeared in three games of the NLDS vs. LAD and went hitless in three at-bats.

B.J. Upton's Career Highlights

2012: Played in 146 games and started 144 (141-CF, 3-DH) after missing the first 13 games of the season with lower back soreness...Led the team with 28 home runs (a career high), 78 RBI and 31 SB (tied Desmond Jennings)...He became the first player to lead the Rays in homers and steals in the same season and has the only three 20-HR, 20-SB seasons in Rays history (2007, 2011, 2012)...After the All-Star break, ranked tied for third in the majors in both home runs (21) and extra-base hits (40)...From 8/11 through season's end, he led the majors with 18 HR in 50 games played...He also led the majors with 12 HR in September, tied for second most of any month in club history (Carlos Peña, 13 HR in September 2007 and 12 HR in August 2009)...Only two other players in baseball matched Upton's combination of home runs and stolen bases: LAA's Mike Trout (30-HR, 49-SB) and MIL's Ryan Braun (41-HR, 30-SB)...Hit his 100th career home run on 8/3 vs. BAL, becoming the eighth player in major league history to reach 100 HR and 200 SB before age 28...He joined Rickey Henderson, Cesar Cedeño, Barry Bonds, Bobby Bonds, Eric Davis, Lloyd Moseby and Hanley Ramirez...His 100th career homer came less than an hour after his brother, then 24-year-old ARI Justin Upton, hit his 100th at PHI...The Uptons became the youngest set of brothers in major league history to reach 100 HR, and only the sixth set of brothers all-time...They were the first to reach the milestone in the same season, let alone the same day...Ranked among AL leaders in SB (tied for sixth), sacrifice flies (8, tied for fifth) and strikeouts (169, tied for fourth)...Led all major league center fielders with 10 assists, his most since he had 16 in 2008...Hit three home runs on 9/9 vs. TEX, tying the club record...He became the seventh AL player since 1918 to hit three HR in a game out of the leadoff spot and the first in 16 years...Upton and James Shields were named AL Co-Players of the Week for the period of 9/3-9...It was the first time the Rays had co-winners, and the ninth time since 2000 that two teammates shared the AL award...The Rays went 81-65 with Upton in the lineup...In 81 wins, he hit .313/.353/.608 with 24 HR, 66 RBI and 25 2B...In 65 losses, he hit .156/.226/.246 with four HR, 12 RBI and four 2B...Tied his career high with a 10-game hitting streak from 5/17-27 (fourth time), hit .405 (17-for-42)...Activated from the 15-day DL on 4/20 after missing the first 13 games with lower back soreness...The soreness began with a spring training outfield collision with Desmond Jennings on 3/14 vs. MIA...Made seven rehab appearances with Charlotte and Montgomery.

2011: With 23 home runs with 36 stolen bases, was one of five major leaguers with 20 HR and 30 SB joining BOS' Jacoby Ellsbury, LAD's Matt Kemp, TEX's Ian Kinsler and MIL's Ryan Braun...Had the only two 20-HR, 20-SB seasons in Rays history (also 2007)...Was installed in the two-hole in the lineup on 9/5 when the Rays were 9.5 games back of Boston in the AL Wild Card race and started there in every game through season's end...In those 23 games, the Rays went 15-8 and he hit a club-high .356 (31-for-87) with 5 HR, 14 RBI, 8 2B, 10 BB, 8 SB, .462 OBP and .644 SLG...His 35 SB ranked sixth in the AL...Batted 66 points higher on the road than at home, the fourth-highest disparity in the majors...Struck out 161 times (fifth most in the AL)...His .333 (33-for-99) average in September led the team and was his highest in a single month since he hit .362 in July 2007...Had 16 extra-base hits for the month, tied for third in the majors...B.J. and his brother, Justin, became the first brothers in major league history to have 20 HR and 20 SB in the same season... Justin totaled 31 HR and 21 SB...They reached the milestone when B.J. hit his 20th homer on 9/11 vs. BOS, also his first career grand slam...B.J. and Justin combined for 54 HR, tied for fifth most by any brothers in one season in major league history...That same night, his brother Justin hit a game-winning homer in the eight inning to give the D-backs a 4-3 victory over the Rockies...The last time two brothers hit game-winning home runs on the same day was 9/28/96 (CLE Sandy Alomar Jr. and BAL Roberto Alomar)...The Upton brothers have homered on the same day 10 times in their careers, the highest total by any pair of brothers since Bret Boone retired in 2005...Aaron and Bret homered on the same day 19 times, a major league record...Was the first AL player to collect two extra-base hits in extra innings since TEX Josh Hamilton, 4/16/08 at TOR (2 doubles)...Reached base safely in nine consecutive plate appearances, 9/11 vs. BOS and 9/12 at BAL, setting a club record...Became the Rays all-time leader in walks on 9/12 at BAL, passing Carlos Peña (373)... Stole the 200th base of his career on 9/27 vs. NYY.

2011 POSTSEASON: Had three doubles in the 2011 ALDS vs. TEX including two in Game 2 off Derek Holland...Is the Rays all-time postseason leader in doubles (6), hits (27) and is tied for the lead in RBI (18)... Swiped his ninth postseason base in Game 3, passing Carl Crawford as the Rays all-time postseason leader.

2010: Became the fifth center fielder in AL history to reach 60 extra-base hits and 40 steals in one season... Joined Ty Cobb (1911-12, 1917), Tris Speaker (1913-14), Rickey Henderson (1986) and Johnny Damon (2000)...He and Carl Crawford were the only major leaguers to do it in 2010 and the first set of teammates to ever do it...Stole 42 bases, tied for fifth in the AL and tied for sixth in the majors...Stole third base a club-record 12 times...His 164 strikeouts were second most in the AL (DET's Austin Jackson, 170)...Led the majors with six bases-loaded walks, most of any player since Carlos Peña's major league-record nine in 2008.

2009: Became the first player since HOU's Jeff Bagwell in 2001 to hit for a cycle and steal home in the same season...On 10/2 vs. NYY became the first Ray to hit for the cycle as he went 5-for-6 with 6 RBI... Reached the cycle in the fifth inning, it was the quickest cycle since COL Mike Lansing did it in four innings on 6/18/00 vs. ARI...Since 1954, no AL player has done it as quickly...Was one of a record eight cycles in the majors in 2009...In the Rays 10-9 win on 7/8 vs. TOR, he stole home when Brian Tallet attempted to pick Carl Crawford off first base...Was his third career steal of home...Made 141 starts, all in CF...his 385 total chances were third among AL center fielders and his team-high six assists were tied for fourth...Stole 42 bases, tied for fourth in the majors and third in the AL...Was AL Player of the Month for June when he batted .324 with 10 2B, 5 HR, 14 SB and 22 RBI in 26 games...Batted .222 (101-for-455) with 6 HR and 33 RBI in all other games...Went 120 AB without a home run to start the season before hitting a walk-off on 5/15 vs. CLE (Luis Vizcaino) to give the Rays an 8-7 win after they trailed 7-0...Spent the first six games of the season on the DL while recovering from offseason shoulder surgery...Was activated on April 13.

2008: Spent his first full season in center field and finished second in the AL with 44 SB behind BOS' Jacoby Ellsbury (50)...Led the Rays with a .383 OBP...Drew a team-high 97 walks, fourth in the AL and still second-most in franchise history to Carlos Peña's 103 in 2007...Became the youngest AL player since Frank Thomas (138-BB) in 1991 to draw that many walks...The only other player that young to do this as a center fielder was Mickey Mantle (1954-55)...Tied for second in the majors with 16 outfield assists...Tied with HOU's Hunter Pence and LAD's Matt Kemp behind BAL's Nick Markakis (17)...On 8/14 at OAK, hit an RBI double in the ninth inning off reliever Brad Ziegler, ending his 39-inning scoreless streak to begin his career, a major league record...Underwent successful surgery to repair the labrum in his left (non-throwing) shoulder on 11/11...The surgery was performed in Birmingham, Ala., by Dr. James Andrews.

2008 POSTSEASON: Hit seven home runs in 16 games, one homer shy of MLB record for a single postseason, held by SF's Barry Bonds (2002), HOU's Carlos Beltran (2004) and TEX's Nelson Cruz (2011)...At 24 years, two months, became the youngest player to hit seven-plus home runs in a postseason...Combined with Longoria (six home runs) to hit 13 HR in the

Bobby Cox — Special Assistant to the General Manager

The 2014 season marks Cox's fourth season in a consulting role for the Braves. In 2011, Cox embarked on a new chapter in his long and storied baseball career, as he assumed the role of consultant for the organization. He closed out his 29-year managerial career in 2010, when the Braves went 91-71 and claimed the first National League Wild Card championship in franchise history.

In July 2014, Cox will be awarded baseball's highest honor as he will be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame, along with fellow managers Tony La Russa and Joe Torre and former players Tom Glavine, Greg Maddux and Frank Thomas.

On September 23, 2009, the Braves announced that Cox had agreed to a contract extension for the 2010 season, and Cox himself announced that he would retire from managing at the conclusion of the 2010 campaign. As part of Cox's contract extension, he was given a five-year consulting agreement, from 2011 to 2015, where he will advise and consult in all areas of Baseball Operations, including the Major League Club, spring training, minor league operations and scouting. In addition, Cox will work with the office of the president on special business projects.

Cox spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2001-3 (.556). Cox won his 2,500th game on September 25, 2010, at Washington. The 2010 campaign was his 15th with 90 or more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons.

Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17) for consecutive winning campaigns.

Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Bobby and his wife Pam reside in Marietta, Ga.

John Hart — Senior Advisor, Baseball Operations

The 2014 season marks John Hart's first with the organization and his first as Senior Advisor, Baseball Operations. Hart joins the organization after spending the previous 12 seasons with the Texas Rangers, including the last eight as a Senior Advisor, following four seasons (2002-05) as the club's general manager.

Hart, 65, has 40-plus years in professional baseball and has twice been honored by The Sporting News as the Major League Executive of the year (1994 and 1995). During his tenure in professional baseball, Hart has spent time as a general manager, special assistant to the general manager, scout, baseball operations department member and field manager.

Before joining the Rangers in November 2001, Hart spent 13 seasons with the Cleveland Indians, including the last 10 as Executive Vice President and General Manager. After not advancing to postseason play since 1954, Cleveland captured six American League Central Division titles in a span of seven seasons (1995-2001), including two American League pennants (1995 and 1997) under Hart's leadership. Hart originally joined the Indians in 1989 as a Special Assignment scout and finished the latter part of that season as the Indians interim Major League field manager.

Hart's first managerial position came in 1982 - his first year in a professional coaching capacity - with Bluefield, the rookie-level affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles. During a six-year managerial career, he was twice named Manager of the Year. Hart spent one season, 1988, as the Orioles Major League third base coach under Cal Ripken, Sr. and Frank Robinson before joining the Indians.

The former catcher began his career in 1969 in the Montreal organization and played three seasons. Following his professional playing career, Hart spent two years as a high school baseball coach in Orlando, Fla.

A Tampa, Fla., native, John played two seasons at Seminole Junior College, earning all-American honors in 1969. He graduated from University of Central Florida in 1973, with degrees in history and physical education.

John and his wife of 44 years, Sandi, have a daughter, Shannon, and two grandchildren, Ila-Hart and Brinleigh, and reside in Windermere, Fla.

Johnny Almaraz — Director of International Scouting & Operations

Johnny Almaraz, in his 24th season of professional baseball, was named the Club's Director of International Scouting and Operations in January of 2008. In his role, he is responsible for overseeing scouting operations outside the United States and Canada. Almaraz is also responsible for supervising all operations at the Braves Dominican Baseball Academy and manages a staff of nearly 20 international scouts.

Almaraz originally joined the Braves organization in December 2006 as the Director of Latin American Operations. Prior to joining the Braves, Almaraz worked in the Cincinnati Reds organization for 16 years in various capacities and is best known for his work as a scout and his dedication to the reinstatement of the Reds presence in Latin America.

Recognized by many as one of the most prolific talent evaluators in baseball, Almaraz originally joined the Reds' organization in 1991 as a scout. During his 16-year tenure, he was credited with signing a number of future major leaguers, including Adam Dunn and B.J. Ryan.

A 14th-round draft pick out of Southwest Texas State University, Almaraz was taken by the Reds in 1988 and pitched two seasons in the minor leagues before shoulder problems ended his professional playing career. Almaraz received his degree in health management from Southwest Texas State University and also attended Arizona Pima College on a baseball scholarship.

Johnny and his wife, Tonya, reside in San Antonio, Texas, with their daughter Cameron and son Jaiden.

Tony DeMacio — Director of Scouting

Tony DeMacio, who is in his 31st season of professional baseball, was named the Director of Scouting in October 2009. DeMacio originally began his career with the Atlanta Braves as an area scout in 1983 and returned for his second stint with the organization in December 2006 as a Special Assistant to the General Manager/Major League Scout.

In his first tenure (1983-90) with the Braves, DeMacio was credited with signing Hall of Fame pitcher and two-time Cy Young Award and 300-game winner Tom Glavine (1984) and No. 1 draft pick, National League MVP and batting champion, Chipper Jones in 1990.

In 2008, DeMacio was honored at baseball's Winter Meetings with a Scout of the Year award, which is given to those who have devoted at least a quarter century to the scouting profession.

Over his 30-plus year career, DeMacio has been a part of five Major League organizations, including the Cleveland Indians (1991-94), Chicago Cubs (1995-98), Baltimore Orioles (1999-2004), Pittsburgh Pirates (2005-06) and Atlanta Braves. While with the Indians, DeMacio was involved in drafts and signings that brought future major leaguers Manny Ramirez, Chad Ogea, Albie Lopez, Jon Nunnally, Paul Shuey, Paul Byrd and Herbert Perry to their organization. With the Cubs, he was involved in the selections of Kerry Wood, Corey Patterson and Jon Garland, and his Orioles draft picks included such players as Erik Bedard, Brad Bergesen, Larry Bigbie, Jeff Fiorentino, Mike Fontenot, Willie Harris, Jim Johnson, Nick Markakis, John Maine, Chris Ray, Brian Roberts and Eli Whiteside.

A native of McKees Rocks, Pa, DeMacio attended Parsons College in Fairfield, Iowa, where he played four years of baseball. Tony, 67, and his wife, Diane, reside in Virginia Beach, Va. He has one daughter, Heather, and one son, Robert.

Ronnie Richardson — Director of Minor League Operations

Ronnie Richardson is in his 11th season with the Braves organization. In September of 2011, Richardson was named the club's Director of Minor League Operations after serving three-plus seasons as the Assistant Director of Player Development. From 2006 to 2008 Richardson was an assistant in the baseball operations department.

Richardson oversees all aspects of minor league operations, including evaluation of the minor league system, roster and statistical analysis, budget responsibilities, international operations, free-agent contract negotiations, implementation of new development programs and the maintenance of existing programs.

Richardson, 32, joined the Braves organization in January 2004 and worked in the corporate partnerships and marketing departments prior to joining the baseball operations staff in 2006.

The Atlanta native graduated from Albany State University with degrees in marketing and management.

Rolando Petit — Assistant Director, Latin American Operations

Rolando Petit, who has been a member of the Braves organization since 1991, was named the Assistant Director of Latin American Operations in January 2008. Petit is responsible for all scouting efforts in Venezuela and is active in the development of players at the Braves Academy.

Petit originally joined the Braves as an international scout and the Venezuelan supervisor, a position he held for eight seasons until he was named an international supervisor in 1999. As a member of the Braves scouting department, Petit has been instrumental in the signing of a number of major league players, including former Brave Martin Prado.

Petit was originally signed by the Atlanta Braves and played one season with the organization in 1988. Rolando and his wife, Mariana, have two children, Rolando Jr. and Roberto, and reside in Venezuela.

Matt Carroll — Special Assistant to the GM, Major League Scout

The 2014 season marks Matt Carroll's fourth in the Braves organization and his fourth as a Special Assistant to the General Manager and Major League Scout.

Carroll spent five seasons, from 2006 to 2010, with the St. Louis Cardinals organization, most recently as the manager of professional scouting in 2010. From 2007-09 he served as the Club's coordinator of baseball operations/professional scouting. Carroll originally joined the Cardinals franchise in 2006 as their coordinator of minor league operations.

Carroll, 32, earned his bachelors degree from Pennsylvania State University and resides in Erdenheim, Pa.

Dave Holliday — Special Assistant to the GM, Major League Scout

Dave Holliday, who is in his second season with the Braves organization and his 25th season of professional baseball, joined the club as a Special Assistant to the General Manager/Major League Scout in November 2012.

Holliday joined the Braves after spending the previous 19 seasons, from 1994 to 2012, as a member of the Colorado Rockies baseball operations department. Most recently Holliday served as a special assistant to the general manager for five years (2008-12), and previous to that he spent 13 seasons as the organization's national cross checker/special assignment scout.

In 2002, Holliday was honored by the Rockies organization with the Herb Hippauf Scouting Award, an honor given to a Rockies scout who exudes honor, class and dedication to their organization, and for continually doing what is in the best interest of the Rockies franchise.

Holliday's professional scouting career began in 1990, when he joined the Pittsburgh Pirates organization as an area supervisor, a position he held through the 1993 season.

In addition to his professional baseball experience, Holliday spent nine years as an assistant baseball coach at Oklahoma State (1977 and 1981-88), two seasons (1979-80) at Yavapai Junior College as an assistant coach, and in 1981 was the head coach at Murray State Junior College.

Dave's brother, Tom Holliday, is the associate head baseball coach at North Carolina State University and he is the uncle of Matt Holliday, the starting left fielder for the St. Louis Cardinals.

A graduate of Uniontown High School in Uniontown, Pa., Dave earned his bachelors degree in physical education and his masters degree in exercise physiology from Grand Canyon University.

Dave and his wife Sonya reside in Bixby, Okla. They have three children, Hailee, Hillary and Heath.

Jose Martinez — Special Assistant to GM, Asst. Dir. International Scouting/Ops

Jose Martinez is in his 20th season as a Special Assistant to the General Manager/ Player Development, and in January 2008, he added the title Assistant Director of International Scouting/Operations.

Martinez, whose professional baseball career dates back to 1960, has 45-plus years of Major League experience in the front office and on the field. His two coaching stints include seven seasons with the Chicago Cubs (1988-94) and eight years with the Kansas City Royals. Martinez joined the Royals coaching staff in 1980 when they won the American League Pennant and remained with the club for eight seasons, including their 1985 World Championship season. Before that, he managed four years in Kansas City's farm system, three with Sarasota (1976 and 1978-79) and one year with Daytona Beach (1977).

Martinez spent 12 years (1960-71) as an infielder in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization, playing for the major league club in 1969 and 1970, and then played three seasons (1972-74) with the Royals Triple-A Omaha team.

Martinez managed winter league baseball in Colombia and South America from 1979 to 1984, winning three championships, and earning three Manager of the Year awards in 1980, 1981 and 1982. He also worked in the Venezuelan winter league, managing at LaGuaira from 1985-87, Barquisimiento in 1988 and Cabimas in 1992. His 1985 LaGuaira team won the Venezuelan championship and finished second in the Caribbean Series.

Jose, 72, resides in Miramar, Fla., with his wife, Amelia.

Jeff Schugel — Special Assistant to the GM, Major League Scout

The 2014 season marks Jeff Schugel's first season with the Braves organization after being named a Special Assistant to the General Manager and Major League Scout in October 2013.

Schugel, who is in his 27th year as a scout and his 31st season overall in professional baseball, spent the previous nine seasons with the Los Angeles Angels, including the last two (2012-13) as a Major League Special Assignment Scout. The seven seasons prior to that, from 2005 to 2011, he served as an Angels Major League Scout.

Prior to his time with the Angels, Schugel worked in various capacities for the Los Angeles Dodgers (2000-04), Colorado Rockies (1993-2000) and Minnesota Twins (1987-91). During his five seasons with the Dodgers, Schugel worked as a Special Assistant to the General Manager, with a focus on international scouting efforts. With Colorado, he served as the Rockies' Director of Professional and International Scouting (1998-99), and as the Rockies' National Cross-Checker for four seasons, from 1995-1998. His professional scouting career began with Minnesota in 1987 as the Twins' Florida Scouting Supervisor before becoming the Club's East Coast Supervisor. During his tenure with Minnesota, he earned two World Series rings in 1987 and 1991.

A native of New Olm, Minn., Schugel and his wife, Tammy, reside in Highlands Ranch, Colo. Their son A.J. is a pitcher in the Diamondbacks system.

Brad Sloan — Special Assistant to the GM, Major League Scout

Brad Sloan is in his second season with the Braves organization. Sloan joined the Braves as a Special Assistant to the General Manager/Major League Scout in November 2012 after spending the previous nine seasons, from 2004 to 2012, as a major league scout with the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim.

Sloan, who has 30-plus years of professional baseball experience, has spent the majority of his career with the San Diego Padres organization. Sloan joined the Padres baseball operations department in 1980 as a Midwest area scout and held various scouting positions during his 23 years of service (1980 to 1992 and 1994 to 2003) with the Club, including Eastern supervisor and national cross checker. In December of 1995, he was named the Padres scouting director, a position he held through the 2000 season. Sloan spent one season,1993, as a scout for the New York Mets.

Sloan attended Quincy University and earned his bachelors degree in business/personal management.

Brad, 57, resides in Brimfield, Ill., with his wife Cindy.

Rick Williams — Special Assistant to the GM, Major League Scout

Rick Williams is in his first season with the Braves organization. He joined the club in November 2013 as a Special Assistant to the General Manager/Pitching Development and Special Assignment.

Williams, who is in his 37th season of professional baseball having spent time as a player, coach, manager, scout and special assistant, joins his fifth organization. He previously worked for the New York Yankees, Tampa Bay Devil Rays, Montreal Expos and Florida Marlins. Williams comes to the Braves from the New York Yankees where he spent the previous seven seasons, from 2007 to 2013, as a Major League scout.

Prior to his tenure with New York, Williams served two separate stints with the Tampa Bay Rays, as he was the Devil Rays first Major League pitching coach for the 1998 and 1999 seasons, and a portion of the 2000 season. In the Rays inaugural season, he guided the pitching staff to the fourth-best ERA (4.35) in the American League, the highest rank of any expansion team. In 2005, Williams rejoined the Rays for two seasons as a special assistant to the general manager.

Williams' coaching career began in 1981 with the Expos organization when he served as pitching coach with the Calgary Expos. He remained in a pitching coach role at various levels in the organization until 1987, when he was promoted to Montreal's minor league pitching coordinator, a position he held until 1992. Williams would later return to the Expos in 2002 working in a scouting capacity through the 2004 season.

In 1993, Williams began his first stint with the Florida Marlins where he worked as a pitching coordinator and pitching coach, including two seasons as the Major League club's assistant pitching coach (1995-96). Following a two-plus year stint with the Rays, Williams returned to the Marlins in 2000, serving as director of player of player development for the 2000 and 2001 campaigns.

Williams was signed as a non-drafted free-agent by the Montreal Expos in 1977 after playing baseball under the guidance of former Major-League manager Eddie Stanky at the University of South Alabama. He played three years of minor league baseball before an arm injury ended his career.

Williams, 57, is the son of former Major League player and Hall of Fame Manager, Dick Williams.

Rick and his wife Susanne make their home in Tampa, Fla. They have two children, Marissa and Ricky.

Jeff Wren — Special Assistant to the GM, Major League Scout

Jeff Wren is in his seventh season as a Special Assistant to the General Manager/ Major League Scout. In 20-plus seasons of professional baseball, Wren has been a member of seven different major league organizations.

From 2001 to 2003, Wren served as the Florida/Georgia scouting supervisor for the Philadelphia Phillies. Following his stint with the Phillies, and previous to his time with Atlanta, Wren worked for four years in management and consulting for e-commerce.

Wren was the Southeastern scouting supervisor for the Texas Rangers from 1999 to 2001, and previous to that, he spent two years as the international scouting coordinator for the Baltimore Orioles. From 1990 to 1997, Wren spent eight seasons with the Florida Marlins as the Florida/Georgia scouting supervisor.

Wren's professional baseball career began in 1986 as a draft intern with the Montreal Expos. Following a two-year stint with the Major League Baseball Scouting Bureau (1988-89), he returned to the Expos in 1989 for two seasons as the Mid-Atlantic scouting supervisor.

Wren earned his degree in business administration in 1987 from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Va., where he also played four years of collegiate baseball under the direction of former Major Leaguers Al Worthington and Bobby Richardson.

Wren and his wife, Stephanie, and their children, Kaitlin, Kayley and Joshua, reside in Senoia, Ga.

2014 Minor League Personnel

Lee Elia — Special Assistant to Player Development

Lee Elia, who has spent more than 50 years in professional baseball as a player, coach and manager, will serve his third season as Special Assistant to Player Development in 2014. In 2011, Elia's first season with the Braves organization, he served as a Special Assistant to General Manager Frank Wren and as a Major and Minor League Instructor.

Prior to joining the Braves, Elia was a special assistant to the general manager for the Los Angeles Dodgers for two seasons (2009-10). Previous to his stint with the Dodgers, Elia was a member of the Seattle Mariners organization, working as a special assistant to the manager before taking over as the Club's hitting coach in June 2008. Two weeks later, he was promoted to bench coach for the remainder of the 2008 season, a position he had previously held with Seattle from 1993 to 1997.

Elia owns four years of major league managerial experience as he piloted the Cubs from 1982 to 1983 and the Phillies from 1987 to 1988. In addition, he served as a coach for the Phillies, Yankees, Blue Jays, Devil Rays, and Orioles during his career.

A former infielder, Elia played for the Chicago While Sox and Chicago Cubs in 1966 and 1968, respectively. The Philadelphia native attended the University of Delaware and was signed by his hometown Phillies in 1958 as an amateur free agent. He made his Major League debut on April 23, 1966 and played all but two of his 77 big-league games at shortstop. He was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in 2000.

Elia, 76, and his wife Priscilla have two daughters, Tana and Ashley, and reside in Odessa, Fla.

Dave Bialas — Minor League Field Coordinator

Dave Bialas, a 40-plus-year veteran of professional baseball, including 33 years in a coaching role, is in his second season with the Braves organization. Bialas joined the Club from the Chicago Cubs organization during the 2013 offseason, where he spent 18 seasons, from 1995 to 2012, in various capacities. Most recently Bialas skippered Chicago's Triple-A Club, the Iowa Cubs, during the 2012 season.

Bialas brings with him a wealth of experience, as he served as the Cubs field coordinator for 10 years, from 2002 to 2011. In 2002, Bialas opened the campaign as the field coordinator before spending the second half of the season as the Cubs third base coach under interim manager Bruce Kimm.

Bialas also owns 14 seasons of managerial experience at the minor league level, compiling a 965-968 (.499) career managerial record, while leading his teams to six league championship series. Bialas managed his first club in 1982 as a player/manager at Springfield, Single-A affiliate of the St. Louis Cardinals, and remained in a managerial role within the Cardinals organization through the 1992 season. Previous to his role in 2012, his most recent managerial experience came during the 2000 and 2001 seasons, when he skippered the Double-A West Tennessee Smokies.

Bialas has twice been honored as Manager of the Year, winning his first award in 1987 when he led Single-A St. Petersburg to the Florida State League title, and again in 2000 after guiding the West Tennessee Smokies (AA) to the Southern League title.

In addition, Bialas has seven years of experience at the major league level, all spent as a bullpen coach. From 1995 to 1999, he was the bullpen coach for the Chicago Cubs. He held the same role for two seasons, 1993 and 1994, with the San Diego Padres.

A fourth-round draft pick in 1972 by the St. Louis Cardinals, Bialas spent his professional baseball career as an outfielder in the Cardinals farm system from 1972 to 1982, appearing in 1,019 minor league games.

Bialas, 60, and his wife Bridget reside in Madeira, Fla. They have one son, Jacob, and Dave has one daughter, Brittany.

Rich Dubee — Minor League Pitching Coordinator

The 2014 campaign marks Rich Dubee's first season with the Braves organization after spending the previous 12 seasons (2001-2012) with the Philadelphia Phillies, including the last nine seasons as the organization's Major League pitching coach. Dubee's nine seasons at the helm of the Philadelphia pitching staff tied him for the longest consecutive tenure as the Phillies pitching coach with Ray Rippelmeyer and Cy Perkins.

This will be Dubee's second appointment as a minor league pitching coordinator, as he previously served in the same role with the Florida Marlins from 1995 to 1997. In his role, Dubee's primary responsibility is to oversee the progress and development of Braves minor league pitchers at all levels.

The Phillies pitching staff was a stalwart atop the Major League leaders under Dubee's guidance, consistently performing at or on top of the league's statistical leaderboard. His 2012 starting staff led the majors in innings pitched (1,033.0) and strikeouts (918), while issuing the fewest walks (231), despite injuries to aces Roy Halladay and Cliff Lee. In 2011, the Phillies led the majors in ERA (3.02), complete games (18), shutouts (21), strikeout/walk ratio (3.22), fewest baserunners/9.0 IP (10.79), fewest pitches/inning (15.4) and quality starts (108). They finished third in strikeouts (1,299), while allowing the fewest walks (404) and second-fewest home runs (120). Dubee's pitchers performed again in 2010, leading the major leagues in shutouts (21) and complete games (14). The 21 in shutouts in 2010 were the most by a Philadelphia staff since 1917 (22).

The Philadelphia bullpen also saw dominance during Dubee's tenure, posting a National- League-leading 3.22 ERA in 2008 and a 3.79 ERA in 2006, the third-best mark in the National League.

Dubee joined the Phillies organization in 2002 and spent three seasons as a minor league pitching coach, including a two-year stint with Clearwater (A) and a one-year (2004) stint with Scranton/Wilkes-Barre (AAA), before joining the major league club in November 2004.

Prior to Dubee's tenure with Philadelphia, he worked was a part of three other major league organizations, including the Florida Marlins (1994-2001), the Kansas City Royals (1982-1990) and the Montreal Expos (1991-93). While with the Marlins, Dubee spent time as the major league pitching coach from 1998 to 2001, their minor league pitching coordinator from 1995 to 1997, and the pitching coach for Edmonton (AAA) in 1994. From 1991 to 1993, Dubee was a minor league pitching coach for the Expos organization, including stops at Rockford (A, 1991), Indianapolis (AAA, 1992) and West Palm Beach (A, 1993). Dubee's professional coaching career began with the Royals and over a nine-year span, worked as a pitching coach (Jacksonville, 1982; Memphis, 1986-87; Omaha, 1985, 1988-90) and minor league roving pitching instructor (1983-84).

Drafted by Kansas City in the third round of the 1976 June free-agent draft out of Bridgewater-Raynham High School in Massachusetts, the former right-hander pitched six years in the Royals system, going 45-49 with a 4.07 ERA and 26 complete games.

Dubee and his wife Maureen reside in Sarasota, Fla. They have one daughter, Megan, and a son, Michael, who pitched for seven seasons (2006-12) in the minor leagues for five different organizations after being drafted by the Phillies in the 18th round of the 2006 free agent draft.

Ronnie Ortegon — Minor League Hitting Coordinator

The 2014 campaign marks Ronnie Ortegon's first season with the Braves organization. Ortegon joins the organization as the Braves minor league hitting coordinator after spending the previous seven seasons in the Cincinnati Reds organization.

As the minor league hitting coordinator, Ortegon is responsible for developing the hitting program that is implemented by all Braves affiliates, as well as evaluating the progress of all minor league hitters in the organization.

During the 2013 season, Ortegon served as the Reds assistant hitting coach, becoming the first coach to hold that title with their organization. Ortegon originally joined the Reds in 2006 and spent seven seasons (2006-12) as the organization's minor league hitting coordinator.

Prior to his time with the Reds, Ortegon had a two-year stint in the Texas Rangers organization as a coach with their Double-A affiliate Frisco, from 2005 to 2006. Ortegon's professional coaching career began in 2002 with the Philadelphia Phillies organization, when he managed Class A Batavia of the New York-Penn League. In 2003, he was a coach on the Reading Phillies staff, and in 2004 he was a member of the Phillies Gulf Coast League coaching staff.

The former infielder was signed by the California Angels as a non-drafted free agent to a minor league contract in September 1988 and played professionally for two seasons. Prior to his professional career, Ortegon played baseball at Lubbock (TX) Christian University and Grand Canyon (AZ) University. In 1993, he graduated from Dallas (TX) Baptist University with a bachelor's degree in physical education. From 1994 to 2001, he spent eight seasons as the head baseball coach at Forney (TX) High School.

Ronnie and wife Gina live in Lakeway, TX, with their daughters Elena Nichole, Erika Grace and Ana Maerose.

Joe Breeden — Minor League Roving Catching Instructor

Joe Breeden is in his eighth season as the Braves minor league roving catching instructor. Breeden is responsible for implementing the organization's catching philosophy throughout the Braves minor league farm system.

Over his 25-plus year coaching career, Breeden has spent time with the Cincinnati, Florida, Kansas City, New York (AL), and Toronto organizations. Prior to joining the Braves in 2007, Breeden had a one-year stint as the Reds minor league catching coordinator, and previous to that he was a member of the Yankees organization for three seasons (2002-03 and 2005). In 2005, Breeden managed the Club's Single-A team (Tampa), and he was the roving catching and hitting instructor from 2002 to 2003. Between stints with New York, Breeden served as the Blue Jays bench coach for the 2004 season.

From 1992 to 2001 Breeden was a member of the Marlins organization. During his 10-year span with Florida, Breeden served as a catching coordinator for five-plus seasons (1992-95 and 1997-98), and was a member of the Club's Major League coaching staff for five seasons (1995-96 and 1999-2001), including three as the Major League bench coach (1996 and 1999-2001). In four seasons with the Royals, from 1988 to 1991, Breeden was a hitting coach with their Double-A affiliate (Memphis; 1989) and managed at Class A Appleton (1990-91). In 1988 Breeden spent his only season as manager of the Virginia Generals of the Carolina League.

The former catcher signed as a non-drafted free agent with Montreal in 1979 and played two seasons in their farm system. Following his playing career, Breeden coached in the college ranks as an assistant coach at Virginia Commonwealth University (1983-84) and the head coach at the College of William and Mary from 1985 to 1988.

Breeden and his wife, Deirdre, reside in Melbourne, Fla. They have two daughters, Alex, who is a junior at the University of South Alabama, and Ana, who is a freshman at Florida State University.

Luis Lopez — Minor League Roving Infield Instructor

The 2014 campaign is Luis Lopez's third with the Atlanta Braves and his third as the minor league roving infield instructor. In his position, Lopez is responsible for instructing and working with all infielders in the Atlanta farm system.

Lopez comes to the Braves from the Boston Red Sox, where he served four seasons (2008-11) as a hitting coach, including two years (2010-11) with the organization's Single-A affiliate Greenville Drive, and previous to that the Lowell Spinners (R) from 2008 to 2009.

The former infielder retired from professional baseball in August of 2006 and worked as an infield coordinator at the Puerto Rico Baseball Academy in Gurabo, Puerto Rico, before his first coaching position in 2008. Lopez was signed by the San Diego Padres as a non-drafted free agent in 1987 and spent 11 major league seasons with the Padres (1993-94 and 1996), New York Mets (1997-99), Milwaukee Brewers (2000-02), Baltimore Orioles (2002-04) and the Cincinnati Reds (2005).

Luis and his wife, Militza Candelas, reside in Cidra, PR, with their children, Gabriella Nicole, Luis Francisco, Monica Sophia, and Fernando Jose.

Bobby Mitchell — Minor League Roving OF/Baserunning Instructor

Bobby Mitchell is in his first season in the Braves organization. Mitchell joins the Braves after spending the previous two seasons (2012-13) managing in the Chicago Cubs farm system, including 2012 when he guided Rookie-level Mesa to a 37-19 record and a playoff berth.

Prior to his stint with the Cubs, Mitchell served nine years (2003-11) in the Angels organization, including five seasons as a minor league manager. From 2006 to 2007, he managed Single-A Rancho Cucamonga. In 2008, he advanced to Triple-A Salt Lake, where he remained through the 2010 season. In his first season managing Salt Lake, he led the Bees to an 84-60 mark and a first place finish in the Northern Division, including an impressive 23-2 record in April. In 2011, he was appointed as the Angels roving outfield, baserunning and bunting coordinator, a role he had previously held in the organization from 2003-05.

From 1992 through 2002, Mitchell served as the roving outfield/baserunning coach for the Boston Red Sox (1997-2002), San Diego (1995-96) and Montreal (1992-94).

Originally drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers in in seventh round of the 1997 draft, Mitchell played four seasons in the majors with Los Angeles, including the 1981 World Series winning team, and two with the Minnesota Twins (1982-83). Mitchell attended the University of Southern California from 1974-77 and was a member of the 1974 NCAA Championship squad under legendary coach Rod Dedeaux. He also played two seasons with the U.S. National Team (1974 and 1976).

Mitchell and his wife Kim have five children: Carrie, Ian, Ryan, Jordan and Myles.

Marc Oceguera — Minor League Physical Therapist

Marc Oceguera is in his first season with the Braves organization as their minor league physical therapist. Prior to joining the Braves, Oceguera spent three years (2011-13) as a physical therapist with the 7th Special Forces Group, United States Army.

Oceguera spent three (2008-10) seasons as the Pittsburgh Pirates Rehabilitation Coordinator after spending three years (2006-08) working as a physical therapist for Cirque du Soleil.

Oceguera, 41, is a board certified physical therapist in Sports and Orthopedics, and is a certified strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He holds a Manual Therapist certification from the University of St. Augustine, and in 2001, Oceguera graduated from California State University (Bakersfield) with a degree in biology. He received his master's degree in Occupational Therapy and a Doctorate in Physical Therapy from the University of St. Augustine in 2006. In 2005, he served as an intern with ASMI/Champions Sports Medicine and he is currently pursuing his fellowship in manual therapy from The American Academy of Orthopaedic Manual Physical Therapists.

Born in San Pablo, Calif., Oceguera resides in Orlando, Fla.

Darren Holmes — Biomechanics Pitching Consultant

The 2014 season marks Darren Holmes first as a consultant in the Braves organization. In his role, he will be assisting the Braves farm system with the development of their minor league pitchers through biomechanic pitching analysis, which will be performed with each minor league club.

Holmes currently serves as the Director of Sports Performance at the Acceleration Sports Institute located in Greenville, S.C., a position he has held for the last eight years (since 2005). As the director, he is responsible for overseeing the training of Olympic, professional, collegiate and high school athletes, with one of his main focuses on researching the biomechanics of pitching.

The former right-handed pitcher was a Colorado Rockies 16th round draft pick in the 1984 free agent draft out of T.C. Roberson High School (Asheville, N.C.). He pitched 20 seasons professionally, including 13 at the Major League level and his final two (2002-03) with the Braves.

Holmes and his wife, Kathy, reside in Arden, N.C., with their four children: Courtney, Hayleigh, Branson and Brentley.

2013 Season Recap

International League; South Division, 60-84, 4th place, -27.0

The Gwinnett Braves won each of their first four contests of the 2013 season and maintained a 12-11 (.522) record heading into the final week of April. A 14-game skid, however, started a trend that wouldn't be reversed as the G-Braves slumped to a 41-57 (.418) record at the All-Star Break, 21 games out of first place. After the break, Gwinnett went 19-27 (.413) to finish fourth in the IL's Southern Division and 14th in the league overall. The 60 wins marked the fewest by an Atlanta Triple-A club since Richmond went 57-86 (.399) in 2006.

A number of bright spots flashed in the Gwinnett lineup despite the overall record, including International League All-Stars 1B Ernesto Mejia and OF Joey Terdoslavich. Coming off a 2012 season that saw him earn IL Rookie of the Year honors, Mejia tallied a league-leading 83 RBI, while finishing second in the IL in homers with 28 and tied for third in doubles with 35. Terdoslavich was named to the 2013 Sirius XM All-Star Futures Game, but was unable to play due to a promotion to Atlanta on 7/4. At the time of his call-up, Terdoslavich lead the IL in hits and extra-base knocks (102 and 43, respectively) and his good work earned him International League Postseason All-Star honors and Gwinnett's Player of the Year award from the organization.

Fourteen non-MLB rehab members from Gwinnett spent time in Atlanta in 2013, including five members of the G-Braves who made their Major League debuts. Among these was OF Todd Cunningham, who entered 2013 as Atlanta's 12th-best prospect by Baseball America. Cunningham tallied 113 hits in Gwinnett, good for second on the team, hitting .265 (113-for-427). His .265 mark was tops on the Club among those who played in more than 100 games.

On the mound for Gwinnett, LHP Yohan Flande garnered IL Pitcher of the Week honors after going 2-0 with a 1.59 ERA (3 ER/17.0 IP) in two starts during the week of 7/29-8/4. Yohan ended the year with a 4.18 ERA (61 ER/131.1 IP) and a team-high nine wins. Complementing the southpaw was RHP Omar Poveda, who struck out 133 batters, marking the second-highest amount in the IL.

2014 Coaching Staff

Manager - Brian Snitker

After spending seven consecutive seasons as the Major League club's third base coach, Brian Snitker returns to a managerial role with the club's Triple-A Gwinnett Braves for the 2014 season.

From 2007 to 2013, Snitker worked as the Braves third base coach in his third stint with the major league coaching staff. His two previous stints with the major league staff came as bullpen coach in 1985 and again from 1988 to 1990.

Snitker managed at Triple-A Richmond in 2006 after spending four seasons as the skipper of the Club's Double-A affiliate in Greenville (2002-04) and Mississippi (2005).

Snitker, 56, joined the organization as a player in 1977 and has been with the Braves in a variety of roles ever since. The former catcher spent four seasons as a player. He retired at the conclusion of the 1980 season and began his coaching career as a roving instructor for the Braves in 1981. Snitker took his first managerial job in 1982, with Anderson of the South Atlantic League.

Following a three-year stint with the Major League Club, he returned to minor league coaching in 1991 and moved back into managing in 1992 with Macon. He coached in the Atlanta system from 1993 to '95, and again served as a minor league manager from 1996 to 2006.

In his 17 seasons as a manager, he compiled an overall record of 1,140-1,145 (.499). Five of his clubs advanced to postseason play, and he won two league championships (back-to-back titles with Myrtle Beach in 1999-2000) and two league Manager of the Year Awards (also in the Carolina League in 1999-2000).

An Illinois native, Snitker played college baseball at the University of New Orleans before signing with the Braves as a non-drafted free agent in 1977. Snitker and his wife Veronica reside in Lilburn, Ga., and have two children, Erin and Troy. Troy, a catcher in the Royals farm system, was drafted by Atlanta in the 19th round of the 2011 draft.

Pitching Coach - Marty Reed

Marty Reed is in his fourth season as the Gwinnett Braves pitching coach and his sixth season overall with the Braves organization. He spent his first two years (2009-10) as the organization's Double-A Mississippi Braves pitching coach.

In 2011, under Reed's direction, the G-Braves' pitching staff ERA of 3.33 and their 1,223 strikeouts led the International League, while their 11 shutouts ranked third.

Previous to joining the organization, Reed spent nine years in the Los Angeles Dodgers farm system in a variety of capacities including minor league pitching coordinator (2006-08) and pitching coach for their Single-A (Vero Beach; 2005 and 2000-01) and Double-A teams (Jacksonville; 2002-04). Reed's professional coaching career began in 1999 at the Dodgers rookie-level Great Falls.

Reed was the head coach of Pfeiffer University from 1996 to 1999, and previous to that he was a member of the University of Tampa coaching staff for seven seasons (1990-96) that included back-to-back NCAA Division II championships (1992-93).

The former 1984 California Angels draft pick out of the University of Tampa pitched five seasons in their system, compiling a 49-36 record. Reed graduated from the University of Tampa with a degree in physical education.

Reed, 52, resides in Albemarle, NC.

Hitting Coach - Garey Ingram

Garey Ingram is in his fifth season with the Braves organization and is serving his first appointment as hitting coach with the Triple-A Braves after spending the previous four seasons with the Mississippi (AA) club.

Prior to joining the Braves, Ingram served as hitting coach in 2009 with San Francisco's Double-A affiliate Connecticut Defenders.

From 2002 to 2008 Ingram spent seven seasons as a minor league hitting coach in the Los Angeles Dodgers system. He was the hitting coach for two years at Class-A Great Lakes and coached the Columbus/South Georgia Waves from 2003 to 2006.

Ingram retired from his 14-year professional playing career in 2002 and began his coaching career that same season with the Gulf Coast League Dodgers. Ingram's playing days included parts of three Major League seasons with Los Angeles-NL (1994-95, '97). He made history on May 19, 1994, when, as pinch-hitter, he became the 67th Major League player to homer in his first plate appearance, doing so at Denver's Mile High Stadium.

The former infielder/outfielder was drafted by the Dodgers out of Middle Georgia Junior College in June 1989. He resides in Columbus, Ga.

Trainer - Mike Graus

Mike Graus is in his 22nd season with the Braves organization and his ninth with the Triple-A club. In 2011, with Gwinnett, Graus was selected to the International League All-Star team.

Prior to joining the Class-AAA club in 2006 (Richmond), Graus served as the athletic trainer for the organization's Double-A affiliate for two seasons. Graus' first training position was held with the Idaho Falls Braves in 1993 and since then he has had assignments in Danville, Eugene, Macon, Myrtle Beach, Greenville and Mississippi.

In addition to his training duties with the Braves, Graus is also the Minor League Head Athletic Trainer and worked Major League spring training in 1998, 2001, 2003 and 2005. He has also served as a trainer in the Instructional League as well as the Venezuelan Winter League and Arizona Fall League.

Graus earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training from the University of Nebraska in 1991 and his master's degree in exercise physiology from the University of Alabama at Birmingham in 1993. Mike, his wife, Erica, and their daughters, Ashton and Avery, reside in Marietta, Ga.

2013 Season Recap

Southern League; South Division: Overall: 76-63, 2nd Place, -3.0

First Half: 38-32, 2nd Place, -1.5; Second Half: 38-31, 3rd Place, -1.5

Mississippi underwent a 14-win improvement from 2012 to 2013, finishing the '13 campaign with a 76-63 record and recording the most regular-season wins in Mississippi Braves history in the process. The M-Braves played better than .500 baseball in both "halves" of the season, tallying a 38-32 record (.543) prior to the All-Star Break before going 38-31 (.550) in the season's final months. Mississippi clinched a spot in the postseason courtesy of an 11-inning victory on the final day of the regular season, the Club's first playoff berth since winning the Southern League championship in 2008. The M-Braves were bounced in the playoff's opening round by Mobile (ARI), three games to one.

Mississippi sent six players to the Southern League All-Star game, including C Christian Bethancourt, INF Jaime Pedroza, INF Edward Salcedo, OF Jose Martinez, RHP Mark Lamm and RHP Gus Schlosser. Bethancourt also logged SL Postseason All-Star honors.

Schlosser served as the ace of the pitching staff, going 7-6 with a 2.39 ERA (36 ER/135.1 IP) over 25 starts and earning SL Pitcher of the Week honors in the first week of May. After earning Lynchburg's Pitcher of the Year award in 2012, Schlosser was tabbed with the same distinction with Mississippi in 2013. LHP Ian Thomas split time between the starting rotation and the bullpen and ended the season making 13 starts, going 4-5 with a 2.94 ERA (22 ER/67.1 IP). He logged a team-high 123 strikeouts, good for sixth in the SL.

2B Tommy La Stella had a historic season at the plate, registering a 23-game hitting streak from 7/5 to 8/5 and setting the M-Braves franchise record. He led the team with a .343 average (97-for-283) while pitching in 21 doubles, four homers and 41 RBI, earning the organizational Player of the Year honors for Mississippi. C Christian Bethancourt, Atlanta's third-best prospect entering 2013, played in 90 games for the M-Braves, tallying a career-high 12 homers and 45 RBI, hitting at a .277 clip (99-for-358).

2014 Coaching Staff

Manager - Aaron Holbert

Aaron Holbert returns to manage the Double-A Mississippi Braves in his third season with the Braves organization. Holbert joined the organization from the Cleveland Indians, where he spent four seasons (2008-11) as a manger in their farm system.

In 2013, Holbert guided the M-Braves to a 76-63 record and their first postseason appearance since the club's championship season in 2008.

Holbert, who skippered three of his four teams to the playoffs from 2008 to 2011, was at the helm for the Kinston Indians (A) for the 2010 and 2011 seasons, and from 2008 to 2009 he managed the Lake County Captains (A).

In 2011, Holbert garnered Carolina League Manager of the Year honors after leading his team to the playoffs for the second consecutive season, and in 2008 he was selected to manage the Northern Division in the South Atlantic League All-Star Game.

Holbert's coaching career began in 2006 in the Cincinnati Reds organization as a coach for the Gulf Coast League Reds and he spent the 2007 season as a coach for the rookie-league Billings Mustangs (Reds affiliate).

During the 2012 offseason, Holbert managed the Phoenix Desert Dogs of the Arizona Fall League.

Holbert was the Cardinals number one draft selection, the 18th pick overall and second overall shortstop selected, in the 1990 June free agent draft. He played professionally for 17 seasons with eight different organizations (St. Louis, Seattle, Tampa Bay, Boston, Florida, Toronto, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati).

Holbert, 41, and his wife Jacqueline, reside in Tampa, Fla.

Pitching Coach - Dennis Lewallyn

Dennis Lewallyn completed his first season with the Braves organization as the Mississippi Braves Pitching Coach in 2013. Lewallyn, who has spent over 44 years in professional baseball as a player and a coach, came to the organization from the Chicago Cubs where he spent the previous six seasons, including the 2011 and 2012 seasons as their minor league pitching coordinator.

From 2007 to 2010, Lewallyn served as the Cubs' Double-A pitching coach and under his guidance his pitching staff helped lead the Tennessee Smokies to consecutive Southern League Championship appearances in 2009 and 2010.

Prior to joining Chicago's farm system, Lewallyn spent 11 years (1996-2006) working with the Arizona Diamondbacks minor league operations, including four seasons, from 2002 to 2006, as the D-backs minor league pitching coordinator. During the second half of the 2004 season, Lewallyn joined the D-backs major league coaching staff as the bullpen coach. Lewallyn's first six seasons with the D-backs were spent as a pitching coach for Lethbridge (R, 1996), South Bend (A, 1997), High Desert (A, 1998) and El Paso (AA, 1999-2001). Lewallyn originally joined the D-backs when the team was formed through expansion in 1996 as the pitching coach for the Lethbridge Black Diamonds.

Lewallyn's coaching career began in 1983 with the Los Angeles Dodgers and he remained with the organization in various pitching coach capacities for 13 seasons, through the 1995 season.

A former first-round draft selection (eighth selection overall) by the Los Angeles Dodgers, Lewallyn pitched for three teams (Los Angeles, 1975-79; Texas, 1980; Cleveland, 1981-82) over the course of an eight-year professional career.

Dennis and his wife Kathy reside in Pensacola, Fla. They have two children, David and Brian.

Hitting Coach - Jamie Dismuke

In his sixth season with the Braves organization, Jamie Dismuke will serve his first campaign as the Mississippi Braves hitting coach. Dismuke joined the Braves organization in 2009 and spent his first five seasons as the Gwinnett (AAA) Braves hitting coach.

Prior to joining the Braves, Dismuke spent nine seasons in the Cincinnati Reds organization as their Double-A (Chattanooga) hitting coach from 2004 to 2008 and for the final 16 games of the 2008 season, he was named the Lookouts interim manager. From 2001 to 2003, he was the Club's Class-A hitting coach at three different locations (Mudville, 2001; Stockton, 2002; Potomac, 2003).

In 2006, Dismuke coached the Phoenix Desert Dogs of the Arizona Fall League, and he was also a member of the coaching staff for the league's inaugural Rising Stars Showcase. Dismuke's coaching career began in 1999 when he was assigned to Chattanooga as a player-coach before joining the staff full-time in 2000.

Originally selected by Cincinnati in the 12th round of the 1989 June draft, the former first baseman played nine minor league seasons, including eight with the Reds.

Dismuke, 44, resides in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Trainer - Ricky Alcantara

Ricky Alcantara is in his seventh season as the Mississippi Braves trainer. Prior to joining the Mississippi staff in 2008, Ricky worked in the same capacity for two seasons at Myrtle Beach (2006-07) and previous to that he was the Gulf Coast League Braves head trainer from 2003 to 2004.

During the 2008 offseason, Alcantara served as a trainer for the Sharks of the Hawaii Winter Baseball League. Alcantara attended Major League spring training in 2006, 2011 and 2013, and during the 2007 winter he worked as a trainer in the Venezuelan Winter League for the Leones de Caracas. During the 2003 season, in addition to his duties as the GCL head trainer, Alcantara served as an intern for the Braves Instructional League and also worked a Colorado Rockies homestand that year.

A 2003 graduate of Texas State University in San Marcos, Alcantara was a member of the TSU athletic training staff and earned a bachelor's degree in athletic training. Alcantara resides in Dallas, Texas.

2013 Season Recap

Carolina League; Northern Division: Overall: 69-70, 2nd Place, -15.0

First Half: 36-33, 2nd Place, -6.0; Second Half: 33-37, 2nd Place, -9.0

The 2012 Mills Cup Champions got a chance to defend their title via a 69-70 record and a wild-card berth into the 2013 Carolina League playoffs. Lynchburg navigated second place finishes in the Northern Division in both the first and second "halves" of the season, tallying a 36-33 record (.522) prior to the All-Star break and a 33-37 mark (.471) after it. The Hillcats' season ended in the postseason's first round, falling to Potomac (WSH) two games to none.

OFs Robby Hefflinger and David Rohm joined LHP Ronan Pacheco as Carolina League All-Stars, with Hefflinger taking home both Cal/Car League Home Run Derby Champion and Cal/Car League All-Star Game MVP awards, as well as Lynchburg's Player of the Year distinction. Hefflinger and Rohm each followed up their first-half All-Star selections with Postseason All-Star honors.

Rohm hit .302 (150-for-496) on the season, good for the fourth-best average in the league and the second-most hits. The .302 mark was tops among all Braves farmhands with over 375 at-bats on the season. Hefflinger played 74 games with the Hillcats before earning a promotion to Double-A Mississippi, smacking 21 home runs in Lynchburg, which still ranked second in the league at the season's end. INF Kyle Kubitza joined Rohm and Hefflinger as the team's offensive horses, hitting .260 (113-for-435) with 12 homers and 57 RBI, twice being named CL Player of the Week.

RHP Williams Perez was promoted to Lynchburg in mid-July after starting the year in Rome and toed the rubber nine times for the Hillcats, going 6-2 with a 2.62 ERA (16 ER/55.0 IP), which earned him the Lynchburg Pitcher of the Year award. RHPs Jarrett Miller and Greg Ross each compiled nine wins, splitting the team lead and ranking tied for seventh in the league. RHP Nate Hyatt pitched in a CL-high 43 games, logging 12 saves along the way, second most in the league.

2014 Coaching Staff

Manager - Luis Salazar

Luis Salazar is in his fourth season with the Braves organization and his 12th as a minor league manager. Salazar, who has 15-plus years of major league coaching experience, joined the organization in 2011 from the Los Angeles Dodgers, where he spent three seasons (2007-09) as their Double-A hitting coach.

In 2013, Salazar led the Hillcats to a playoff berth, and in 2012, his club claimed the Carolina League title, winning the Mill Cup Championship.

In 2006, Salazar managed the Vero Beach Dodgers (Single-A) and from 2002 to 2005, he was the skipper of the Gulf Coast League Dodgers.

Previous to joining the Dodgers organization, Salazar spent seven seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers, including one year as the Brewers first base coach. Salazar's coaching career began with Chandler in the rookie-level Arizona League in 1995 and then spent two seasons as manager of Single-A Beloit in 1996 and 1997. He was the Brewers' Triple-A hitting coach at Louisville in 1998 and 1999 and Indianapolis in 2000.

A 13-year major league veteran, Salazar played for the San Diego Padres, Chicago White Sox, Detroit Tigers and Chicago Cubs.

The Venezuelan native and his wife, Graciela, reside in Boca Raton, Fla. They have two children, son Carlos and daughter Viviana.

Pitching Coach - Derrick Lewis

The 2014 campaign marks Derrick Lewis' first as pitching coach with the Lynchburg Hillcats and his 11th season overall in the Braves organization.

Since Lewis originally joined the organization in 2004, he has served in the same capacity over his 10 seasons at three different levels, including three seasons (2011-13) with the Class-A Rome Braves, three seasons (2008-10) with the rookie-level Danville Braves, and four seasons (2004-07) with the Gulf Coast League Braves.

In 2009, Lewis' Danville Braves pitching staff ranked first in the Appalachian League with a 3.05 ERA, 604.2 innings pitched and 26 saves and was second with 582 strikeouts.

Lewis' affiliation with the Braves dates back to 1997 when Atlanta selected him in the 20th round of the June free agent draft. He spent six years (1997-2003) as a pitcher in the Braves minor league system and was selected by the Braves organization as the Myrtle Beach Pitcher of the Year in 1999 when he finished second in the Carolina League in ERA. For his career, he posted a 31-37 record with a 4.04 ERA in 161 minor league games.

Derrick and his wife, Roslyn, reside in Charlotte, N.C., with their daughter Skye.

Hitting Coach - John Moses

John Moses is in his second season as the Lynchburg Hillcats hitting coach and his second season with the Braves organization. Moses, who has over 30 years of baseball experience, joined the organization in December 2012 after spending the 2011 season as hitting coach for the Houston Astros Double-A affiliate Corpus Christi Hooks.

In his only season in the Astros organization, Moses was honored as the 2011 Mike Coolbaugh Texas League Coach of the Year.

Previous to his stint with Houston, Moses served three seasons (2008-10) as the hitting coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers Triple-A affiliate, the Las Vegas 51s in 2008, and the Albuquerque Isotopes during the 2009 to 2010 seasons. The 2010 Isotopes, under Moses' direction, batted at a Texas-League-leading .302 clip, while also collecting a league-leading 1,533 hits and scoring 871 runs.

From 2005 to 2007, Moses held coaching positions with two major league clubs, which included time as a first base coach with the Seattle Mariners (2007), and first base coach (2006) and bench coach (2005) with Cincinnati.

From 1994 to 2004, Moses spent 11 years as a part of the Seattle Mariners farm system, holding the position of administrative coach (1994-98), advance scout (1999), major league first base coach (2000-03) and baserunning coordinator (2004).

The former outfielder played for three different Major League clubs spanning 11 seasons, including time with Seattle (1982-87, 1992), Minnesota (1988-90) and Detroit (1991).

Moses, 56, and his wife Sandra reside in Scottsdale, Arizona. They have two children: Brett and Brock.

Trainer - Joe Toenjes

Joe Toenjes is in his fifth season as an athletic trainer in the Braves organization and his second with the Lynchburg Hillcats. He joined the Hillcats staff for the 2013 season from the Gulf Coast League Braves where he spent 2011 and 2012 seasons in the same capacity. In 2010 he was a part-time trainer for the GCL Braves. In 2014, Toenjes worked with the Major League club during spring training.

A graduate of the University of Central Florida, Toenjes served as the head athletic trainer at Newberry College (South Carolina) from 2008 to 2010 where he worked with the football and baseball teams. During that same time, Toenjes also worked with student-athletes at Progressive Physical Therapy. In 2007, he served as the head athletic trainer at Rockledge High School in Rockledge, Fla.

Joe resides in Jacksonville, Fla., with his wife, Dierdre and their two children, Christopher and Kaleigh.

2013 Record	73-66, 4th (-10.0)

2013 Season Recap

South Atlantic League; Southern Division, 73-66, 4th Place, -10.0

First Half: 36-33, 5th Place, -7.0; Second Half: 37-33, 2nd Place, -8.0

Rome battled its way to a fourth-place finish in a strong Southern Division, going 36-33 (.522) in the season's opening "half" before finishing 37-33 (.529) after the All-Star Break. It was the first winning season for Rome since the 2006 Club went 71-68, and the most wins by the R-Braves since claiming 78 victories in 2003. Rome turned in the second-most wins by a Braves affiliate, just three games behind Mississippi.

The R-Braves featured both the Braves organizational Pitcher and Player or the Year award winners in RHP Lucas Sims and OF Josh Elander, respectively. Sims, selected by Atlanta in the first round of the 2012 June free agent draft, was labeled by Baseball America as Atlanta's fifth-best prospect entering 2013, and he turned in numbers befitting that distinction. After starting the year in the bullpen, Sims moved to the rotation in late May and made 18 starts, going 11-3 with a 2.49 ERA (26 ER/94.0 IP) as a starter. He ended the season with an organizational-leading 12 wins, while his 134 strikeouts were second-most among Braves farmhands.

Elander spent the first 74 games of 2013 with Rome before earning a promotion to High-A Lynchburg. Drafted in the sixth round of the 2012 draft, he was tabbed as Atlanta's 19th-best prospect and as the best power hitter in Atlanta's 2012 draft class. He hit .318 (89-for-280) as a member of the R-Braves with a team-high 11 home runs and 61 RBI. Elander ended 2013 with 15 total homers, good for fifth-most in the system, while playing in an organizational-high 135 games.

Complementing Sims and Elander were OF Kyle Wren, INF Jose Peraza and RHP Shae Simmons, all of whom heavily contributed to Rome's success. Wren, Atlanta's eighth-round selection in the 2013 draft, hit .328 (64-for-195) and swiped 32 bags in just 47 games, while Peraza finished second in the league in steals with a career-high 64. Simmons logged 24 saves with a 1.49 ERA (7 ER/42.1 IP) before being promoted to Double-A Mississippi. Peraza was named by the organization as Rome's Player or the Year, while Simmons notched the Pitcher of the Year honors. Jason Hursh, Atlanta's first-round selection in the 2013 draft, began his career in Rome, going 1-1 with a 0.67 ERA (2 ER/27 IP) in nine starts.

2014 Coaching Staff

Manager - Jonathan Schuerholz

Jonathan Schuerholz is in his fourth season as a minor league manager and his first at the helm of the Rome Braves. Schuerholz joins the Rome staff after skippering the Danville Braves for the 2012 and 2013 seasons. In 2012, Schuerholz led his club to their second consecutive postseason appearance.

In 2011, Schuerholz managed the Gulf Coast League Braves and previous to that he spent the two seasons (2009-10) as the Braves roving infield instructor.

The former infielder played three seasons (2000-02) at Auburn University and was drafted by the Braves in the eighth round of the 2002 June free-agent draft. In 2004, Schuerholz was named the Most Valuable Player of the annual National Baseball Hall of Fame game. He played six minor league seasons and during the 2006 season, Schuerholz retired from his professional baseball playing career and returned to Auburn University to complete his bachelor's degree in business administration.

Schuerholz, 33, has been around baseball his entire life. His father, John Schuerholz, is the President of the Braves. Schuerholz enjoys golfing, traveling and reading and is an avid supporter of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA).

Jonathan and his wife Jennifer have one son, Boland, and reside in Atlanta, Ga.

Pitching Coach - Gabriel Luckert

The 2014 season marks Gabe Luckert's first as pitching coach for the Rome Braves. Luckert comes to the Rome pitching staff from the Danville Braves where he spent six of the last seven seasons in the same capacity, including 2011 to 2013 and 2008 to 2010.

In 2011, under Luckert's direction, the Danville Braves' pitching staff team ERA of 3.15 and 623 strikeouts ranked first among Appalachian League teams.

Luckert served as the Dominican Summer League Braves pitching supervisor in 2007, and from 2005 to 2006 he managed two years with the DSL Braves. In 2003, he served as the pitching coach for the GCL Braves and in 2001, Luckert was the pitching coach for the DSL Braves.

Luckert's coaching career began in 1999 with the San Francisco organization where he also pitched for two seasons from 1997 to 1998. Luckert was originally signed by the Chicago Cubs as a non-drafted free agent in 1992.

Luckert resides in Orlando, Fla., with his wife, Veronica, and their son, Gabriel Jr. and daughter, Barbara.

Hitting Coach - Bobby Moore

Bobby Moore returns to the Rome Braves for his second season in his second stint as the club's hitting coach. Moore previously spent 10 seasons, from 2001 to 2010, as the Rome Braves hitting coach. In 2011 and 2012, Moore worked in the same capacity with the organization's High-A Lynchburg Hillcats.

In 2011, the Lynchburg offense, under Moore, paced the Carolina League with a .262 batting average and 280 doubles. Their 1,198 hits ranked second-most in the league.

Before joining Rome in 2001, Moore spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as a coach for the Braves Class-A affiliate in Greenville and in 1998 he worked with the rookie-level Danville 97s. His inaugural season of professional coaching was 1997 when he served as a coach with the Braves Single-A affiliate (Eugene Emeralds) of the Northwest League.

Moore attended Eastern Kentucky University and was a 16th-round draft pick by the Kansas City Royals in 1987. Twice in his career he was named to an All-Star team (Northwest League, 1987 and Southern League, 1990) and during the 1991 season, he received a call-up to the majors with the Kansas City Royals which lasted 18 games, resulting in a .357 average in 14 at-bats.

In December of 1991, Moore was traded to the Atlanta Braves in exchange for Rico Rossy. He played four total seasons (1992-96) in the Braves organization that included a one-year stint with the Laredos of the Mexican League (1993). In 1994, he rejoined the Royals organization before being re-signed by the Richmond Braves in June where he played for the remainder of the season. During his 10-year professional baseball career (1987-96), Moore compiled a .279 average and recorded 175 stolen bases.

Bobby and his wife, Jane, reside in Rome, Ga., with their son, Robert.

Trainer - Kyle Damschroder

Kyle Damschroder is in his fourth season with the Braves organization and his second as the Rome Braves trainer. Damschroder joined the organization in May 2011 as the Danville Braves athletic trainer where he also spent the 2012 campaign.

Prior to joining the organization, Damschroder spent the 2008 season as the athletic training intern for the Cleveland Indians' Double-A affiliate Akron Aeros, and he also worked at Major League spring training that year. Damschroder's first position in professional baseball came in 2007 as an athletic training intern with the Toledo Mud Hens, the Triple-A affiliate of the Detroit Tigers.

Damschroder earned his master's degree in education in exercise, fitness, and health promotion from George Mason University and his bachelor's degree in athletic training from Bowling Green State University. Damschroder is a certified athletic trainer, as well as a licensed athletic trainer in Florida and Virginia.

Kyle, 26, resides in Oak Harbor, Ohio, with his wife Kelly.

2013 Season Recap

Appalachian League; East Division, 29-36, 3rd Place, -10.5

Danville broke a two-year playoff streak by logging a third-place finish in the Appalachian League East division with a 29-36 (.446) record. The D-Braves went 16-12 (.571) in the month of July, but sandwiched their good play with a 3-7 (.300) record in June and a 10-17 (.370) mark in August to seal their fate.

A pair of Braves picked up weekly honors over the course of the season. LHP Michael Flores was named Appy League Pitcher of the Week after throwing 6.1 innings of one-hit ball and striking out seven in a win over Bristol (CWS) on 7/9, while INF Johan Camargo was tabbed as the Player of the Week from 8/5-11, during which he hit .522 (12-for-23) with two triples and four RBI.

INF Victor Caratini, Atlanta's second round pick in the 2013 draft, earned Danville's Player of the Year honors after hitting .290 (58-for-200) on the season. The switch hitter posted similar averages from both sides of the plate, hitting .294 (15-for-51) as a righty and .289 (43-for-149) left handed. He paced Danville with 86 total bases and led the Appalachian League with 23 doubles. OF Connor Lien was the main source of Danville's power, launching a team-high six homers to pair with his team-leading four triples and 27 RBI.

RHP Andrew Waszak was named Pitcher of the Year for the D-Braves after being selected in the 22nd round in the June draft. Waszak led Danville pitchers with 53.1 innings pitched, logging a 2.03 ERA (12 ER/53.1 IP) along the way, including a 1.35 ERA (3 ER/20.0 IP) in five July appearances. In nine starts, he went 2-4 with a 2.27 ERA (11 ER/43.2 IP), holding opponents to just a .192 average. RHP Michael Swanner anchored the bullpen, tallying six saves with a 1.99 ERA (5 ER/22.2 IP).

2014 Coaching Staff

Manager - Randy Ingle

Randy Ingle is in his 23rd season as a manager in the Braves organization. This is Ingle's second stint with the Danville Braves after leading the team during the 2011 season. In 2014, Ingle is taking on a dual role as the D-Braves manager and as a development assistant. Prior to the start of the Danville season, Ingle will visit the Braves minor league locations and work as a development instructor.

Ingle moves into this new dual role after managing the Rome Braves for the 2012 and 2013 seasons.

Ingle spent the 2011 season as the rookie-level Danville Braves manager and previous to that he skippered the Rome Club for five seasons from 2006 to 2010. Following the 2011 campaign, Ingle was honored by the Braves organization with the Bobby Cox Manager of the Year award, presented annually to the individual that best represents the top managerial performance throughout Atlanta's minor league system.

Ingle's previous managerial stints in the Atlanta farm system include Myrtle Beach (2002-05), Macon (1993 and 2001), Richmond (1999-2000), Greenville (1997-98), Durham (1996) and Pulaski (1990-92). In his 19 seasons as a minor league manger, he has been named the organization's Minor League Manager of the Year on three separate occasions (1996, 1997 and 2011).

In 1997, Ingle led the Greenville Braves to the Southern League Championship and was named Southern League Manager of the Year.

Ingle, a former infielder, played within the Braves farm system from 1979 to 1987, including an appointment as a player-coach at Greenville in 1987.

Randy and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Forest City, N.C., with their two children, Taylor and Meghan.

Pitching Coach - Daniel Meyer

The 2014 season marks Dan Meyer's first year as a professional coach following his retirement from professional baseball in March 2013.

A first-round draft pick by the Atlanta Braves in the 2002 amateur draft, Meyer pitched in two games with Atlanta during the 2004 season. Following the 2004 campaign, he was included in a trade with the Oakland Athletics in exchange for pitcher Tim Hudson.

Overall, the left-hander compiled a 5.46 ERA over 103 big league games and collected 92 strikeouts in 113.2 innings, spanning two separate two-year campaigns with Oakland (2007-08) and the Florida Marlins (2009-10).

Meyer, 32, and his wife, Bryant, have one son, Grayson, and reside in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

Hitting Coach - Carlos Mendez

The 2014 season marks Carlos Mendez's seventh season overall in the Braves organization and his fourth season as the Danville Braves hitting coach in his second stint with the club. Mendez's first stint with the D-Braves came in 2008, his first year as a professional coach.

Mendez remained with the D-Braves through the 2010 season before spending two years (2011-12) as the Rome Braves in the same role. In 2013, Mendez worked as the hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Braves.

Mendez, a career .297 hitter at the minor-league level, played 16 seasons with five different organizations (Kansas City, Detroit, Oakland, Baltimore and Atlanta) from 1991-2007. During his 16-year career, Mendez often ranked in the top ten in several offensive categories and he was also named to several All-Star teams.

In 2003, Mendez spent nearly four months with the Baltimore Orioles over two stints and played in 26 games for the club. In 1994, he led the Midwest League (Single-A) with a .355 batting average. Mendez was originally signed by the Kansas City Royals as a non-drafted free agent in 1991.

Carlos and his wife, Courtney, have two children, Carlos Jr., and Tatiana, and reside in Wilmington, Del.

Hitting Coach - Ivan Cruz

The 2014 season marks Ivan Cruz's first campaign with the Braves organization and his 19th year of professional baseball.

Cruz joins the Braves after spending the previous four seasons with the San Diego Padres organization, including serving as the manager of the Arizona League Padres during the 2010 season before moving to the role of hitting coach with the AZL Padres from 2011-12. In 2011, AZL Padres hitters ranked second in the league in home runs (43), fourth in average (.284), total bases (855) and OPS (.782) and fifth in on-base percentage (.351). Cruz remained in a hitting coach capacity with the short-season Eugene Emeralds in 2013.

Drafted by Detroit in the 28th round of the 1989 June free agent draft, Cruz spent parts of four Major League seasons with the New York Yankees (1997), Pittsburgh Pirates (1999-2000) and St. Louis Cardinals (2002), batting .273 (15-55) over his career.

Born in Fajardo, DR, Cruz resides in Ponte Vedra Beach, FL.

Trainer - Joe Luat

The 2014 season marks Joe Luat's fourth season with the Braves organization and his second as the Danville Braves head athletic trainer. In his first two seasons with the organization, Luat served as an assistant athletic trainer for the Gulf Coast League Braves.

Luat received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and physical education with a dual concentration in athletic training, and exercise, nutrition and wellness from California State University East Bay in 2008, and he earned his master's degree in athletic training at California Baptist University in 2010. While studying at California State University, Luat served as an athletic training student, and in 2007, he worked with the Stanford University football team as an athletic training student intern. Luat also worked as a student athletic trainer from August 2008 to April 2010 at California Baptist University.

Luat is a certified athletic trainer and also holds a certificate with the American Heart Association Basic Life Support (CPR and AED) for Healthcare Providers Program.

Joe, 29, resides in Hayward, Calif., and is a part-time assistant coach at the Fremont Table Tennis Club in Fremont, Calif.

2013 Season Recap

Gulf Coast League Northeast Division, 26-34, 4th Place, -10.0

The GCL Braves won their most games in three years on their way to a fourth-place finish in the inaugural year of the GCL's Northeast Division.

LHP Oriel Caicedo served as the staff ace, going 1-0 with a 1.55 ERA (8 ER/46.1 IP) in nine starts, tossing a team-high 51.1 innings. He ended his year with a 2.06 ERA (12 ER/52.1 IP) in 11 appearances, including a 1.13 ERA (3 ER/24.0 IP) in five July starts. He was named as the GCL Braves Pitcher of the Year by the organization.

Offensively, OF Victor Reyes led the charge over the 31 games he spent in the GCL before a promotion to Danville, earning him Player of the Year honors. Reyes hit a team-leading .357 (40-for-112) with a .414 OBP, while his eight doubles and 21 RBI were both good for second-most on the squad. 25th-round draft pick INF Reed Harper pitched in a team-high 13 doubles, eighth-most in the GCL, while hitting .296 (56-for-189).

2014 Coaching Staff

Manager - Ralph "Rocket" Wheeler

The 2014 season will be Wheeler's third campaign as the Gulf Coast League manager and his 12th season overall as a skipper in the Braves organization (Mississippi, 2011; Myrtle Beach, 2006-10 and Rome, 2003-05). In his 11 seasons as a Braves minor league manager, he has amassed a 658-711 (.480) record.

In 2009, Wheeler managed the Carolina League All-Star Game. Following the 2008 season, he garnered the prestigious honor of being named by Baseball America as the Minor League Manager of the Year as well as the Carolina League Manager of the Year after leading MB to a franchise-record 89 regular-season wins. In 2003, Wheeler led Rome to the South Atlantic League Championship, earning Braves Minor League Manager of the Year honors. During the 2008 off-season, Wheeler piloted the Mesa Solar Sox of the Arizona Fall League.

Prior to joining the Braves organization, Wheeler spent 26 seasons (1977-2002) in the Toronto Blue Jays organization as a player, coach and manager.

In 1999, Wheeler was named Florida State League Manager of the Year (Dunedin Blue Jays) and in 1996 while at St. Catharine, Wheeler was awarded the inaugural Bobby Mattick Award for excellence in player development after being named the Manager of the Year in the New York-Penn League.

A 13th-round draft pick in 1977, Wheeler played six seasons in the Blue Jays farm system and began his coaching career in 1981 while also a full-time player at Florence.

Wheeler, 56, attended the University of Houston, where he majored in health and physical education while playing baseball for the Cougars. He resides in the Myrtle Beach, SC, area and has one son, Marty, and a daughter, Kate.

Pitching Coach - Willian Martinez

Willian Martinez is in his second season as pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Braves and his seventh season overall as a member of the Braves organization. Martinez spent the previous five seasons, from 2008 to 2012, as a member of the Dominican Summer League coaching staff.

The Venezuelan native was signed by the Cleveland Indians as a non-drafted free agent in 1995 and played nine minor league seasons for three different organizations, including the Cincinnati Reds (2002-03), the Minnesota Twins (2001), and the Indians (1995-2000). He made one Major League appearance on June 14, 2000, with the Indians.

Martinez, 36, resides in Barquisimeto, Venezuela, and has one daughter, Isabella.

Hitting Coach - Rick Albert

Rick Albert, who has been a staple in the Braves organization as a player, coach or manager every year since 1972, returns to the Gulf Coast League Braves for his fourth stint since 1992, including his third as hitting coach.

Albert spent the 2012 and 2013 seasons as the Danville Braves hitting coach, and in 2012, the D-Braves offense ranked second in the Appalachian League with a .339 on-base percentage and they scored the second-most runs with 346 on the season, for an average of 5.4 runs scored per game. They recorded the third-most walks (236) and also ranked third in OPS at .722.

Albert joined the Danville staff after spending the 2011 season as the Gulf Coast League Braves hitting coach and previous to that four seasons (2007-10) as the hitting coach for the organization's High-A club.

From 2003 to 2006, Albert served in the same capacity for the Triple-A Richmond Braves and prior to that, he managed the Gulf Coast League Braves for five seasons (1998-2002). As skipper of the 2000 GCL Club, Albert was honored as the organization's Minor League Manager of the Year.

Albert has also managed at Burlington (1988), Anderson (1983-1984), and Pulaski (1982). In addition, he has coached at various levels within the Club's farm system, including Richmond (1987), Durham (1994), Eugene (1996), Bradenton (1978-81, 1989-91) and the Gulf Coast Braves (1992-93, 1995).

A native of West Seneca, NY, Albert resides in Hollywood, Fla., with his wife, Veronica, and their three children, Keith, Luke and Jill.

Pitching Rehabilitation Instructor - Derek Botelho

In his 36th year of professional baseball, Derek Botelho is in his 12th season overall with the Braves organization. Botelho takes on a new role in 2014 as the minor league pitching rehabilitation instructor. Botelho is based out of the team facility located in Lake Buena Vista, Fla., and will work with minor league pitchers who are on rehabilitation assignment.

Prior to his current role, Botelho spent three seasons (2011-13) as the Lynchburg Hillcats pitching coach, and previous to that he served in the same role for the organization's Triple-A Gwinnett Braves for two seasons (2009-10). From 2007 to 2008 he was Double-A Mississippi's pitching coach.

In 2006, Botelho was Richmond's (AAA) pitching coach and in 2005 he held that same role with Danville (R). From 2003 to 2004, he was a member of the Gulf Coast League Braves coaching staff.

In his 11 years coaching in the Braves farm system, Botelho has been a part of three championship teams, including the 2012 Lynchburg Hillcats, the 2008 M-Braves and the 2003 GCL Braves. In 2012, Botelho's pitching staff ranked second in the Carolina League in ERA (3.54) and strikeouts (1,107), and they led the CL in fewest homers allowed at 74. In 2009, his staff ranked third in the International League in ERA (3.66) and second in strikeouts (1030). During the 2009 season, Botelho was the pitching coach for the U.S. team in the Future's Game.

Prior to joining the Braves organization, Botelho spent 12 seasons as a pitching coach in the Reds' organization and 10 years as a player and coach in the Venezuelan winter leagues.

Originally drafted as a shortstop in 1974 by Philadelphia, Botelho attended Miami Dade South Junior College and later signed with the Phillies in 1976. He pitched professionally from 1976 to 1989, including 11 seasons with the Cincinnati Reds and Major League stints with the Kansas City Royals (1982) and the Chicago Cubs (1985). The right-hander compiled over 100 wins in the minors.

Botelho, 57, resides with his family in Burlington, Iowa.

Trainer - Julio Hernandez

Julio Hernandez is in his second season as the head athletic trainer for the Gulf Coast League Braves. Hernandez joined the organization prior to the 2013 seasons after spending the previous six seasons (2007-12) in the Miami Marlins minor league system, where he worked with the Marlins' Rookie, Class-A, High-A and Triple-A affiliates.

In addition to his training duties, Hernandez will also serve as the medical operations assistant for the Braves minor league teams.

Prior to joining the Marlins, Hernandez began his career in baseball as a student athletic trainer with the Tampa Bay Rays in 2005.

Julio earned his bachelor's degree in athletic training at the University of South Florida in 2005, where he worked with the school's football and baseball teams, as well as the women's basketball and women's tennis teams. He received his master's degree in health education/promotion from the University of Alabama-Birmingham in 2006, and worked with the baseball and football teams during his time there.

Julio resides in Orlando, Fla., with his wife, Emily, and their daughter, Sofia.

Minor League Equipment Manager - Justin Clift

The 2014 campaign marks Justin Clift's 12th season in the Braves organization and his seventh as the minor league equipment manager and Florida operations coordinator. Clift, based out of the Braves Florida office, is responsible for overseeing the ordering and inventory process of all equipment for the Braves farm system, as well as offering support for all administrative needs at the Florida complex.

Justin joined the Braves organization in July of 2000 while serving as the Richmond Braves' (AAA) assistant clubhouse manager, as well as a member of the grounds crew for the final two months of the season. Justin remained the assistant clubhouse manager until August of 2003 before returning to the same position in April of 2006. He was promoted to clubhouse manager in November of 2006 and remained in that role until he took his current position in September of 2007.

Clift received a bachelor's degree in exercise, sport and health education with a concentration in sport administration from Radford University in 2004 and he received his masters degree in recreation, parks and sport leadership with a concentration in sports leadership from Virginia Commonwealth University in 2005. While attending both universities, he served as a student assistant baseball coach.

Justin, 32, was born in Arlington, Va., and resides in Kissimmee, Fla.

Braves In The World Series

1914 World Series - Boston 4, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves," who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 World Series - Cleveland 4, Boston 2

The Braves, under manager Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost in the World Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in Game 5, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive home runs off Feller.

1957 World Series - Milwaukee 4, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' 10th-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days' rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 World Series - New York 4, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come back from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two games and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 World Series - Minnesota 4, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first NL player in Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and Series MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 World Series - Toronto 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (the last three setbacks to the Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's sixth-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a comeback 5-4 win, sparked by a ninth-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of four runs over Games 3 and 4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the ninth on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8-for-15) with five stolen bases.

1995 World Series - Atlanta 4, Cleveland 2

The Braves captured Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 postseason hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a postseason. Grissom hit safely in all 14 postseason contests, the longest streak ever in one postseason. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the postseason 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for postseason hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the '95 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston (1914) and Milwaukee (1957).

All signs pointed towards a second straight World Championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two at-bats in Game 1 (3-for-4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only six hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, two were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had three RBI in Game 2, after getting two in Game 1, to give him 15 RBI for the postseason, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the postseason. Including the final three victories over the Cardinals in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a two-run homer in the eighth inning of Game 3, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the eighth, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a three-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz 1-0 in Game 5, with the only score coming on a fourth-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for three runs in the third in their 3-2 victory. The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

1999 World Series - New York 4, Atlanta 0

In a rematch of the 1996 World Series, the Braves were held to just nine runs in a four-game sweep by the Yankees. Greg Maddux carried a 1-0 lead into the eighth inning of Game 1, thanks to a Chipper Jones homer in the fourth, but the Yankees parlayed three hits, three walks and two errors into four runs for a 4-1 victory. Jones' homer was Atlanta's only hit in the contest until Bret Boone's ninth-inning single. After the offense's two-hit performance in Game 1, manager Bobby Cox shook up the lineup, inserting Ozzie Guillen, Keith Lockhart and Greg Myers, but were held scoreless until the ninth inning of a 7-2 loss. Kevin Millwood was tagged for five runs (four ER) on eight hits in only 2.0 IP, marking his shortest outing of the season. A change of venue initially aided the offense in Game 3 at New York, as Bret Boone stroked three doubles in the first four innings to lead the Braves to a 5-1 lead. A flu-weakened Tom Glavine allowed solo homers to Chad Curtis in the fifth and Tino Martinez in the seventh to narrow Atlanta's lead to 5-3, before the Yankees tied the score at 5-5 in the eighth on a two-run homer by Chuck Knoblauch, knocking Glavine out of the game. A scoreless ninth sent the contest into extra frames, with Curtis striking again, this time belting a leadoff homer off Mike Remlinger to give the Yankees their third straight win. The Braves, despite collecting 14 hits, were blanked over the final six innings. In Game 4, Roger Clemens shutout Atlanta over the first seven innings and the Yankees' three-run third proved decisive in the 4-1 finale. John Smoltz provided a stellar effort (7.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 BB, 11 K), but couldn't prevent the Braves' eighth straight loss in the World Series, dating back to Game 3 of the 1996 Fall Classic.

1991 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games 2 and 6; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game 7 in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 series ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Series MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Pirates in Game 2. The Bucs captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Wakefield's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for Game 7 drama. Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the ninth scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win. With their improbable ninth-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive postseason game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 League Championship Series - Philadelphia 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueled John Smoltz in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves with a .435 series batting average.

1995 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned to the World Series for the third time in the last four Fall Classics by sweeping the Reds with the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game in the top of the ninth. Series MVP Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a three-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory in Game 3. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4 with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a three-run homer. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their postseason saga by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS, as they crushed the Cardinals 32-1 over the final three games. Game 1 saw Javy Lopez break a tie in the eighth with a bases-loaded, two-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 win behind John Smoltz. Chipper Jones led the attack by going 4-for-4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his fourth save in four appearances in the '96 postseason. The momentum in the series shifted in Game 2 when Gary Gaetti's seventh-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into an 8-3 victory. In Game 3, Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in Game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with two outs and no one on in the St. Louis seventh, but the Redbirds fought back to tie the score, then claimed the lead for good in the eighth on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in Game 5, the Braves struck for five first-inning runs in a 14-0 win, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez went 4-for-5 with two doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added four hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. In Game 6, Maddux blanked the Cardinals through seven innings en route to a 3-1 win. Mark Wohlers' eighth-inning wild pitch accounted for the only Cardinals run in the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored six in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's three-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 rout broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent Atlanta to its fourth World Series in the last five played. Lopez won MVP honors, batting .542 (13-for-24) with five doubles, two HRs and six RBI.

1997 League Championship Series - Florida 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record sixth straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outhitting Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only one unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for five runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to three hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a three-run double off John Smoltz in the sixth inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on four hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series 2-2. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in Game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only five hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only three hits and notching a NLCS-record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a four-run first inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves by hitting .500 (8-for-16).

Braves League Championship Series Home Run Leaders

The Braves have hit a total of 53 home runs in the National League Championship Series. Below is the list of 13 players who have hit two or more homers in NLCS play:

	Player	NLCS Homers	Years
1.	Javy Lopez	5	'95, '96 (2), '98, '01
2.	Jeff Blauser	4	'92, '93 (2), '97
	Ryan Klesko	4	'96, '97 (2), '99
4.	Hank Aaron	3	'69 (3)
	David Justice	3	'91, '92 (2)
	Ron Gant	3	'91, '92 (2)
	Fred McGriff	3	'93, '96 (2)
	Chipper Jones	3	'95, '97 (2)
	Andruw Jones	3	'96, '98, '01
10.	Sid Bream	2	'91, '92
	Michael Tucker	2	'97, '98
	Eddie Perez	2	'99 (2)
	Brian Jordan	2	'99 (2)

Atlanta fought back from a three-games-to-none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in six games. The Braves entered the bottom of the ninth of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andruw Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first two games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 in the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. The Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a three-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a three-run lead into the bottom of the ninth, but a two-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of the series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0. All the runs crossed the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field. Padres hurlers held the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames of the series.

1999 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, New York 2

The Braves clinched their fifth NL pennant of the 1990s with an 11-inning, 10-9 triumph over the Mets in Game 6 in Atlanta. It concluded a thrilling series that first saw Atlanta come within four outs of a four-game sweep and would later see New York draw to within three outs of forcing a seventh game. Game 1 proved to be the only contest not decided by one run, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K) picking up the 4-2 victory and John Rocker recording the save. In Game 2, Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez blasted two-run homers in the bottom of the sixth to turn a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead that the Braves would never relinquish. Kevin Millwood supplied another strong effort (7.1 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 2 ER, 1 BB, 4 K), with Rocker coming on to douse an eighth-inning fire after the Mets posted an unearned run to make the score 4-3. With the tying run on second and one out, Rocker fanned John Olerud and Robin Ventura (sandwiching an intentional walk to Mike Piazza), and gave way in the ninth to John Smoltz, who fired a 1-2-3 frame to notch the save in his first major league relief outing. After the LCS shifted to New York, the Braves scored an unearned run in the first inning of Game 3, and watched Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 7 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 8 K), Mike Remlinger and Rocker make it stand up in a 1-0 victory that gave the Braves a commanding three-game lead in the series. Game 4 saw the Braves carry a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the eighth, but Olerud's two-out, two-run single plated the tying and go-ahead runs, spoiling a superb outing by Smoltz (ND, 7.1 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K). The Mets sent the series back to Atlanta after prevailing in a 15-inning marathon in Game 5, 4-3, which entered the record books as the longest game in terms of time in major league post-season history. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the top of the 15th on a two-out RBI triple by Keith Lockhart, but saw the Mets — who hadn't scored since a two-run homer by Olerud in the first — rally for two runs in the bottom of the frame on a bases-loaded walk to Todd Pratt and a Ventura drive over the right field fence that was ruled an RBI single when he left the basepaths. It appeared as if the Braves had finally put the Mets away with a five-run first inning when the series returned to Atlanta for Game 6, but New York battled back to knot the score at 7-7 on a two-run Piazza blast in the seventh off reliever Smoltz, and took the lead in the top of the eighth on a Melvin Mora pinch-hit RBI single. A Brian Hunter run-scoring single in the bottom of the inning tied the score again at 8-8. The contest carried into extra innings, with Todd Pratt's sacrifice fly in the 10th putting the Mets within three outs of a seventh game. Ozzie Guillen responded in the bottom of the 10th with an RBI single off Armando Benitez, against whom the Braves were 1-for-30 all year before the 10th-inning rally, making it a 9-9 contest. The Braves finally settled the issue in the bottom of the 11th when Andruw Jones worked a bases-loaded walk off reliever Kenny Rogers, sending Atlanta to its fifth World Series of the 1990s. Eddie Perez earned MVP honors after batting .500 (10-for-20) with two homers and five RBI.

2001 League Championship Series - Arizona 4, Atlanta 1

The Braves, appearing in their record 11th NLCS, were unable to solve the Diamondbacks' vaunted one-two tandem of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, as Arizona captured its first pennant in a 4-1 series victory. The Braves managed only three hits in a 2-0 Johnson shutout in the opener at Phoenix, but did salvage a split of the first two road games as Javy Lopez's two-run homer in the seventh snapped a 1-1 tie, with Atlanta going on to an 8-1 win in Game 2. Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 2 K) notched the Braves only win of the series. Schilling turned in a dominating effort in the Diamondbacks' 5-1 victory in Game 3 in Atlanta, limiting the Braves to four hits in a complete game effort, while striking out 12. The Braves took a 2-0 lead through two innings as they attempted to even the series in Game 4, but three Atlanta errors aided a four-run D-Back third, giving them a lead they never relinquished in an 11-4 win and a commanding three-games-to-one lead in the series. The Braves committed four miscues overall, leading to six unearned Arizona runs. Arizona completed the three-game sweep in Atlanta and advanced to the World Series with a 3-2 triumph in Game 5, with the D-Backs again capitalizing on a Braves error to tally two unearned runs in the fifth inning that proved to be decisive. While not as effective as in his Game 1 shutout, Johnson still held the Braves to two runs over seven innings, giving him a 1.13 ERA in two starts in the series (16.0 IP, 2 ER, 19 K).

Braves In The Division Series

1995 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded-playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won 5-4. Rookie Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing 4-3 in the ninth. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two homers and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Greg Maddux, Grissom and Fred McGriff led the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for postseason hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Los Angeles 0

Despite hitting only .180 and being held to 10 runs, the Braves swept the Dodgers in three games, as the staff allowed only three earned runs in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game 1 in LA saw the Braves continue their tradition of one-run postseason games, as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz earned the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In Game 2, Fred McGriff's lead-off HR in the seventh tied the game at 2-2 and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only two unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his second save in two games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. Atlanta completed the sweep as Tom Glavine and Chipper Jones (two-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones' blast followed a two-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a four-run fourth inning, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo.

1997 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the second inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with three runs in the fifth and five more in the sixth. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks, including eight issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in Game 3 at Houston, as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating three-hitter, taking a 4-1 decision. Braves starters Maddux, Glavine and Smoltz combined for a 1.87 series ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP).

1998 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Chicago 0

For the third straight season, the Braves recorded a sweep in the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating back to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves had posted 10 straight wins in Division Series competition. Michael Tucker's two-run homer proved to be all the support needed by John Smoltz in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam accounted for Atlanta's final four tallies. Game 2 featured a classic pitching duel between Tom Glavine and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs clinging to a 1-0 lead entering the bottom of the ninth. Javy Lopez then blasted a one-out homer, sending the contest into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out single to plate the winning run and send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and came around to score on a passed ball, clung to a 1-0 lead through seven innings. The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Perez grand slam. The Cubs touched Maddux for two runs in the eighth, but Kerry Ligtenberg pitched two scoreless innings and sent the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

1999 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 1

The Braves rebounded from a 6-1 loss in Game 1 to take three straight from the Astros and advance to their record eighth straight NLCS. Atlanta's offense managed only one run on seven hits in the opener in Atlanta, with Greg Maddux absorbing the defeat. Kevin Millwood stepped up in Game 2 and turned in a masterpiece, hurling the fifth one-hitter in postseason history as the Braves evened the series with a 5-1 victory. Millwood allowed only a second-inning homer to Ken Caminiti. Eddie Perez plated the go-ahead run with a sixth-inning sacrifice fly. The series shifted to Houston, where the two clubs put on an extra-inning postseason classic in Game 3. Atlanta escaped with a 5-3 victory as Brian Jordan supplied all five runs, courtesy of a three-run, sixth-inning homer (erasing a 2-0 deficit), followed by a two-run double in the 12th. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the 10th, the Astros loaded the bases with no one out, only to see John Rocker come in and slam the door, with stellar support from shortstop Walt Weiss. Weiss saved the Braves with a diving stop of a one-out Tony Eusebio liner up the middle, which resulted in a force at home, followed by a Rocker strikeout of Ricky Guiterrez to end the frame. After Jordan's go-ahead double in the 12th, Kevin Millwood was brought in from the bullpen and registered the save with a 1-2-3 inning. Braves appeared to have the series sewed up thanks to a five-run sixth in Game 4, giving Atlanta a 7-0 lead, only to see Houston storm back to narrow the Braves' lead to 7-5 in the eighth, with Caminiti striking the big blow with a three-run homer. A leadoff walk to Stan Javier in the bottom of the ninth again brought the tying run to the plate, but Rocker fanned Jeff Bagwell and Carl Everett, before Andruw Jones ran down a Caminiti blast to the warning track to end the series.

2000 Division Series - St. Louis 3, Atlanta 0

The Cardinals jumped on Braves' starters Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and Kevin Millwood and cruised to a three-game sweep of the Braves, who had won five straight Division Series entering this one. The Redbirds set the tone for the series in the bottom of the first of Game 1, striking for six runs off Maddux, although a Chipper Jones error accounted for two of those tallies being unearned. Cardinals starter Rick Ankiel's bout of wildness (four walks, five wild pitches) contributed to the Braves' four-run rally in the third inning, narrowing the deficit to 6-4. Four Cardinal relievers held the Braves in check thereafter, however, allowing only a ninth-inning run as St. Louis claimed a 7-5 victory. In Game 2, the Braves scored two runs in the top of the first, but Will Clark's three-run homer in the bottom of the frame quickly erased the Braves' only lead of the series. Tom Glavine was tagged for seven earned runs in 2.1 IP, the second-shortest postseason outing of his career as the Cardinals took a 10-4 decision. The change of venue didn't help the Braves, as Fernando Vina opened Game 3 in Atlanta with a leadoff homer off Kevin Millwood and the Cardinals went on to complete a sweep of the series with a 7-1 victory.

2001 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves, appearing in the Division Series for the seventh straight year, took three in a row from the Astros to advance to their record 11th NLCS. Atlanta's pitching was dominant in the sweep, with the staff compiling a 1.67 ERA. Greg Maddux kept the Astros at bay in hitter-friendly Enron Field in Game 1, only to see Houston maintain a 3-2 lead heading into the eighth inning. Keith Lockhart's leadoff pinch-hit double was followed by a Marcus Giles single to even the score at 3-3, and two batters later, Chipper Jones deposited Astros closer Billy Wagner's first pitch into the left field seats for the decisive three-run homer in an eventual 7-4 win. Tom Glavine starred in Game 2, blanking the Astros over 8.0 innings and making an unearned Braves run in the second inning stand up for a 1-0 win, with John Smoltz recording the save. Home runs by Paul Bako and Julio Franco provided Atlanta with three runs over the first three innings and John Burkett teamed with four relievers to shut down Houston's high-powered offense en route to a 6-2 victory in Game 3. Chipper Jones finished the series with a .444 average, including two homers and five RBI, while Andruw Jones went 6-for-12 with a solo home run.

2002 Division Series - San Francisco 3, Atlanta 2

The Braves took a two-games-to-one lead in their record eighth straight Division Series, only to see the Giants rebound to capture the final two contests and the series. Atlanta faced an 8-2 deficit in Game 1, and after a three-run rally in the bottom of the seventh, went on to bring the tying run to the plate with two men aboard and no outs in the ninth. Giants closer Robb Nen, however, squelched the uprising by retiring Julio Franco on a liner to right and inducing a game-ending double play from Gary Sheffield. In Game 2, back-to-back homers by Javy Lopez and Vinny Castilla sparked a three-run second inning, and Kevin Millwood combined with three relievers to make the lead stand up for a 7-3 Braves win, evening the NLDS at a game apiece. The series moved to San Francisco for Game 3, in which the Braves snapped a 1-1 tie with a five-run sixth, courtesy of a bases-loaded single by Vinny Castilla, and a three-run homer on the next pitch by Keith Lockhart en route to a 10-2 win. Needing one more win to clinch the series, the Braves sent Tom Glavine to the mound in Game 4, but the Giants tagged Glavine for the second time in the series, sending the series to a fifth and final game in Atlanta. A second-inning solo homer by former Brave Reggie Sanders and a fourth-inning blast by Barry Bonds proved to be decisive, as Russ Ortiz and four Giants relievers stymied the Braves offense in a 3-1 clincher. Atlanta put runners on first and third in the bottom of the ninth with no outs against Nen, but saw him escape by fanning Sheffield and inducing Chipper Jones to hit into a game-ending double play.

The Braves, in their ninth straight Division Series, matched up with the Chicago Cubs in a back-and-forth five-game series that ended with the Cubs taking Game 5 at Turner Field to send them to the NLCS. Chicago's pitching tandem of Kerry Wood and Mark Prior were the story. In Game 1, Wood took over. In addition to a dominating performance on the mound, Wood broke the game open with his two-run sixth-inning double to lead the Cubs to a 4-2 win in front of 52,043 in Atlanta. Russ Ortiz struggled, especially in the sixth when Moises Alou, Aramis Ramirez and Eric Karros led off with three straight singles. Robert Fick then bobbled a potential double play ball off the bat of Paul Bako, allowing Alou to score and setting the stage for Wood. The Braves scored first in the third inning on a Marcus Giles two-out homer and in the eighth on a Chipper Jones' ground out. The Braves rebounded to take Game 2, 5-3, on Mark DeRosa's eighth-inning two-out, two-run double off Dave Veres after John Smoltz allowed a rare run in the top of the inning that tied the game at 3-3. DeRosa was in the lineup after Giles suffered a severely bruised left quadriceps in Game 1. Giles still contributed when he limped off the bench and delivered a pinch-hit, two-out single in the sixth inning that scored Javy Lopez and gave the Braves a 3-2 lead after they had fallen behind, 2-0, in the top of the first. After walking the first two batters of the game and giving up a two-run Sammy Sosa double off the top of the center-field wall, Atlanta starter Mike Hampton battled out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam by striking out three straight Cubs to end the inning. He fanned all three batters in the second inning to match a postseason record of six consecutive strikeouts. Carlos Zambrano started for Chicago and allowed 11 hits, all singles, including a two-run single to Andruw Jones in the fourth inning that tied the score at 2-2. As the teams moved to an electric Wrigley Field for Game 3, the Cubs once again took the series lead with a 3-1 victory. Mark Prior battled in a classic pitchers' duel with Greg Maddux. The only Chicago runs came on a Randall Simon two-out, first-inning single off Maddux that scored Kenny Lofton and Mark Grudzielanek. The Braves' only run came on a Giles sacrifice fly scoring Mark DeRosa in the eighth inning. Game 4 was the first true glimpse of the Braves offense that was on display most of the regular season. Chipper Jones hit two-run homers from each side of the plate as part of Atlanta's 12-hit attack. It was Chipper's first two-homer playoff game since his postseason debut in Game 1 of the 1995 Division Series. The first of his two home runs came from the left side off Chicago starter Matt Clement in the fifth inning and the second came in the eighth inning off lefty Mark Guthrie, giving Atlanta a 6-2 lead. Ortiz, coming off three days of rest, held the Cubs to two earned runs on seven hits over five innings. Eric Karros was the hitting star for the Cubs, launching two solo home runs, one in the sixth inning and one in the eighth inning. Sosa almost tied the game in the bottom of the ninth, but his drive off John Smoltz fell into Andruw Jones' glove on the warning track. Game 5 showed just why the Cubs would be moving on. For the second time in the series, Wood turned in a dominating performance (8.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K), shutting down the Braves for a 5-1 Chicago clincher in front of 53,775 fans at Turner Field. During the NLDS, Wood allowed just seven hits over 14.1 IP against the NL's best regular-season offense. The lone Atlanta run came on a controversial play in the sixth inning. Rafael Furcal raced home from second base on a ball hit by Sheffield, who returned after missing Game 4 with a bruised hand suffered in Game 3, that appeared to be caught by a sliding Kenny Lofton in center field. It was ruled a hit. Hampton, pitching on three days of rest, endured a 30-pitch first inning, allowing just one run on a Moises Alou broken-bat RBI single. Alex Gonzalez led off the second inning with a homer to center and Aramis Ramirez hit a two-run home run in the sixth inning to give Wood all the support he would need.

In their record 10th straight Division Series, the Braves met up with the Houston Astros for the fourth time in the opening round but for the first time failed to take the series. The series was filled with big hits and key pitching, but in the end Houston's big bats proved to be too much. Game 1 saw the Astros pound out four home runs, leading to a four-run third inning and a three-run fifth inning in a 9-3 win. The run support was more than needed for Roger Clemens. The Braves had chances to break the game open early against Clemens, but he escaped jams in each of the first four innings. Jaret Wright started for Atlanta and allowed a career-high three homers in 4.1 innings of work. Andruw Jones provided a highlight with his eighth career postseason home run off Clemens in the fifth inning. The Braves evened the series in dramatic fashion, taking Game 2, 4-2. Trailing 2-0 entering the seventh inning the Braves scored on a Rafael Furcal single in the seventh and added one in the eighth on Adam LaRoche's double to tie the game. John Smoltz went 3.0 strong innings starting in the eighth, just the second time as a reliever he had gone that many innings. He also added a single in the ninth-- his 12th career postseason hit, a record for pitchers. The game remained tied 2-2 until the bottom of the 11th inning when Rafael Furcal hit a game-winning, two-run homer off Dan Miceli to give Atlanta a 4-2 win. Roy Oswalt started for Houston, allowing just one earned run on eight hits over 6.1 IP. Mike Hampton started for the Braves and gave up just two earned runs on four hits before leaving in the seventh inning with tightness in his left forearm. The Braves bullpen combined to go 4.2 scoreless innings. The series shifted to Houston for Game 3 and saw the Astros go up a game with an 8-5 win. Braves starter John Thomson was forced to leave after four pitches when he left with a re-injured left oblique muscle. Paul Byrd made his first career postseason appearance in relief and allowed four earned runs on seven hits in 4.1 IP, the big blow coming on Carlos Beltran's two-run, third-inning home run. The Astros stretched the lead to 7-2 on Morgan Ensberg's sixth-inning, two-run double off Tom Martin. Brandon Backe allowed two runs over 6.0 IP, his only mistake coming on Johnny Estrada's fourth-inning homer. Andruw Jones hit his second homer of the series, a three-run shot off Russ Springer in the eighth. Game 4 was an example of the season-long resolve the Braves displayed. Facing Roger Clemens (5.0 IP, 2 ER) for the second time in the series, the Braves rallied from a three-run deficit entering the sixth inning to win 6-5. Atlanta jumped out 2-0 in the second on an Andruw Jones RBI single and an Adam LaRoche RBI groundout. The Astros came back with five runs in the bottom of that inning, highlighted by a three-run homer by Craig Biggio. The Braves tied the game in the sixth on LaRoche's first career postseason homer, a three-run shot off Chad Qualls. The game turned in to a battle of the bullpens after Russ Ortiz left (3.0 IP, 7 H 5 ER), but the Braves pen took charge. Over the last 6.0 innings, they allowed six hits and no runs. The game-winner came in the top of the ninth inning after Rafael Furcal was hit by a Russ Springer pitch with two outs. Furcal then stole his second base of the day and came around to score on J.D. Drew's RBI single. John Smoltz picked up the win by going the final 2.0 innings and getting Jeff Kent to ground into the Astros third double play of the game to end it in the ninth. The series returned to Atlanta for the deciding Game 5 and the Houston bats certainly showed up. The Astros pounded out 17 hits and scored 12 runs in a 12-3 rout. The game was 3-2 entering the sixth inning, but the Astros added one in the sixth, five in the seventh and three in the eighth to pull away. Roy Oswalt picked up the win on short rest, going 5.0 IP and giving up two earned runs. Houston scored a NLDS-record 36 runs in the series and hit an NLDS-record 11 home runs. Carlos Beltran was the series star hitting .429, and he went 4-for-5 with two home runs and five RBI in Game 5. Jaret Wright got the call for Atlanta but gave up four runs in 5.1 IP. Chipper Jones went 2-for-5, but wound up without an RBI in the series. Rafael Furcal had another strong game with his second homer of the series and two more hits, pushing him to .381 (8-for-21) for the NLDS. Andruw Jones hit .526 (10-for-19) in the series.

Extending their Division Series streak to a record 11 consecutive appearances, the Braves took on the Wild Card winner Houston Astros. Both teams featured a slew of youngsters that would play prominent roles in the series - the final play of the classic fourth game would feature a rookie from both squads - but the Astros would ride good old fashion pitching from their aces and overachieving offense from a normally dormant lineup to defeat the Braves for the second consecutive season in the Division Series. Houston's Morgan Ensberg put on a Game 1 clinic, tying an Astros record with five RBI and helping his squad to a 10-5 win in the opener. The game, which was to feature the pitching duel between Tim Hudson and Andy Pettitte, turned into a slugfest in which the pitching pair combined to allow eight runs. Reliever Chris Reitsma allowed four earned runs and recorded just one out in the eighth inning, helping Houston to a win that tied starter Andy Pettitte with John Smoltz for the most wins in postseason history (14). Smoltz took back his title as the postseason's winningest pitcher in Game 2, hurling seven innings of one-run ball for his 15th playoff win. Houston's 1-0 lead in the first inning was short-lived, as the Braves scored three runs in the second and two more in the third en route to a 7-1 win. Rookie backstop Brian McCann scalded a three-run homer off Roger Clemens in his first career postseason at-bat to put the Braves up 3-1 - a lead from which they would never look back. Andruw Jones went 3-for-4 and Adam LaRoche doubled in a pair of runs, while the bullpen was solid. The Astros went with 20-game winner Roy Oswalt against Jorge Sosa (making his first career postseason appearance) for Game 3, a 7-3 Astros victory that unraveled for the Braves in one inning. While the two starters had similar lines - both allowed three runs and walked two - it was a dreadful seventh inning that led to the Braves demise. With Sosa pulled, Reitsma continued his rough Division Series showing by allowing Craig Biggio's third double of the game followed by an infield single to speedster Willy Taveras. Reitsma gave way to lefty John Foster, but slugger Lance Berkman nailed Foster's first pitch for a home run, and youngster Joey Devine finished the job by allowing a run of his own - all of this without the Braves registering an out. The loss spoiled the second consecutive three-hit night for Braves home run king Andruw Jones, who raised his average to .636 in the series. On just three days' rest, the Braves sent Tim Hudson to the mound against Brandon Backe in a Game 4 that would become a classic. It looked like nothing but a Braves steamroll early on as Adam LaRoche continued his tear, bombing a grand slam in the fourth followed by an Andruw Jones sacrifice fly that chased the Astros' starter. Hudson left with a 5-1 lead, and when McCann hit his second homer of the series to put Atlanta up 6-1, it seemed wrapped up. But when the normally reliable Kyle Farnsworth came in to close out the game in the eighth inning, he allowed a grand slam to Lance Berkman and a two-out, solo homer to light-hitting Astros catcher Brad Ausmus in the bottom of the ninth to tie the game at 6-6. The two teams went on to essentially play another entire game, with both pitching staffs combining for eight innings of scoreless ball that saw the Braves miss opportunities with runners in scoring position five times, including loading the bases with one out in the 14th inning. In the bottom of the 18th, Houston rookie Chris Burke drove Devine's pitch over the left-field wall for a game-ending solo homer that gave the Astros their second consecutive Division Series win against the Braves. The series loss wasn't without some highlights for the Braves, who continued their excellent fielding from the regular season and committed no errors in the four-game set. Adam LaRoche went 4-for-8 (.500) with six RBI in the series and Andruw Jones went 8-for-17 (.471) with three doubles and five RBI.

2010 Division Series - San Francisco 3, Atlanta 1

After a five-year playoff drought, the Braves entered the 2010 postseason as the National League's Wild Card Champion. They faced off against the eventual World Series Champion San Francisco Giants in the opening round. The Braves offense managed only two hits as they fell 1-0 to Game 1 starter Tim Lincecum in his first career postseason start. The game's only run came after Giants catcher Buster Posey singled to left and stole second on a controversial "safe" call, only to score on a Cody Ross single. The Braves took Game 2 in 11 innings at AT&T Park after overcoming a three-run deficit. Outfielder Rick Ankiel hit a go-ahead solo home run into McCovey Cove and Kyle Farnsworth tossed a scoreless bottom of the 11th to preserve the 5-4 victory. The win came at considerable cost, however, as closer Billy Wagner suffered a season-ending oblique injury in the 10th inning. The Braves fell 3-2 in Game 3 at Turner Field after holding a 2-1 lead through eight innings. Giants starter Jonathan Sanchez pitched a no-hitter through six innings as the Braves committed three errors in the game. Pitching on three days' rest, Braves starter Derek Lowe took a no-hitter into the sixth inning of Game 4, but Braves relievers could not hold the 2-1 lead. The Giants plated two in the seventh that proved to be the game winners, ending the series. The 3-2 loss in Game 4 was manager Bobby Cox's final game. Giants players and coaches joined the Turner Field fans to give him a loud ovation as he left the field.

The series was only the second postseason series in which each of the first four games were decided by one run. The only other postseason series in Major League history to begin with four straight one-run games was the 1972 World Series, when the Oakland A's defeated the Cincinnati Reds in seven games with all but one game (Game 6) being decided by one run.

Hall of Famer Bobby Cox managed the final game of his career against the Giants in the 2010 Division Series.

After posting a 96-66 record and claiming its first National League East Division title since 2005, Atlanta matched up against the NL West Division Champion Los Angeles Dodgers. The Dodgers powered their way to a 3-1 series win as they outscored the Braves 26-14. After leading the National League with 181 home runs and ranking tied for fourth with just 127 homers allowed during the regular season, the Braves were outhomered 7-1 in the four-game set. Kris Medlen took to the mound for the Braves in Game 1 at Turner Field, his second consecutive postseason start, while Los Angeles countered with eventual Cy Young Award winner Clayton Kershaw, who held Atlanta to one run on three hits in 7.0 innings with 12 strikeouts. The Dodgers jumped out to an early 5-0 lead highlighted by Adrian Gonzalez's two-run home run in the third inning. Chris Johnson, who finished the regular season with the NL's second best batting average at .321, drove in the Braves' lone run of the game with a two-out RBI-single in the fourth inning, as Atlanta dropped Game 1 by a score of 6-1. The Braves evened the series at one game apiece with a 4-3 victory in Game 2, as Mike Minor allowed just one run in 6.1 innings en route to earning his first career postseason win. After an intentional walk to pinch-hitter Reed Johnson loaded the bases in the seventh inning, Jason Heyward followed with a two-RBI single to give Atlanta a 4-1 lead. Hanley Ramirez pulled the Dodgers within one run with a two-run homer in the eighth inning off David Carpenter before Craig Kimbrel shut the door with a four-out save, his first career save in postseason play. The series moved to Los Angeles as Game 3 featured a matchup of rookie hurlers with Julio Teheran facing off against Hyun-Jin Ryu. The Braves plated two runs in the first inning with RBI-singles from Evan Gattis and Chris Johnson to take an early 2-0 lead. The Dodgers answered with a pair of four-run frames in the second and fourth innings, as Los Angeles cruised to a 13-6 win. Jason Heyward added a two-run homer in the ninth inning, the first of his postseason career. Atlanta called on veteran Freddy Garcia to make his 11th career postseason start in Game 4, as the Dodgers sent Kershaw to the hill on three days' rest for the first time in his career. Carl Crawford gave Los Angeles an early 2-0 lead with a pair of solo home runs, including a leadoff homer to open the game. Chris Johnson evened the score at 2-2 in the fourth inning with a two-run single for his fourth and fifth RBIs of the series. After an Elliot Johnson triple with one out in the seventh inning, pinch-hitter Jose Constanza gave the Braves a 3-2 lead with an RBI-single to center field. Yasiel Puig led off the eighth inning with a double to right field bringing the go-ahead run to the plate, and after fouling off pitches on back-to-back bunt attempts, Juan Uribe launched a 2-2 pitch from David Carpenter deep to left field to give Los Angeles a 4-3 lead they would not relinquish. Kenley Jansen struck out the side in the top of the ninth inning to preserve the win, as the Dodgers advanced to the National League Championship Series. Atlanta batted just .214 (28-for-131) in the series and pitched at a 5.82 ERA (22 ER/34.0 IP), while Los Angeles hit .333 (46-for-138) with a 3.09 ERA (12 ER/35.0 IP). Chris Johnson led the Braves with a .438 (7-for-16) average and five RBI.

Braves In The Wild Card Game

2012 Wild Card Game - St. Louis 6, Atlanta 3

In the first year of the one-game Wild Card playoff format, the Braves earned home field advantage with a 94-68 record. The Braves would play host to the St. Louis Cardinals (88-74) at Turner Field to determine which team would move on to the National League Division Series. Kris Medlen started for the Braves, who had won a Major League record 23 straight games in which Medlen had started. He was opposed by Kyle Lohse of the Cardinals. The Braves jumped out to an early lead on a two-run home run by David Ross in the bottom of the second inning. Medlen cruised through the first three innings, but ran into trouble in the top of the fourth. After allowing a lead-off single to Carlos Beltran, Matt Holliday grounded to third base in what looked to be a sure double play ball. The throw by Chipper Jones sailed over the head of second baseman Dan Uggla, and Beltran advanced to third. With runners on the corners, Allen Craig doubled home the first Cardinals run, followed by an RBI-groundout from Yadier Molina, and a sacrifice fly by David Freese to put the Cardinals ahead, 3-2. Matt Holliday hit a solo home run in the top of the sixth and the Cardinals benefitted from two more Braves' errors in the top of the seventh to plate two runs and extend their lead to 6-2. Medlen worked into the seventh and allowed five runs (only two earned) on just three hits. The Braves were able to scratch a run across in the bottom of the seventh and had a chance to add more, but a controversial infield fly call in left field in the bottom of eighth shortened the inning and Atlanta ended up stranding the bases loaded. Dan Uggla came up as the potential tying run in the bottom of the ninth but grounded out to end the game, as the Braves fell, 6-3, in what would be the final game in the legendary career of Chipper Jones. Atlanta out-hit St. Louis, 12 hits to six and four of the Cardinals six runs were unearned.

OUTFIELD 44

One of the greatest hitters of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for 97.8 percent. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); and Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364), and home runs (755), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), fourth in runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), 10th in doubles (624), 12th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 18th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thomson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. Since December of 1989, he has served as Braves' Senior Vice President. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

Note: Aaron's executive bio appears in Front Office section of the media guide.

Known as the consummate "players" manager, Bobby Cox treated everyone with respect and dignity. He spent 29 seasons as a Major League skipper, including 25 seasons in two stints at the helm of the Braves. His 2,504 wins rank fourth all-time and include a franchise-best 2,149 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox posted an overall career record of 2,504-2001-3 (.556). The 2010 campaign marked his final season on the bench, as Atlanta went 91-71 and claimed the National League's Wild Card Championship. Cox won his 2,500th game on September 25, 2010, at Washington. The 2010 campaign was Cox's 15th with 90 or more wins, tying him for second all-time in 90-win seasons with Hall of Fame skipper Joe McCarthy (15) and putting him one behind the legendary John McGraw (16). Cox and McCarthy are the only managers in Major League history to compile six 100-win seasons. On June 8, 2009, Cox posted his 2,000th Braves victory, making him just the fourth skipper in big-league history to claim 2,000 wins with one team, joining Connie Mack (Athletics), John McGraw (Giants) and Walter Alston (Dodgers). On September 29, 2004, in the season's final home game, Cox earned his 2,000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big-league history to reach that lofty milestone. Cox won 15 division crowns in his career, including 14 straight in Atlanta that led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995). He had a string of 15 consecutive winning seasons from 1991 to 2005, tying him with Al Lopez and Earl Weaver for third place all-time behind Joe McCarthy (20) and Sparky Anderson (17) for consecutive winning campaigns. Cox was voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America four times (1985 with Toronto and 1991, 2004 and 2005 with Atlanta). The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the league's top skipper seven times with the Braves and eight times overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936. In 1991 the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year, as he became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985. Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, four games to two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities. Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to '81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985. Cox returned to the Braves as general manager in October 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for great success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz as General Manager in October of that year. When Braves owner Ted Turner fired Cox in 1981, Turner was asked at the press conference who was likely to be the next manager. "It would be Bobby Cox if I hadn't just fired him," Turner said. "We need someone like him around here." The Braves retired Cox's uniform number 6 and inducted him into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2011. He will be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014.

TOM GLAVINE

FULL NAME: Thomas Michael Glavine
BATS: Left THROWS: Left
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 205
BORN: 3/25/1966 in Concord, Massachusetts
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1987-2002, 2008
NUMBER RETIRED: 2010

PITCHER 47

Tom Glavine won 305 regular-season games in his 22-year Major League career. But it was his eight innings of one-hit, shutout baseball in Game 6 of the 1995 World Series that accounted for his most-significant victory. The Braves won 1-0 to capture the first championship in Atlanta history, and Glavine was named the series Most Valuable Player. The left-hander arrived in Atlanta in 1987 and, after four years of growing pains, became a consistent big-time winner. Glavine won 20 or more games each year from 1991 to 1993 and earned the first of his two Cy Young awards in 1991, going 20-11 with a 2.55 ERA. His second Cy Young came in 1998 on the strength of a 20-6 record and a 2.47 ERA. He finished second for the award in 1992 and 2000 and third in 1993 and 1995. From 1993 to 1999, the Braves featured arguably the game's top starting rotation - led by Glavine, Greg Maddux and John Smoltz. Over that seven-year stretch, Atlanta won six division titles and the National League Championship Series in 1995, 1996 and 1999 in addition to the 1995 World Series. Glavine also pitched in two other Fall Classics - in 1991 and 1992. Following the 2002 season, Glavine signed as a free agent with the New York Mets. He won his 300th game on August 5, 2007, with an 8-3 verdict over the Chicago Cubs, becoming the 23rd pitcher and just the sixth left-hander to reach that plateau. Glavine returned to Atlanta in 2008 before ultimately retiring after the 2009 season. On the Braves' career lists, Glavine ranks fourth in strikeouts (2,091), fourth in wins (244) and tied for eighth in shutouts (22). He had five 20-win seasons, leading the NL or tying for the lead each time. Glavine's lifetime ledger was 305-203 with a 3.54 ERA, and his 682 games started ranked 12th on baseball's all-time list when he retired. Possessing excellent control, the 10-time All-Star was a master at mixing up the speed of his pitches and locating them on - or just off - the corners of the strike zone. Glavine was a career .186 batter and won four Silver Slugger Awards. Glavine will be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, after earning 91.9 percent of the vote in his first year on the ballot.

CHIPPER JONES

FULL NAME: Larry Wayne Jones, Jr.
BATS: Switch THROWS: Right
HEIGHT: 6-4 WEIGHT: 210
BORN: 4/24/1972 in DeLand, Florida
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1993, 1995-2012
NUMBER RETIRED: 2013

THIRD BASEMAN 10

The first overall selection in the 1990 draft, Chipper Jones became one of greatest switch hitters in baseball history. The Atlanta career leader in nearly every offensive category, Jones batted .303 with 2,726 hits, 1,619 runs, 468 home runs and 1,623 RBI in 2,499 games. He drew 1,512 walks while striking out just 1,409 times in 19 Major League seasons (he is one of just 15 players in history to hit at least 450 home runs and have more walks than strikeouts). Jones is the only switch hitter in Major League history to post a .300 career batting average and hit at least 300 home runs. He ranks second all-time in batting average among switch hitters to Frankie Frisch (.316), third in home runs to Mickey Mantle (536) and Eddie Murray (504) and second in RBI to Murray (1,917). The runner-up for the 1995 National League Rookie of the Year award (to Hideo Nomo), Jones quickly established himself as one of the premier third basemen in the game. He finished in the top 10 in NL MVP voting six times and in 1999 he claimed the award, due in part to his clutch performance down the stretch, when he batted .323 with 20 homers and 46 RBI in 55 games from August 1 to the end of the season. His overall numbers for the '99 campaign included a .319 average with 116 runs, 41 doubles, 45 homers, 110 RBI and 126 walks. Jones was at his best on the big stage, especially at New York's Shea Stadium, where fans loved to derisively chant his given name, Larry. In 245 career games against the Mets, Jones batted .309 with 49 home runs and 159 RBI. In 93 career postseason games, he batted .287 with 13 home runs and 47 RBI. On July 5, 2007 at Los Angeles, he passed Dale Murphy (371) for the most home runs in Atlanta history. He hit his 400th career homer in the sixth inning on June 5, 2008 off Florida's Ricky Nolasco, en route to claiming the NL batting title with a .364 average that season. On May 27, 2010, Jones established the Braves franchise mark with his 1,377th walk, passing Eddie Mathews. An eight-time All-Star, Jones was voted the NL's starting third baseman four times. The Braves inducted Jones into the club's Hall of Fame and retired his uniform number 10 in June 2013.

GREG MADDUX

FULL NAME: Gregory Alan Maddux
BATS: Right THROWS: Right
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170
BORN: 4/14/1966 in San Angelo, Texas
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1993-2003
NUMBER RETIRED: 2009

PITCHER 31

Greg Maddux became the most dominant pitcher in baseball during his 11 seasons with the Braves from 1993 to 2003. On the heels of winning his first Cy Young Award in 1992 with the Chicago Cubs, Maddux signed with the Braves as a free agent and proceeded to win three more Cy Young awards in a row. With Atlanta, Maddux led the National League in ERA four times (1993, 1994, 1995 and 1998) and in wins twice (1994 and 1995). His franchise-record 1.56 ERA during the 1994 season was the second-lowest in the major leagues since Bob Gibson's 1.12 mark in 1968, the last year of the elevated pitcher's mound. Maddux had arguably his finest season in 1995, posting a 19-2 record with a 1.63 ERA while leading the league with 209.2 innings pitched, 10 complete games and three shutouts and helping the Braves win the World Series. Maddux finished fifth, second and fourth in Cy Young Award voting in 1996, 1997 and 1998. On the Braves' career lists, Maddux ranks second in ERA (2.63), fifth in strikeouts (1,828), sixth in wins (194) and 10th in shutouts (21). The diminutive right-hander known as "Mad Dog" featured pinpoint control and uncanny late movement on his fastball. After leaving Atlanta, Maddux had a second stint with the Cubs and subsequently played for the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Diego Padres. He won 15 or more games for 17 consecutive seasons (1988-2004) - the only pitcher in major league history to do so. Upon his retirement, Maddux ranked eighth all-time with 355 wins and 10th with 3,371 strikeouts. He won a record 18 Gold Gloves, including 10 with the Braves. He was an eight-time All-Star and the NL starting pitcher in 1994, 1997 and 1998. Maddux was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in July 2009. At the induction ceremony, manager Bobby Cox remarked: "I get asked all the time was he the best pitcher I ever saw? Was he the smartest pitcher I ever saw? The most competitive I ever saw? The best teammate I ever saw? The answer is yes to all of those." Maddux will be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in July 2014, after earning 97.2 percent of the vote in his first year on the ballot.

THIRD BASE 41

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1978, Eddie Mathews was the only player in franchise history to play for the Braves on the Major League level in Boston, Milwaukee, and Atlanta. He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. During his Hall of Fame career spanning 17 years, Mathews appeared in three World Series, was a nine-time National League All-Star, and led the majors in home runs in 1953 (47) and '59 (46). He twice finished second in the National League MVP voting, in 1953 to Roy Campanella and in 1959 to Ernie Banks. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, and 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more. Ten times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBI in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. In 1967 the Braves traded Mathews to Houston, where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. Eddie managed into the 1974 season, accumulating a record of 149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1. Eddie was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

DALE MURPHY

FULL NAME: Dale Bryan Murphy
BATS: Right THROWS: Right
HEIGHT: 6-5 WEIGHT: 215
BORN: 3/12/1956 in Portland, Oregon
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1976-90

OUTFIELD 3

Murphy was the Braves' No. 1 (and fifth overall) draft pick in 1974. Originally signed as a catcher, he was moved to the outfield by Manager Bobby Cox in 1980. The move helped, as Murphy averaged just under 30 HRs and just under 90 RBI from 1980 to 1990. During those 11 years, Murphy won back-to-back league MVP awards in 1982 and 1983, appeared in seven All-Star games (leading all players in votes in 1985), won five Gold Gloves, and appeared in 740 consecutive games from September 26, 1981 through July 8, 1986. Murphy's 1983 season of 36 home runs and 30 stolen bases made him only the second player in franchise history to reach the 30/30 mark. He was also just one of six players in the 1980's accomplish the feat. Murphy's 15-year career with the Braves came to an end on August 4, 1990, when he was traded to Philadelphia. The Braves received Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher and Victor Rosario for Murphy and Tommy Greene. Murphy played in only 18 games with Philadelphia in 1992 due to knee problems and appeared in 26 games for the Colorado Rockies in 1993 before retiring. Murphy ranks second in Atlanta history in home runs (371), RBI (1,143), hits (1,901), runs (1,103), and games (1,926). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2000.

PHIL NIEKRO

FULL NAME: Philip Henry Niekro
BATS: Right THROWS: Right
HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 180
BORN: 4/1/1939 in Blaine, Ohio
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1964-83, 1987
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

PITCHER 35

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997, Phil Niekro was signed as a free agent in 1958, but didn't see his first major league action until 1964 in Milwaukee, starting out as a reliever. He saw limited playing time until 1967, when he became a permanent fixture on the roster through 1983. Niekro had 14 straight years with 10 or more wins until the strike shortened season of 1981. He posted three 20-plus win seasons with the Braves, with a career-high 23 in 1969, and logged over 300 innings four times, with a career high of 342 innings in 1979. From 1974 to 1980, he led the league in innings pitched four times and was never out of the top five. In '73 he pitched a no-hitter to beat San Diego, 9-0, on August 5th at Atlanta Stadium. He became the oldest pitcher (46) to record a shutout with a four-hit, 8-0 victory on October 6, 1985, against Toronto as a Yankee. During his 24-year career, Niekro made five All-Star appearances, four as a Brave, won five Gold Gloves, and won 318 games, placing him 14th all-time. He is fifth all-time in innings pitched and eighth all-time in strikeouts. Niekro holds or shares 13 Atlanta career pitching records including: most games (689), complete games (226), innings pitched (4,533), games won (266), most shutouts (43) and most hits (4,136). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

JOHN SMOLTZ

FULL NAME: John Andrew Smoltz
BATS: Right THROWS: Right
HEIGHT: 6-3 WEIGHT: 220
BORN: 5/16/1967 in Warren, Michigan
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1988-2008
NUMBER RETIRED: 2012

PITCHER 29

When Braves General Manager Bobby Cox acquired John Smoltz from the Detroit Tigers in 1987, he did so with an eye on the future. Atlanta traded 36-year-old pitcher Doyle Alexander in exchange for the 20-year-old prospect. Smoltz more than delivered, as the right-hander excelled as both a starter and reliever over the span of two decades from 1988 to 2008. He is the only pitcher in major league history with 200 or more wins and 150-plus saves. In 14 full seasons as a starter, Smoltz won 14 or more games 10 times. Twice, he led the National League or shared the lead in wins (1996 and 2006), innings pitched (1996 and 1997) and strikeouts (1992 and 1996). He ranked in the top 10 in ERA eight times. Smoltz won the Cy Young Award in 1996 on the strength of a 24-8 record, 2.94 ERA and franchise-record 276 strikeouts. Following "Tommy John" surgery that sidelined him for the 2000 campaign, Smoltz served as the Braves' closer for three-plus seasons. He set an NL record with 55 saves in 2002 and finished third in Cy Young Award voting. Smoltz, who joined Hall of Famer Dennis Eckersley as the only two pitchers to record a 20-win season and a 50-save season, returned to the starting rotation in 2005. Smoltz became the 16th member of the 3,000- strikeout club on April 22, 2008. On the Braves' career lists, he ranks first in strikeouts (3,011) and saves (154) and fifth in wins (210). In 40 postseason games with Atlanta, Smoltz was 15-4 with four saves a 2.65 ERA. At the time of his retirement, his 15 postseason wins were the second-most in baseball history, while his 199 strikeouts were tops. Smoltz, Tom Glavine and Greg Maddux anchored a stout pitching staff that helped the Braves win 14 straight division titles from 1991 to 2005 and the 1995 World Series. Smoltz was the only player to be a part of each division championship. Smoltz was an eight-time All-Star who concluded his career with the Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Cardinals in 2009. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in June 2012.

WARREN SPAHN

FULL NAME: Warren Edward Spahn
BATTED: Left THREW: Left
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 175
BORN: 4/23/1921 in Buffalo, New York
DIED: 11/24/2003 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1942, 1946-64

PITCHER 21

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973, Warren Spahn signed his first contract out of high school with the Braves for $150. He debuted for the Braves in 1942 and after ending the season in the minors, enlisted in the Army. Spahn returned to the Braves in 1946 and began to pitch his way into the record books, becoming the winningest left-hander in baseball history and fifth all-time with 363 total victories. He is also sixth all-time in shutouts and eighth all-time in innings pitched. Spahn won the Cy Young Award in 1957 while leading the league in victories and complete games. He was the Cy Young runner-up three times: in 1958, 1960, and 1961. Spahn posted 20 or more wins a National League-record 13 times. Eight of those years he led the league in wins. He was an N.L. All-Star 14 times, led the league three times in ERA, nine times in complete games, four times in innings pitched, four times in strikeouts, and four times in shutouts. Spahn's eight seasons leading the league in wins and nine seasons leading in complete games are both major league records. His streaks of five consecutive seasons (1957-61) leading the league in wins along with seven consecutive years (1957-63) leading in complete games are both major league records. Spahn threw two no-hitters in his career. His first was on September 16, 1960, at the age of 39, against Philadelphia. He allowed only two base runners in the 4-0 victory. The second no-hitter was a 1-0 victory over San Francisco on April 28, 1961. Spahn holds or shares nine franchise records including: most games started (635), complete games (374), innings pitched (5,046), games won (356), 20-win seasons (13), and shutouts (63). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium (1966-96)

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

Turner Field (Opened 1997)

Grand Opening – April 4, 1997. Braves defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-4.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August 1997 and the site is now a parking lot.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Blvd. on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75/85 and I-20.

Seating – Official capacity for Turner Field is 49,586. Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the Golden Moon Casino Level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper level does not go all the way around the park, thus providing fans a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Field Dimensions – The stadium dimensions are 335' down the leftfield line, 400' to center field, 330' down the rightfield line, 380' to the leftfield power alley and 390' to the rightfield power alley.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – Turner Field features the largest high-definition video display in the world. The Mitsubishi Diamond Vision, installed in 2005, measures 71', 4" by 78', 8" and integrates live video, scoring information and animations onto a single full-color screen to display game content in vivid detail. Also installed in 2005, a Daktronics LED fascia video display wraps around Turner Field between the Terrace and Lexus levels. The 1,085' by 42" display interacts with the massive high-definition board, but also features its own video, graphics, animation, game information and advertising. Turner Field also employs ScorePAD Sports, Inc's state-of-the-art STADIUMnet baseball scoring system. This system provides a wide variety of in-game, season, and career information on each baseball player in the game. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Sky Field – Sky Field is a 23,000 square-foot baseball-themed attraction located above the leftfield club level at Turner Field. The distance is estimated at 435 feet from home plate and 80 feet above the field. A ball has yet to reach Sky Field during a regulation Braves' game.

SunTrust Club – In 2008 the Braves unveiled the SunTrust Club, an exclusive seating area with it's own private lounge. Season ticket holders in the SunTrust seats enjoy Braves games from a whole new perspective. Some seats are 43' from homeplate – 17' closer than the pitching mound. Included in Club's membership package is valet parking, a private entrance, a 4,000 square foot lounge with gourmet dining and impeccable service, plush seating, flat panel televisions throughout the seating area and in-seat food and beverage service.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.

2014 MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

2014 Braves Media & Public Relations Staff

Brad Hainje • Director of Media Relations

Brad Hainje is in his 11th season with the Braves. Prior to joining the Atlanta front office in February 2004, he spent six seasons (1998-2003) in the St. Louis Cardinals Media Relations Department.

Hainje serves as the Club's primary contact for all baseball operations media requests, including spring training and on team road trips. He is responsible for overseeing and coordinating all player and coaching staff interviews and appearances, press credentials and press box operations. He also oversees the publishing and distribution of the Club's annual media guide, daily press notes and all baseball-related press releases and press conferences.

Hainje, 44, spent two years (1993-95) as a Sports Information Assistant at his alma mater, Purdue University, and three years (1995-98) as Assistant Sports Information Director at Southwest Missouri State University (now Missouri State). While at SMS, Hainje's publications won several national awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Born in Lafayette, Ind., Hainje graduated from Logansport (Ind.) High School. He graduated from Purdue in 1992 with a degree in communication. He and his wife Michele have three children, Jack, Grace and Amelia, and reside in Marietta.

Beth Marshall • Director of Public Relations

Beth Marshall joined the Braves Public Relations Department as a senior advisor in August 2004 and was named director of public relations during the 2005 season.

Marshall assists in all aspects of Braves communications, primarily focused on community affairs, sales and marketing and business affairs press outreaches. She also oversees Braves publications and is the liaison between MLB and the Braves broadcasting partners.

Marshall has also worked in public relations for the PBA Tour, WNBA league office, Planet Hollywood and its sports arm, Official All Star Cafe, Trump Plaza Hotel and Casino and the Philadelphia 76ers. She graduated with a degree in public relations from Harcum College outside of Philadelphia.

A native of Haverford, Pa., Marshall lives in Atlanta with her husband Corey.

Adrienne Midgley • Media Relations Manager

Adrienne Midgley is in her 11th season with the Braves and her fifth as the media relations manager. She began with the Braves as a public relations trainee in 2004 and was hired full time in 2005.

Midgley is responsible for coordinating all Braves credential requests, assists with writing and editing the Club's media guide and daily game notes and coordinates player requests and press conferences. She also serves as a primary media contact in spring training and on team road trips.

Prior to joining the Braves, she worked for the Los Angeles Dodgers organization in Vero Beach, Fla., where she was the spring training intern and then continued as the Administrative Assistant with the Single-A Vero Beach Dodgers. Midgley previously worked at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, in 2003 as the Membership Department intern.

Originally from Pittsburgh, Pa., Midgley earned her master's degree in sport administration from Georgia State University, and her bachelor's degree in sports management from Methodist College in Fayetteville, NC, where she was a member of the softball team. She has participated as a member of the "Tomahawk Tutors," mentoring students at D.H. Stanton Elementary school in Atlanta.

Adrienne and her husband Richard have two daughters, Olivia and Ava, and reside in Buford.

Jim Misudek • Media Relations Coordinator

Jim Misudek is in his ninth season in professional baseball and his fifth with the Braves. He joined the Atlanta front office in December 2009.

Misudek, 30, is responsible for contributing to the Club's media guide, updating the daily game notes and assisting with press releases, player interviews, press conferences and press box operations while also serving as a primary media contact during spring training and on team road trips.

On behalf of Major League Baseball, Misudek worked the NLCS in 2012 and 2013 and the 2013 World Baseball Classic.

Misudek began his baseball career with the Class-A Wisconsin Timber Rattlers in 2006 and spent two seasons (2007-08) with the Milwaukee Brewers. In 2007, he was an intern in the media relations department and 2008 was spent as a sales representative while assisting with media relations duties. He also assisted Major League Baseball and the Brewers media relations department with their 2008 Postseason appearance. Prior to joining the Braves, Misudek served as an intern with the Cincinnati Reds media relations department in 2009.

Born in Fond du Lac, Wisc., Misudek graduated in 2002 from Fond du Lac High School. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin - Fond du Lac in 2004 with an associate's degree and in 2007 from the University of Wisconsin - La Crosse with a bachelor's of science degree in sport management. He resides in Mableton and will be married to his fiance Jessica in 2014.

Andrina "Andy" Pressley • Publications Manager

Andy Pressley is in her 20th season with the Braves and 15th as publications manager. After living in Boston, Mass., for five years, Pressley relocated to Atlanta in 1995 and started out working game day hospitality for the Braves. She was hired full time in 1996 and is currently responsible for a variety of print pieces, including pocket schedules, game day playbills and the Braves souvenir programs. She is also responsible for the team's postseason fan publications.

Originally from Sacramento, Calif., Pressley graduated from UCLA with a bachelor's degree in history. While at UCLA she dove competitively for the Bruins as a member of the women's swimming and diving team.

Pressley and her husband Bob reside in Marietta.

Media Services

Media Credentials: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news gathering agencies that have contacted the Media Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance of their assignment. To obtain media credentials, a written request must be made to the Braves' Media Relations Department (P.O. Box 4064, Atlanta, GA 30302) on appropriate letterhead stationery, or online at https://credentials.mlb.com. Please specify the name(s) and function of the individual(s) who will cover the game. Identification will be required before credentials can be distributed. Credentials may be picked up at the Media Window located at the Southwest Gate of Turner Field on Bill Lucas Drive. Both the Media Window and Entrance open 3-1/2 hours prior to the game. Credentials are not issued to anyone under 18 years of age. Any party abusing this policy will forfeit their credential and all privileges.

Media Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in the Media Lot. The entrance to the Media Lot is located on the corner of Crew Street and Little Street (Little Street is off of Hank Aaron Drive, one block south of Bill Lucas Drive, directly behind the stadium). For further information, please contact a member of the Public Relations Department.

Media Entrance: The Media Entrance to Turner Field is located at the Southwest Gate, on Bill Lucas Drive near Pollard Boulevard. This is the side of the stadium farthest from downtown Atlanta, nearest the expressway. To obtain admittance to the stadium, members of the media must show one of the following: a Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or an Atlanta Braves season/daily credential.

2014 Trainees

Jared Burleyson

Adam DeCock

Press Box: The Turner Field Press Box is located on the Press Level. A 40-foot walkway leads directly from the Press elevator to the entrance to the Press Box. The Press Box can accommodate 104 individuals. Credit card telephones are located on the tabletops of the Press Box and in the workroom, located directly behind the Press Box. Dining facilities are located in the Press Area. Live shots and still photographs are prohibited from the Press area. Proper credentials are required for admittance.

Clubhouses: Take the Press Elevator to the service level. Walk straight ahead down the corridor, turn left to the main tunnel. The Braves clubhouse entrance is about 150 feet to the right, the Visitors Clubhouse is to the left. Per MLB policy, both clubhouses open 3-1/2 hours prior to game time. Each clubhouse closes to the media when that team takes to the field for batting practice. Following the game, the clubhouses re-open to the media within 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room and players' lounge are closed to the media at all times. Proper credentials must be displayed to access either clubhouse. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse without special permission. The clubhouses are limited to credentialed working media only.

Field: Enter the field via the Field Access corridor off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. The field and dugout areas must be cleared one hour prior to first pitch. Pre-game broadcast interviews and live shots must be done on the warning track or in the dugout. Post-game live shots can be done from the warning track after the teams have left the field.

Photo Areas: A limited number of still photographer field level positions is available, subject to team discretion. There are also upper level wells and outfield locations. The Field Access corridor is off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouses without special permission.

Broadcast Booths: Located in the Press Box. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Home TV), Booth 2 (Home Radio), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Visiting Radio), Booth 5 (Reserved), Booth 6 (Reserved), Booth 7 (Reserved). To obtain use of a reserved booth, please contact Brad Hainje or Beth Marshall in the Public Relations department.

2014 Braves Radio/TV

The Atlanta Braves, FOX Sports South, SportSouth, WCNN 680 the Fan, All News 106.7 and the Braves Radio Network will team up in 2014 to bring Braves fans the best and most comprehensive sports broadcasting in Major League Baseball. FOX Sports South and SportSouth, the largest regional sports network, reach seven Southeastern states and have broadcast select Braves regular-season and Spring Training games the past 20 seasons. WCNN 680 the Fan and All News 106.7, the Atlanta Braves flag-ship radio rightsholders, will carry all 162 regular-season games and all Spring Training games. The Braves Radio Network includes approximately 150 affiliates across the Southeast, the largest radio affiliate network in all major league sports.

Braves Broadcasters

Jim Powell

The 2013 Major League Baseball season marks Jim Powell's 20th as a major league broadcaster and his fifth year in the Atlanta Braves radio booth working alongside Hall of Fame pitcher Don Sutton. Powell spent the previous 13 seasons as a member of the Milwaukee Brewers broadcast team, teaming with another Hall of Famer, Bob Uecker.

Powell joined the Brewers in 1996 and was named the 1998 Wisconsin Sportscaster of the Year. In addition to his radio duties, he spent time as a member of the Brewers television team during the 1999 and 2000 seasons.

Powell began his Major League broadcasting career with the Minnesota Twins in a reserve role in 1993 and 1994. Prior to this, he accumulated extensive experience at the minor-league level, serving as play-by-play announcer for the Charlotte Knights (1990-91, 1995) and the Columbia Mets (1987-89, 1993-94).

Powell has also worked at the collegiate level, taking on play-by-play duties for the University of South Carolina baseball program in 1989 and 1994, as well as the University of Georgia baseball team in 1985 and 1986.

Before going into baseball full-time, Powell had received national exposure through play-by-play for CBS Radio for several college football games, including the 1997 Sun Bowl. He has also worked on Host Communications telecasts, calling University of South Carolina football action in 2000. He served as the color analyst for the South Carolina football and basketball programs from 1993-95 and hosted the coaches' shows for those two sports on television. Powell also did play-by-play for Davidson College basketball in 1990.

An internship in the newsroom and sports office at WGST-AM while Powell was in high school started his broadcasting career. He then worked at WRFC in Athens while attending the University of Georgia, followed by positions in Columbia, South Carolina, with WOLO-TV and then WVOC radio. In 1991, Powell was hired by WSB-AM to work weekends, where he covered the Braves, Georgia Bulldogs and Atlanta Falcons for two years.

Powell and his wife Emmy have been active members of their community, serving on the Board of Directors for the Child Abuse Prevention Fund for several years. He spends his winters coaching youth basketball and is also an avid tennis player.

A native of Roswell, Ga., Powell attended the University of Georgia as a National Merit Scholar. He and Emmy, also a Georgia native, have three daughters, Allie, Sabrina and Julia.

Don Sutton

Hall of Fame pitcher Don Sutton returned to the Braves broadcast team in 2009 after a two-year stint with the Washington Nationals television broadcast team. Sutton previously spent 18 years, beginning in 1989, broadcasting Braves games. He joined Turner Sports as an analyst for Braves telecasts on TBS after a stellar playing career that spanned 23 seasons.

He has also served as a course reporter on TBS's professional golf coverage, working the Hawaiian Open, PGA Championship and PGA Grand Slam of Golf, as well as TNT's coverage of the Sarazen World Open Championship.

Sutton's network broadcasting experience included pre- and post-game analysis for NBC's 1987 League Championship series coverage.

His Major League Baseball pitching career was highlighted by 324 wins with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Houston Astros, Milwaukee Brewers and California Angels. Sutton spent 15 seasons with the Dodgers, beginning in 1966. He joined the Astros as a free agent in 1981. Sutton was traded to Milwaukee in August 1982, where he pitched three seasons before being traded to Oakland in December 1984. He was traded to California in September 1985 and retired in January 1988.

One of the most durable pitchers of the modern era, appearing in more than 750 games and completing nearly 180 during his career, Sutton's personal bests included 21 wins (1976), 293 innings pitched (1969), 41 games (1969), 2.21 ERA (1980 - led NL), 40 starts (1974), 217 strikeouts (1969) and 18 complete games (1972), all with the Dodgers.

Sutton ranks seventh on baseball's all-time strikeout list with 3,574. He was 4-1 with a 2.02 ERA in seven League Championship Series games, and 2-3 with a 5.26 ERA in eight World Series games. In the 1974 postseason, he was 3-0 with a 1.50 ERA and 25 strikeouts in four games. He also posted a 1-0 record in four All-Star appearances without allowing a run.

Sutton was elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998. He was named National League Rookie-of-the-Year by Sporting News in 1966, and was named the Texas League Player-of-the-Year in 1965 at Albuquerque.

Born in Clio, Ala., Don, his wife Mary and their daughter, Jacqueline, reside in Sandy Springs. Don has two other adult children, Daron and Staci.

Tom Glavine • Special Assistant to the President

Former pitching great and Braves Hall of Famer Tom Glavine opened a new chapter in his baseball career in February 2010, when he was named special assistant to Braves president John Schuerholz. In his role, Glavine assists with various baseball and business projects and occasionally works on special assignments for executive vice president and general manager Frank Wren and manager Fredi Gonzalez.

In addition to his baseball operations duties, Glavine serves as an occasional guest for the Braves Radio Network Pre-Game Show, and as a guest analyst for selected games on the Braves Radio Network. He also serves as a guest analyst for Sunday home games televised by Fox Sports South.

A two-time National League Cy Young Award winner (1991 & 1998) and a 10-time N.L. All-Star, Glavine owns a 305-203 career record and 3.54 ERA in 682 games. He compiled 244 of his victories in a Braves uniform and helped Atlanta to five World Series appearances in the 1990s. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1995 World Series, when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians.

Selected by the Braves in the second round of the 1984 draft, Glavine made his big-league debut in 1987. A five-time 20-game winner, Glavine joined the 300-win club with a 8-3 victory over the Cubs on August 5, 2007, at Wrigley Field. He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in 2010.

Glavine and his wife Christine reside in Alpharetta, Ga.,with their daughter, Amber Nicole, and four sons, Jonathan, Peyton Thomas, Mason Riley and Kienan Patrick.

2014 Braves FOX Sports South Broadcasters

Chip Caray

Chip Caray is in his fifth season as the play-by-play announcer for Braves games on Fox Sports South and SportSouth. He previously spent five seasons (2005-09) as the play-by-play voice of TBS's Major League Baseball coverage and Braves' broadcasts on Peachtree TV.

Caray served as the play-by-play announcer for seven seasons (1998-2004) for Chicago Cubs games on WGN. The 2004 Illinois Sportscaster of the Year, Caray's baseball resume also includes one season as the radio play-by-play announcer for Minnesota's Orlando (AA) affiliate in 1990, two years (1991-92) broadcasting the Atlanta Braves and three campaigns (1993-95) with the Seattle Mariners.

Caray spent five years (1996-2000) as a member of the Fox Network's Saturday baseball coverage, including three years as a studio host.

He is the third generation of Carays to serve as a play-by-play announcer, after his father Skip and grandfather Harry, who was the play-by-play voice of the Cubs from 1982 to 1997. A member of the Hall of Fame, Harry spent 53 seasons as a major league broadcaster. On May 13, 1991, the three generations of Carays worked together on a Chicago Cubs/Atlanta Braves game.

Chip's broadcast career also includes nine seasons as the television play-by-play voice of the NBA's Orlando Magic and stints calling both University of Florida and Florida State University football and basketball games for the Sunshine Network.

Caray graduated from the University of Georgia in 1987 and began his career with weekend TV sports anchor stints in Panama City, Fla., and Greensboro, NC. He and his wife Susan have four children: Summerlyn, Christopher, Stefan and Tristan.

Joe Simpson

Joe Simpson is in his 23rd season as an Atlanta Braves broadcaster. This year marks his eighth season calling games on Fox Sports South and SportSouth.

Simpson played professionally for 11 seasons, beginning in 1973 when he was drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the third round. He joined the Seattle Mariners in 1979 before being traded to the Kansas City Royals in 1983. An outfielder and first baseman throughout his professional career, he retired from the California Angels organization following the 1984 season. He had his best season in 1979, when he hit .283 in 120 games for the Mariners.

Simpson worked as an analyst on Seattle Mariners telecasts for five years before joining Turner Sports in 1992. Simpson was named "Georgia Sports Broadcaster of the Year" in 1995.

An All-American outfielder and first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson was born in Purcell, Oklahoma.

Joe and his wife Kathy live in Marietta, Ga. They have two children, Meg and Gabe.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until Sept. 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Major League Service: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Disabled Lists

15-Day Disabled List: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-Day Disabled List: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

Regulation Game

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after is starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Turner Field Ground Rules

Dugouts: Dugouts are bounded by guard rails and any ball hitting guard rails or netting is IN PLAY. Ball hitting netting on home plate side of either dugout is IN PLAY. Ball hitting facing over either dugout is dead - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder. Catch may be made in either dugout.

Backstop: Ball lodging in padding is dead - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder.

Canvas on Tarp Drum: Catch may be made on canvas - Ball lodged behind or under canvas is dead. ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder. Batted ball lodging behind or under canvas - TWO BASES.

Foul Poles: Ball hitting any part of screen area supported by poles down left or right field line - HOME RUN.

Outfield Fence: Batted ball going over yellow line on top of outfield fence - HOME RUN.
